Congress and mailed to 554 tribal governments, as well as tribal account holders on December 11, 1996. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The purpose of these consultation meetings is to provide Indian Tribal trust account holders and allottees an opportunity for participation in the development of final options for the U.S. Congress to resolve Tribal trust fund claims. The objectives of the consultation meeting are:

- Achieve a settlement that is fair.
- Achieve the most resource-efficient settlement of claims (in terms of conserving federal government and Tribal time, money, and staff, including attorneys’ and expert witness fees).
- Encourage settlement by providing incentives to settle and by providing disincentives to litigation.
- Use the most informal settlement processes available rather than litigation to encourage Tribal participation.

- Obtain funding for the settlement without reducing appropriations for the BIA budget and Tribal programs.

- Achieve final agreement on account balances through September 30, 1995, as required by the Act.

The Options Paper presented to Congress incorporates many of the settlement recommendations of the Special Trustee’s Advisory Board, which was created by Section 306 of the Act. The Advisory Board’s settlement proposals were submitted to the Secretary on September 24, 1996, and were the result of a series of consultations between the Special trustee, his Advisory Board and several Tribes. As requested by the Special Trustee, the Advisory Board’s recommendations were appended to the Options Paper. The Options Paper describes where there was agreement or disagreement with the Advisory Board’s recommendations.

All oral and written comments presented by Tribes and individuals at these consultation meetings will be recorded, transcribed and taken into consideration by the agency.

Summaries of the meetings will be available for public inspection and copying ten days following the meeting.

Written comments must be submitted on or before February 12, 1997 to: U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Public Information Room Office, Attn: Ralph Gonzales, Room 4546, M.S. MIB–4542, 1849 C Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20240.
