A. Does this Action Apply to Me?

This action is directed to the public in general, and may be of interest to a wide range of stakeholders including environmental, human health, farmworker, and agricultural advocates; the chemical industry; pesticide users; and members of the public interested in the sale, distribution, or use of pesticides. Since others also may be interested, the Agency has not attempted to describe all the specific entities that may be affected by this action. If you have any questions regarding the applicability of this action to a particular entity, consult the person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

B. What Should I Consider as I Prepare My Comments for EPA?

1. Submitting CBI. Do not submit this information to EPA through regulations.gov or e-mail. Clearly mark the part or all of the information that you claim to be CBI. For CBI information in a disk or CD ROM that you mail to EPA, mark the outside of the disk or CD ROM as CBI and then identify electronically within the disk or CD ROM the specific information that is claimed as CBI. In addition to one complete version of the comment that includes information claimed as CBI, a copy of the comment that does not contain the information claimed as CBI must be submitted for inclusion in the public docket. Information so marked will not be disclosed except in accordance with procedures set forth in 40 CFR part 2.

2. Tips for preparing your comments. When submitting comments, remember to:

viii. Make sure to submit your comments by the comment period deadline identified.

II. Background

A. What Action is the Agency Taking?

EPA is making available the proposed decision documents and related supporting documents for azinphos-methyl and phosmet.

In the azinphos-methyl 2001 IRED, and subsequent Memorandum of Agreement, the Agency concluded, based on evaluation of the risks and benefits of the use of azinphos-methyl, that 35 uses should either be immediately canceled or phased out over a four-year period. The remaining ten time-limited azinphos-methyl uses (almonds, apples/crabapples, highbush and lowbush blueberries, Brussels sprouts, cherries, nursery stock, parsley, pears, pistachios, and walnuts) were eligible for reregistration for a period of four years, after which EPA would accept and evaluate applications for renewal of the registrations.

In the phosmet 2001 IRED EPA determined that three uses should be canceled and that 33 uses were eligible for reregistration. EPA made a time-limited determination for nine uses (apples, crabapples, peaches, pears, nectarines, apricots, plums/prunes, grapes, and highbush blueberries) and would reconsider those uses in 2006. The IRED provided that this reconsideration would involve a determination whether the restricted-entry intervals (REIs) for workers that were imposed as a result of the IRED should be maintained indefinitely or whether longer "default" REIs, or other appropriate REIs, should be adopted.

These IREDs were implemented through Memoranda of Agreements with the phosmet and azinphos-methyl technical registrants in 2001 and 2002, respectively.

After consideration of the risks and benefits of these pesticides, as provided in the IREDs, EPA is proposing that the remaining uses of azinphos-methyl be phased out according to the following schedule: almonds, pistachios, walnuts, Brussels sprouts, and nursery stock in 2005 and apples/crabapples, blueberries, cherries, pears, and parsley in 2010. EPA is also proposing certain additional risk-mitigation restrictions and activities, including larger buffers, reducing annual application rates, and eliminating the few remaining aerial uses.

EPA is proposing to increase the REIs for most of the nine time-limited uses of phosmet and to require additional biomonitoring data and additional use restrictions.

The decision documents, including the Agency's supporting rationale for these proposed decisions can be found in docket identification number EPA-HQ-OPP-2005-0061 for azinphos-methyl, and docket identification number EPA-HQ-OPP-2002-0354 for phosmet at <http://www.regulations.gov>.

EPA is providing an opportunity, through this notice, for interested parties to provide comments and input on the Agency's proposed decisions for azinphos-methyl and phosmet.

Comments should be limited to issues raised by the proposed decisions and associated documents. All comments should be submitted using the methods in ADDRESSES, and must be received by EPA on or before the closing date. Comments will become part of the Agency Docket for azinphos-methyl and phosmet.

B. What is the Agency's Authority for Taking this Action?

EPA is reevaluating these uses of AZM and phosmet pursuant to section 3c(5) of FIFRA, which provides, among other things, that the EPA Administrator shall register a pesticide when its use will not cause unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.
