(h) In an appropriate proceeding before a court, or administrative or adjudicative body when the Department of Justice determines that the records are arguably relevant to the proceeding; or in an appropriate proceeding before a court, or administrative or adjudicative body, when the adjudicator determines the records to be relevant to the proceeding;

(i) The Department of Justice may disclose relevant and necessary information to a former employee of the Department for purposes of: responding to an official inquiry by a federal, state, or local government entity or professional licensing authority, in accordance with applicable Department regulations; or facilitating communications with a former employee that may be necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes where the Department requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility; and

(j) To federal, state, local, tribal, foreign or international licensing agencies or associations which require information concerning the suitability or eligibility of an individual for a license or permit.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records may be retrieved by identifying data including name and/or register number of inmate; and/or by name and/or electronic address of message recipient or individual on approved inmate electronic message correspondent list.

SAFEGUARDS:

Information is safeguarded in accordance with Bureau rules and policy governing automated information systems security and access. These safeguards include the maintenance of records and technical equipment in restricted areas, and the required use of proper passwords and user identification codes to access the system. Only those Bureau personnel and authorized contractors who require access to perform their official duties may access the system equipment and the information in the system. Bureau inmates will only be able to access their own sent and received electronic messages.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Electronic messages are maintained ordinarily for six months from the date created, at which time they are overwritten with new data. Other records in this system may be incorporated into another system of records, e.g., JUSTICE/BOP-005, Inmate Central Records System. System-generated reports are retained for as long as they are needed. Computerized records are destroyed by degaussing; documentary records are destroyed by shredding.

BILLING CODE 4410-05-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Antitrust Division

Proposed Termination of Final Decree

Notice is hereby given that Ludowici Roof Tile, Inc. ("Ludowici"), successor in interest to Ludowici-Celadon Company ("Ludowici-Celadon"), a defendant in Unitd States v. Ludowici-Celadon Co., et al., In Equity No. 9022 (N.D. III. Mar. 12, 1929), has filed a motion to terminate the final Decree entered in that matter on March 18, 1929 (the "Decree"). The Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, in a Stipulation also filed with the Court, tentatively has consented to termination of the Decree, but has reserved the right to withdraw its consent pending receipt of public comments.

On March 12, 1929, the United States filed a Petition against Ludowici-Celadon and sixteen individuals, including certain exclusive sales agents, "preferred roofers," and certain Ludowici-Celadon officers, directors, and employees. The Petition alleged that the defendants conspired to restrain interstate trade and commerce in the manufacture and sale of "roofing tile" and to monopolize and attempt to monopolize such trade. The Decree defined "roofing tile" as "tile produced from shale or clay and used as a covering for pitched roofs, cornices and other exposed surfaces of buildings and structures."

The Decree perpetually enjoined the defendants from continuing the conspiracy or entering into any combination similar thereto. The Decree prohibited the defendants from engaging in any exclusionary or otherwise potentially or patently anticompetitive conduct. The Decree also perpetually enjoined Ludowici-Celadon from acquiring ownership or control of any additional plants engaged in the manufacture and sale of roofing tile.

The Department has filed with the Court a memorandum setting forth the reasons the United States believes that termination of the Decree would serve
