DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

National Institute of Corrections

Solicitation for a Cooperative Agreement

SUMMARY: The Department of Justice (DOJ), National Institute of Corrections (NIC) in collaboration with the Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Corrections Program Office (CPO), announces the availability of funds in FY 1999 for a cooperative agreement to fund the "Washington State/Local Planning for Correctional Population Management" project.

A cooperative agreement is a form of assistance relationship where the National Institute of Corrections is substantially involved during the performance of the award. An award is made to an organization that will, in concert with the Institute, provide technical assistance to the jurisdictions in Washington State involved in the planning effort. No funds are transferred to state or local governments.

The Institute's Prisons Division will provide financial assistance in the form of a cooperative agreement to facilitate the policy development by state and local teams which include key decision makers and administrators like sheriffs, police chiefs, administrators in the Department of Corrections and jails, and well as the legislature. This collaboration with federal, state and local participation will address the effective allocation of resources for managing offenders in prisons, jails and community option programs to increase the availability of secure prison beds for the persistent/violent offender.
