

service resulting from increased rate base as a result of additional plant investment. Increase in rate base related expenses, such as depreciation, return on income taxes and other taxes are reflected in the proposed cost of service, as well as increased operations and maintenance expenses.

In addition to reflecting the revised cost of service, KNI states that its proposed rates have been developed using billing determinants and throughput levels that will allow KN to collect revenues that are equal to the proposed cost of service for performing transportation and storage services.

KNI has served copies of this filing upon all jurisdictional customers, interested State Commissions, and other interested parties.

Any person desiring to be heard or protest the proposed tariff sheets should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with §§ 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with § 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

[Docket No. RP96-199-011]

Mississippi River Transmission Corporation; Notice of Refund Report

January 28, 1998.

Take notice that on January 16, 1998, Mississippi River Transmission Corporation (MRT) filed its report of refunds in the above referenced docket for the period October 1, 1996 through June 30, 1997.

MRT states that a December 20, 1997, it distributed, to eligible Consenting Parties refunds covering the period October 1, 1996 through June 30, 1997, including interest calculated in accordance with Section 154.501(d) of the Commission's Regulations, 18 CFR 154.501(d). MRT also states that these refunds reflect the difference, including interest, between the total payments actually made to MRT each firm and interruptible customer that is a Consenting Party and the Period I Settlement Rates established pursuant to the Settlement dated July 25, 1997.

MRT states that a copy of this report is being mailed to each of its affected customers and the state commissions of Arkansas, Illinois and Missouri.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests should be filed on or before February 4, 1998.

Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
