[Release No. 34-38262; File No. SR-CBOE-97-05]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change by the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated Relating to Waiver of Transaction Charges for FLEX Equity Options

February 10, 1997.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),<sup>1</sup> notice is hereby given that on January 30, 1997, the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission" or "SEC") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the CBOE. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The CBOE proposes to extend its waiver of Exchange fees on transactions in Equity FLEX options traded on the Exchange until further notice. The text of the proposed rule change is available at the Office of the Secretary, CBOE and at the Commission.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the CBOE included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The CBOE has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of and Statutory Basis for, Proposed Rule Change

Purpose

In conjunction with the start of trading of FLEX Equity options, the Exchange waived Exchanges fees related to transactions in Equity FLEX until January 31, 1997. The Exchange has now determined to extend the waiver of the transaction fees because the Exchange believes that the waiver will encourage trading in this new product and will place the Exchange in a position to compete effectively for business in Equity FLEX options with other exchanges trading the same product.

The Exchange intends to establish transaction charges for FLEX Equity options at some time in the future.<sup>2</sup> However, the Exchange is now proposing to waive the transaction fees until further notice. The fees affected and the amount of the fees absent any reduction or rebate<sup>3</sup> are: (1) Exchange transaction fees, which are $.05 per contract side for market-makers, $.06 for member firm proprietary trades, $.15 for customer trades for options under $1, and $.30 for customer trade for options of $1 or more; (2) trade match fees, which are $.04 per contract side for all trades; and (3) floor broker fees, which are $.03 per contract side for all trades. The forgoing fee changes are being <sup>2</sup> The Commission notes that any imposition of transaction charges for FLEX Equity Options would have to be submitted to the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Act.

<sup>3</sup> The fees may actually be less than these amounts pursuant to the Exchange's Prospective Fee Reduction Schedule, the Customer Large Trade Discount Program, and rebate programs that have been filed with the Commission as part of the Exchange's fee schedule.
