

HIV-1, HIV-2, hepatitis B virus, hepatitis C virus, HTLV-I, HTLV-II, and Treponema pallidum. A request for determination may be based upon infectious agent tests performed using test kits other than those licensed or approved by FDA. In such cases, FDA suggests that the request contain a copy of the labeling for the test kit used, translated into English, as part of the submission; and

- A copy of the product's label. FDA recommends that the label include information such as the product's descriptive name; the name(s) and address(es) of establishments collecting, preparing, labeling, or pooling the source material; donor, lot, or pool numbers relating the unit to the donor; the recommended storage temperature (in degrees Celsius); the product's quantity; statements such as "Import for Export," "Not for Use in Products Subject to Licensure Under Section 351 of the Public Health Service Act," and "For Manufacturing Use Only" or "For Manufacturing into Noninjectable Products Only;" statements indicating that the product has been tested for infectious disease agents and, if the product has tested positive for an infectious disease agent, the term "BIOHAZARD" as well as any other appropriate warnings or special handling instructions.

A request for determination may be sent to the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research, Office of Compliance, Division of Case Management (HFM-610), 1401 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852-1448. If FDA determines that the blood, blood component, source plasma, or source leukocyte, or a component, accessory, or part meets the appropriate circumstances and conditions to permit its importation into the United States, FDA will notify the person requesting the determination that it has granted permission to import the article.
