

test for U.S. sales. Therefore Bakrie's comment with respect to U.S. costs is moot.

Comment 8: Exclusion of Globe's Assistance in Bakrie's Reported COP. Petitioner contends that the Department should adjust Bakrie's reported COP to account for Globe's contribution to the joint venture which Petitioner asserts was not reflected in Bakrie's reported COP.

DOC Position. We disagree with Petitioner. Globe's contribution to the joint venture was already included in Bakrie's reported COP and CV databases. For further discussion, see the Calculation Memorandum to the File dated, March 18, 1999.

ITC Notification

In accordance with section 735(d) of the Act, we have notified the International Trade Commission (ITC) of our determination. As our final determination is affirmative, the ITC will, within 45 days, determine whether these imports are materially injuring, or threaten material injury to, the U.S.

If the ITC determines that such injury does exist, the Department will issue an antidumping duty order directing Customs officials to assess antidumping duties on all imports of the subject merchandise entered for consumption on or after the effective date of the suspension of liquidation.

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.
SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce is extending the time limit for the final results in the 11th administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia. The period of review is March 1, 1997, through February 28, 1998. This extension is made pursuant to section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act.
EFFECTIVE DATE: March 26, 1999.
FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Rosa Jeong or Marian Wells, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230; telephone (202) 482-3853 or 482-6309, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Commerce (the Department) initiated the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on certain fresh cut flowers from Colombia on April 21, 1998 (63 FR 19709). On December 7, 1998, we extended the deadline for these preliminary results until February 10, 1999 (63 FR 6754). On February 18, 1999, we published in the Federal Register the preliminary results of this administrative review (64 FR 8059).

Due to the complexity of the issues present in this case, the Department has determined that it is not practicable to complete this review within the original time limit set forth in section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (the Act), as amended by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act. Therefore, the Department is extending the time limit for completion of the final results until August 17, 1999.

As a result of the extension of the final results, the Department is also postponing the briefing schedule. Case briefs will be due on June 3, 1999, rebuttal briefs will be due on June 10, 1999.

This extension is in accordance with the section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act.
