

contract and add the contract in question to the Procurement List. The Committee proceeded as suggested, and the 1994 addition actually benefitted rather than harmed the contractor. Consequently, the Committee does not believe the 1994 addition ever had a significant adverse impact on the contractor, nor does it believe the current and 1994 additions together constitute severe adverse impact on the contractor.

The following material pertains to all of the items being added to the Procurement List:

After consideration of the material presented to it concerning capability of qualified nonprofit agencies to provide the services and impact of the additions on the current or most recent contractors, the Committee has determined that the services listed below are suitable for procurement by the Federal Government under 41 U.S.C. 46-48c and 41 CFR 51-2.4. I certify that the following action will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities. The major factors considered for this certification were:

1. The action will not result in any additional reporting, recordkeeping or other compliance requirements for small entities other than the small organizations that will furnish the services to the Government.

2. The action will not have a severe economic impact on current contractors for the services.

3. The action will result in authorizing small entities to furnish the services to the Government.

4. There are no known regulatory alternatives which would accomplish the objectives of the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act (41 U.S.C. 46-48c) in connection with the services proposed for addition to the Procurement List.

Accordingly, the following services are hereby added to the Procurement List:

Base Supply Center and Operation of Individual Equipment Element Store
Moody Air Force Base, Georgia

Duplicating Service
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Baltimore, Maryland

Janitorial/Custodial
Federal Building #4, 4401 Suitland Road,
Suitland, Maryland

This action does not affect current contracts awarded prior to the effective date of this addition or options that may be exercised under those contracts.

Executive Director.
