

remains and associated funerary objects from Westerly, RI in the possession of the Rhode Island Historical Society, Providence, RI.

A detailed assessment of the human remains was made by Rhode Island Historical Society, Haffenreffer Museum of Anthropology, and the Public Archaeology Lab professional staffs in consultation with representatives of Narragansett Indian Tribe.

In 1835, human remains representing one individual (a hair lock) were recovered from a railhead site in Westerly, RI and sold to the Rhode Island Historical Society by Mr. Chesebrough. No known individuals were identified. The three associated funerary objects include a string of beads, wampum, and a wampum shell bracelet.

Based on funerary objects, this railhead site has been determined to be a Narragansett burial site during the historic period (approximately 16th century until the late 1600s). Historical documents and archeological evidence indicates this area was occupied by the Narragansett Indian Tribe during this period.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the Rhode Island Historical Society have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains listed above represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry. Officials of the Rhode Island Historical Society have also determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (3)(A), the three objects listed above are reasonably believed to have been placed with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony. Lastly, officials of the Rhode Island Historical Society have determined that, pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001 (2), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these Native American human remains and associated funerary objects and the Narragansett Indian Tribe.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Narragansett Indian Tribe. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these human remains and associated funerary objects should contact Linda Eppich, Curator, or Albert T. Klyberg, Director, Rhode Island Historical Society, 110 Benevolent St., Providence, RI 02906, telephone (401) 331-8575, before April 8, 1998. Repatriation of the human remains and associated funerary objects to the Narragansett Indian Tribe may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations within this notice.

Dated: March 3, 1998.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Drug Enforcement Administration

[Docket No. 98-6]

Nora Brayshaw, M.D.; Revocation of Registration

On October 7, 1997, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), issued an Order to Show Cause to Nora Brayshaw, M.D. (Respondent), of Sausalito, California.

The Order to Show Cause notified her of an opportunity to show cause as to why DEA should not revoke her DEA Certificate of Registration AB9072618, and deny any pending applications for renewal of such registration pursuant to 823(f) and 824, for reason that she is not currently authorized to handle controlled substances in the State of California.

By letter dated November 8, 1997, Respondent, through counsel, filed a request for a hearing, and the matter was docketed before Administrative Law Judge Mary Ellen Bittner. On November 18, 1997, Judge Bittner issued an Order for Prehearing Statements. On November 20, 1997, the Government filed a Motion for Summary Disposition, alleging that effective January 16, 1997, the Medical Board of California (Board) revoked Respondent's license to practice medicine in California and therefore, she is not authorized to handle controlled substances in that state. Respondent submitted a response dated December 8, 1997, to the Government's motion, arguing that the revocation by the Board is under review, and therefore is not a final decision. Respondent further agreed that no action should be taken by DEA "until the California matter is final."

On January 6, 1998, Judge Bittner issued her Opinion and Recommended Ruling, Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Decision, finding that Respondent lacked authorization to handle controlled substances in the State of California; granting the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition; and recommending that Respondent's DEA Certificate of Registration be revoked. Neither party filed exceptions to her opinion, and on February 9, 1998, Judge Bittner transmitted the record of these proceedings to the Acting Deputy Administrator.

The Acting Deputy Administrator has considered the record in its entirety, and pursuant to 21 CFR 1316.67, hereby issues his final order based upon findings of fact and conclusions of law as hereinafter set forth. The Acting Deputy Administrator adopts, in full, the Opinion and Recommended Ruling, Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Decision of the Administrative Law Judge.

The Acting Deputy Administrator finds that by a Decision effective January 16, 1997, the Board adopted the proposed decision of an Administrative Law Judge of the Board recommending the revocation of Respondent's license to practice medicine in the State of California. Respondent argues that her DEA registration should not be revoked
