

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the NGA and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Columbia to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Linwood A. Watson, Jr.,

Acting Secretary.

Dauphin Island Gathering Partners; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

July 28, 2000.

Take notice that on July 20, 2000, Dauphin Island Gathering Partners (DIGP) tendered for filing to become part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, Substitute First Revised Sheet No. 221, with an effective date of March 27, 2000.

DIGP states that the tariff sheet corrected an error in the definition of long-term transactions and is proposed to become effective on March 27, 2000.

DIGP states that on June 15, 2000, it filed tariff sheets to comply with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission final rule regarding the regulation of short-term interstate natural gas transportation services in Docket Nos. RM98-10 and RM98-12 (Order No. 637). In the instant filing, DIGP is filing to implement provisions of Order No. 637 regarding the waiver of the rate ceiling for short-term capacity release transactions. By Letter Order issued on July 13, 2000, these tariff sheets were accepted subject to the condition of correcting the above referenced language.

DIGP states that copies of the filing are being served contemporaneously on all participants listed on the service list in this proceeding and on all persons who are required by the Commission's regulations to be served with the application initiating these proceedings.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call (202) 208-2222 for assistance).

[Docket No. RP00-84-001]

Kansas Pipeline Company; Notice of Refund Report

July 28, 2000.

Take notice that on April 27, 2000, Kansas Pipeline Company (KPC) tendered for filing an Excess Interruptible Revenue Refund Report.

KPC states that the refund report is being filed pursuant to the Commission's April 3, 2000 order directing KPC to refile its refund report within 30 days of the April 3 date to include a delineation of interest calculations on the subject refund and complete refund calculations and allocations.

KPC states that pursuant to the Commission's directives, KPC is submitting a delineation of interest calculations on the subject refund, and a Refund Report covering the period from May 11, 1998 to September 30, 1998.

KPC requests waiver of Section 24.5 of the General Terms and Conditions of KPC's tariff, that requires excess revenues to be credited against reservation charges, so that KPC can issue a lump-sum payment to its firm shipper Kansas Gas Service Company.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed on or before August 6, 2000. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
