6. Federalism. In accordance with Executive Order 12612, the policy does not have significant Federalism effects. This policy will not affect other governments since it only applies to lands and activities within the National Wildlife Refuge System. This policy will not affect small governments. A Federalism assessment is not required.

7. Civil Justice Reform. In accordance with Executive Order 12988, the Office of the Solicitor has determined that the policy does not unduly burden the judicial system and meets the requirements of sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of the Order.

8. Paperwork Reduction Act. This regulation does not require any information collection under the Paperwork Reduction Act.

9. National Environmental Policy Act. We have analyzed this policy in accordance with the criteria of the National Environmental Policy Act and 318 DM 2.2(g) and 6.3(D). This policy does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. An environmental impact statement/assessment is not required.

10. Government-to-Government Relationship with Tribes. We have evaluated possible effects on Federally recognized Indian tribes in accordance with the President’s memorandum of April 29, 1994, “Government-to-Government Relations with Native American Tribal Governments” (59 FR 22951) and 512 DM 2. We have determined there are no effects on Federally recognized Indian tribes since it only applies to lands and activities within the National Wildlife Refuge System.

Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Inv. No. 337–TA–412]
Certain Video Graphics Display Controllers and Products Containing Same; Notice of Investigation

ACTION: Institution of investigation pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1337.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that a complaint was filed with the U.S. International Trade Commission on July 1, 1998, under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, on behalf of Cirrus Logic, Inc., 3100 West Warren Avenue, Fremont, California 94538. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation and the sale within the United States after importation of certain video graphics display controllers and products containing same by reason of infringement of claims 37 and 43 of U.S. Letters Patent 5,998,525. The complaint further alleges that there exists an industry in the United States as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.

The complaint requests that the Commission institute an investigation and, after a hearing, issue a permanent exclusion order and a permanent cease and desist order.

ADDRESSES: The complaint, except for any confidential information contained therein, is available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Room 112, Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202–205–2000. Hearing-impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission’s TDD terminal on 202–205–1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202–205–2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server (http://www.usitc.gov).

SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION: Having considered the complaint, the U.S. International Trade Commission, on July 27, 1998, Ordered That—

(1) Pursuant to subsection (b) of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, an investigation be instituted to determine whether there is a violation of subsection (a)(1)(B) of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain video graphics display controllers or products containing same by reason of infringement of claims 37 or 43 of U.S. Letter Patent 5,998,525, and whether there exists an industry in the United States as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337.
