SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Pursuant to section 121(a) of the Job Training Reform Amendments of 1992 (Pub. L. 102-367, September 7, 1992, effective July 1, 1993) "any State seeking financial assistance under this Act shall submit a Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan (GCSSP) for two program years to the Secretary describing the use of all resources provided to the State and its service delivery areas under this Act and evaluating the experience over the preceding two years."

II. Current Actions

States are required to submit a new GCSSP biennially.

Type of Review: Reinstatement without change.

Agency: Employment and Training Administration.

Title: Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan (GCSSP).

OMB Number: 1205-0336.

Recordkeeping: These records must be kept for a minimum of three years after the affected program dates.

Affected Public: State and local governments.

Total Respondents: 59.

Frequency: Biennially.

Total responses: 59.

Average Time per Response: 50 hours.

Estimated Total Burden Hours: 2,950.

Total Burden Cost (capital/startup): Federal cost of $54,629. This represents 20 percent of five GS-13's salaries. It is estimated that five GS-13's will spend 20 percent of his/her time on the preparation clearance and dissemination of instructions and the review and processing of the incoming GCSSP for each State.

State cost would be $1,100 per submission. The individual preparing the request is likely to be earning $45,000 per year or $22.00 per hour times 50 hours of preparation.

Total Burden Cost (operating/maintaining): Burden cost for operating and maintaining is the amount of money allowed for the administration of JTPA.

Comments submitted in response to this comment request will be summarized and/or included in the request for Office of Management and Budget approval of the information collection request; they will also become a matter of public record.

Dated: June 13, 1997.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Native American Employment and Training Council; Renewal

In accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Secretary of Labor has determined that the renewal of the Native American Employment and Training Council is in the public interest consistent with the requirements of title IV, section 401(k)(1) of the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA).

The Council will provide advice to the Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training regarding the overall operation and administration of Native American programs authorized under title IV, section 401, as amended, as well as the implementation of other programs providing services to Native American youth and adults under this Act. The Assistant Secretary views the Council as the primary vehicle to accomplish the Department's commitment to work in partnership with the Indian and Native American community on employment and training concerns.

The Council shall consist of no less than 17 Indians, Alaskan Natives, and Hawaiian Natives appointed by the Secretary from among individuals nominated by Indian tribes or Indian, Alaskan Native, or Hawaiian Native organizations. An equitable geographic distribution will be sought, in addition to appropriate representation of both tribes and non-tribal organizations. The members shall not be compensated and shall not be deemed to be employees of the United States.

The Council will function solely as an advisory body, and in compliance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. Its charter will be filed under the Act 15 days from the date of this publication.

Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding the renewal of the Native American Employment and Training Council. Such comments should be addressed to: Mr. Thomas M. Dowd, Chief, Division of Indian and Native American Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Room N-4641, Washington, DC 20210. Telephone: (202) 219-8502 ext 119 (this is not a toll free number).

Signed at Washington, DC this 17th day of June, 1997.

Alexis M. Herman,

Secretary of Labor.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

[Docket Number ICR-97-19]

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request; Access to Employee Exposure and Medical Records

AGENCY: Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), Department of Labor.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently the Occupational Safety and Health Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension of the information collection request for the Access to Employee Exposure and Medical Records Standard 29 CFR 1910.1020. The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before August 22, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Comments are to be submitted to the Docket Office, Docket No. ICR-97-19, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-2625, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 219-7894.

Written comments limited to 10 pages or fewer may also be transmitted by facsimile to (202) 219-5046.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Contact Todd Owen, Directorate of Health Standards Programs, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-3647, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20210. Telephone: (202) 219-7075. Copies of the referenced information collection request are available for inspection and copying in the Docket Office and will be mailed to persons who request copies by telephoning Barbara Bielaski at (202) 219-8076 or Todd Owen at (202) 219-7075. For electronic copies of the Information Collection Request on Access to Employee Exposure and Medical Records contact OSHA's WebPage on Internet at <http://www.osha.gov/> and click on standards.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The purpose of the Access to Employee Exposure and Medical Records Standard and its information collection requirements are to provide employees and their designated representatives the right to access relevant exposure and medical records, and to provide representatives of the Assistant Secretary the right of access to these records in order to fulfill responsibilities under the Occupational Safety and Health Act. Access by employees, their representatives, and the Assistant Secretary is necessary to yield both direct and indirect improvements in the detection, treatment, and prevention of occupational disease. Each employer is responsible for assuring compliance with this standard, but the activities involved in complying with the access to medical records provisions can be carried out, on behalf of the employer, by the physician or other health care personnel in charge of employee medical records.

II. Current Actions

This action requests an extension of the current Office of Management and Budget approval of the paperwork requirements in the Access to Employee Exposure and Medical Records Standards.

Extension is necessary to continue to allow employee, employee designated representatives and OSHA access to exposure and medical records.
