RIN 1513-AB63

Liquor Dealer Recordkeeping and Registration, and Repeal of Certain Special (Occupational) Taxes

AGENCY: Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, Treasury.

ACTION: Temporary rule; Treasury decision.

SUMMARY: This temporary rule amends the regulations administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, to reflect the repeal of certain special (occupational) taxes by section 11125 of the Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users. The repeal involves such taxes on alcohol beverage producers and dealers, tax-free alcohol users, denatured spirits users and dealers, and persons claiming drawback for the manufacture of nonbeverage alcoholic products. In place of the special (occupational) tax requirement, the amended law requires recordkeeping and registration by dealers in distilled spirits, wines, and beer, and by manufacturers of nonbeverage products who claim drawback. We also are soliciting comments from all interested parties on these regulatory amendments through a notice of proposed rulemaking published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register.

DATES: Effective Dates: This temporary rule is effective July 28, 2009 through July 30, 2012.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 10, 2005, the President signed into law the "Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act: A Legacy for Users," Public Law 109-59, 119 Stat. 1953 (the Act). Section

11125 of the Act amended certain provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (IRC) (26 U.S.C.) to repeal, effective July 1, 2008, the provisions covering special (occupational) taxes (also referred to in this document as SOT or special taxes) on:

- Producers and dealers of alcohol beverages,
- Manufacturers of nonbeverage products,
- Users of tax-free alcohol, and
- Users and dealers of specially denatured spirits.

Although section 11125 repealed the tax for these occupations, it did not remove the recordkeeping and registration requirements for dealers in alcohol beverages and for manufacturers of nonbeverage products. Under section 11125, all persons who sell distilled spirits, wine, or beer are dealers. As explained below, this covers only those dealers who sell alcohol products fit for beverage use.

The IRC chapter 51 and 52 provisions referred to above, and the regulations promulgated thereunder and contained in title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, are administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB).

In order to remove the special (occupational) taxes on producers and marketers of alcohol beverages, paragraph (a) of section 11125 repealed the following subparts and sections of IRC chapter 51, subchapter A, part II:

- Subpart A relating to proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine cellars, etc. (26 U.S.C. 5081);
- Subpart B relating to brewers (26 U.S.C. 5091-5093);
- Subpart D relating to wholesale dealers, except for sections 5114 and 5116 (26 U.S.C. 5111-5113 and 5117);
- Subpart E relating to retail dealers, except for section 5124 (26 U.S.C. 5121-5123 and 5125); and
- Subpart G relating to general provisions, except for sections 5142, 5143, 5145, and 5146 (26 U.S.C. 5141 and 5147-5149).

Section 11125(a) also did away with the special (occupational) tax on nonbeverage drawback claimants by removing from 26 U.S.C. 5131 the reference to annual payment of a special tax. Finally, section 11125(a) did away with the special (occupational) tax on industrial use of distilled spirits by repealing 26 U.S.C. 5276.

Paragraph (b) of section 11125 made a number of conforming amendments to IRC chapter 51, subchapter A, part II. These amendments involved:

- Redesignating subpart C as subpart A;
- Redesignating subpart F as subpart B (with sections 5131 through 5134 redesignated as sections 5111 through 5114);

- Removing the special tax rate provision from redesignated section 5111; and
- Adding new subparts C (containing new sections 5121 through 5124) and D (containing new sections 5131 and 5132). Note: A technical error in the designation of section 5121 was corrected by section 11(a)(31) of the Tax Technical Corrections Act of 2007 (Pub. L. 110-172, 121 Stat. 2487).

New sections 5121, 5122, and 5123 were obtained by redesignating sections 5114, 5124, and 5146, respectively. The text of former section 5112 is included in new section 5121, and the text of former section 5122 is included in new section 5122. New section 5124, titled "Registration by Dealers," is patterned after existing section 7011(a). New section 5131 was obtained by redesignating section 5116, and new section 5132 contains, with a change, the text of former section 5117.

Paragraph (b) of section 11125 made additional conforming amendments elsewhere in the IRC, of which we note the following:

- Chapter 51, subchapter J, part V (section 5691) was repealed (although the terms of section 5691(b) were included in new section 5121(c)(4)); and
- Sections 5142, 5143, and 5145 were redesignated as sections 5732, 5733, and 5734 in subchapter D of chapter 52, relating to the special tax on tobacco occupations, which remains in effect.

Temporary Rule

Based on the July 1, 2008, effective date of the repeal of certain special (occupational) taxes, as described above, TTB believes that the proper administration of the repeal and the related changes to recordkeeping and registration requirements necessitates immediate adoption of the implementing regulations as a temporary rule.

Public Participation

To submit comments on the regulatory amendments contained in this temporary rule, please refer to the related notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register.

Basic Interpretative Considerations

Based on a careful reading of the amendments set out in section 11125 of the Act and resulting statutory language, TTB has applied the following considerations in preparing the regulatory changes to title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations (27 CFR) set forth in this document:

1. Application. Consistent with the Government's longstanding interpretation of the IRC, liquor dealer recordkeeping and registration requirements apply only to dealers in alcohol fit for beverage use. See, e.g., 26 CFR 194.21 (1960 ed.). "Alcohol fit for beverage use" not only includes alcohol beverages but also includes alcoholic products for industrial use, unless the products are unfit for beverage use.

2. Frequency of registration. SOT for dealers was an annual tax, and filing of the return and registration was required by regulation on an annual basis. However, the IRC does not, and never did, require annual dealer registration, only that such dealers must "register with the Secretary." We see no reason to continue the annual filing requirement in the absence of annual collection of a tax. Instead, the regulatory changes in this document lessen the dealers' burden by requiring registration upon entering business as a dealer, with subsequent registrations required only for reporting changes in certain information and upon termination of business. On the other hand, Manufacturer of Nonbeverage Products (MNBP) drawback claimant registration is required annually because of the wording of 26 U.S.C. 5112. For persons filing MNBP drawback claims under the IRC, the first claim for the calendar year will satisfy the registration requirement if the claim contains the required registration information; subsequent claims with updated information will be considered amended registrations.

3. Registration of proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine cellars, etc. Since the definition of "dealer" in new section 5121(c)(4) of the IRC refers to "any person who sells, or offers for sale, any distilled spirits, wines, or beer," the requirements for recordkeeping and registration by dealers will also apply to proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine premises, taxpaid wine bottling houses, and breweries, if those proprietors sell their products or offer them for sale. Although these persons previously were generally exempted by 26 U.S.C. 5113 from the registration requirements applicable to liquor and beer dealers, this situation changed when section 11125 of the Act repealed section 5113 of the IRC and thereby deleted the exemption under section 5113.

In order to minimize the resulting regulatory burden, TTB has determined that proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine premises, and taxpaid wine bottling houses who have qualified under the IRC, and brewers who hold approved brewers' notices under the IRC, will be deemed to have registered as dealers. In other words, the qualification and brewer's notice will serve as the registration required by section 11125. As part of the qualification or notice process, the proprietor must file and maintain in a current status all the information required for dealer registration under section 11125. Required notices of changes to the information required for IRC qualification or the brewer's notice will be considered as amendments to the dealer registration, and notice that the proprietor is going out of business will terminate the dealer registration as well.

4. Proprietors will be registered as wholesale liquor dealers. Proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine premises, and taxpaid wine bottling houses qualified under the IRC, and brewers who hold approved brewers' notices under the IRC, will be treated as wholesale liquor dealers for registration purposes. This will allow the proprietor to sell distilled spirits, wine or beer at wholesale or retail from the covered location. For proprietors who have retail operations such as taverns on brewery premises, or who run wholesale or import operations from their premises and sell alcohol beverages other than the ones they produce, this interpretation will give maximum registration flexibility. Because industrial distilled spirits plants are qualified under the IRC, they will be considered as having registered as a wholesale liquor dealer for sales of undenatured alcohol. Even though a proprietor who makes no sales of alcohol fit for beverage use is not required to register, we believe this approach imposes the least overall burden. Since there is no cost to the proprietor, there is no reason to make a distinction in the registration.

5. Persons who must register on Form 5630.5d. Persons required to hold a basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration (FAA) Act as wholesalers or importers are considered dealers under section 11125, and so must file a registration on Form 5630.5d, as must retail dealers. This registration will remain in effect as long as the required information remains the same. Changes must be reported by filing of an amended Form 5630.5d if any of the required information changes, and the registrations must be terminated when covered operations cease. States, localities, and the District of Columbia are required to register only once as a wholesaler and once as a retailer in order to cover all operations within the jurisdiction in question.

6. Records. Required records for wholesale and retail liquor and beer dealers are specified in 27 CFR part 31 and are not significantly changed by this document. Breweries and proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine premises, and taxpaid wine bottling houses, who keep required records under the applicable IRC regulations, need not generate additional records as dealers for the same transactions.

7. Transition to new rules. For persons who were required to register and report changes on TTB Form 5630.5 during the SOT suspension period (July 1, 2005, through June 30, 2008), any registration filed after January 1, 2007, will constitute a valid registration required on or after July 1, 2008, and will continue in effect until the required registration information changes or operations are terminated. Therefore, such existing registrants will not have to re-register to comply with the new registration requirements. However, existing businesses that have not registered on or after January 1, 2007, must file a one-time registration on or before July 1, 2009, using TTB Form 5630.5d. The reasons for these dates are as follows: (1) Technically, the last registration required under the regulations for the 3-year SOT suspension was due on or before July 1, 2007. Most registrants would probably have filed before the deadline, but few, if any, would have filed before January 1, 2007; and (2) since this document was not published before July 1, 2008, the first registration under these new regulations—except for new businesses—will be due July 1, 2009. This transition rule applies to alcohol beverage dealers, breweries, and proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine premises, and taxpaid wine bottling houses, but not to MNBP drawback claimants. As noted above, MNBPs will be considered registered when they file the first claim for each year.

8. Effective date. The amendments made by section 11125 were effective on July 1, 2008. However, these regulations take effect on the date of their publication in the Federal Register. For the period between July 1, 2008, and the effective date of the temporary regulations, TTB will not apply or enforce any regulatory provision that is clearly inconsistent with current law, since statutory provisions always take precedence over conflicting regulations. On the other hand, any regulations that are not in conflict with current law (for example, the prior recordkeeping requirements) would remain in effect until superseded by the new temporary regulations. Further, section 11125 specifies, in paragraph (c), that its amendments “shall not apply to taxes imposed for periods before such date [July 1, 2008].” Therefore, persons who failed to pay special (occupational) tax when it was in force are not excused from their prior liability by the repeal of this tax.

9. Employer identification number. Section 6109(a)(1) of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 6109(a)(1)) states: “Any person required under the authority of this title to make a return, statement, or other document shall include in such return, statement, or other document such identifying number as may be prescribed for securing proper identification of such person.” In accordance with this provision and subsection (d) of section 6109, the regulations promulgated by this document require inclusion of the employer identification number (EIN) on registrations for alcohol dealers and manufacturers of nonbeverage products. This requirement is unchanged from prior regulations.

Section 6723 of the IRC imposes a penalty of $50 for each “failure by any person to comply with a specified information reporting requirement on or before the time prescribed therefor.” The definition of “specified information reporting requirement” in 26 U.S.C. 6724(d)(3) includes “any requirement contained in the regulations prescribed under section 6109 that a person—(i) include his TIN [taxpayer identification number; see 26 U.S.C. 7701(a)(41)] on any return, statement, or other document * * *.” The requirement, imposed by these regulations, to include the EIN on the registration is such an information reporting requirement. Because a person who does not submit a registration has failed to include his EIN on the registration, as required, the $50 penalty of 26 U.S.C. 6723 applies. Per 26 U.S.C. 6724(a), this penalty is not imposed when there is reasonable cause for the failure. These principles are reflected in the new temporary regulations at 27 CFR 31.14.

10. Confidentiality of registration information. Because registration is required under new section 5112 or 5124 of the IRC, the submitted information is subject to the confidentiality and disclosure requirements of section 6103 of the IRC, even though most alcohol beverage dealers are no longer TTB taxpayers. Accordingly, such registration is held to be an “information return” within the intent of 26 U.S.C. 6103. This holding is reflected in the new temporary regulations at 27 CFR 31.15, set forth below.

11. Tobacco. Section 11125 did not repeal the special (occupational) tax on any tobacco occupations; therefore, manufacturers of tobacco products, manufacturers of cigarette papers and tubes, and tobacco export warehouse proprietors must continue to register and pay the special (occupational) tax every year.

Discussion of Specific Regulatory Changes

Part 17—Drawback on Taxpaid Distilled Spirits Used in Manufacturing Nonbeverage Products

The regulations in 27 CFR part 17 govern claims for drawback on taxpaid distilled spirits that are used in manufacturing nonbeverage products. Several subparts and sections within part 17 are amended in this document to conform with the changes made by section 11125 of the Act.

Subpart C Revised. Subpart C has been substantially amended by removing all sections relating to special tax and redesignating the subpart as “Subpart C—Registration”. As noted above, effective July 1, 2008, IRC section 5132 was redesignated as section 5112. As redesignated, this section continues to require that every person who claims drawback for the manufacture of nonbeverage products must register annually as a nonbeverage domestic drawback claimant. Section 5112 does not specify either how registration will be accomplished or the items of information that must be provided as part of the registration process. However, as discussed above, TTB has decided that registration will be accomplished when the claimant submits a claim for drawback along with the supporting information that must be submitted with the claim. Thus, the filing of the claim will satisfy the requirement to register.

The revised subpart now includes a new § 17.21 that explains this registration of nonbeverage drawback claimants. The revised subpart also contains two new sections (§§ 17.22 and 17.23) relating to the use of, and application for, the employer identification number.

Subpart D Removed. Subpart D—Special Tax Stamps, consisting of §§ 17.51 through 17.93 and covering the issuance of special tax stamps, their subsequent amendment, and refunds of special tax, has been removed and reserved.

Location of Records and Recovery Operations. Several sections relating to records (§§ 17.161, 17.168, and 17.171) have been amended to delete references to the premises covered by the special tax stamp.

Miscellaneous Amendments. In addition to the above amendments, TTB has made several minor amendments to the regulations in part 17 by removing references to special tax within various sections. We also amended several legal citations within the regulations to reflect the redesignation of certain sections of law effective July 1, 2008. Finally, § 17.4 is revised to reflect the OMB control numbers that were assigned when the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau was created and to remove references to sections that have been removed from part 17.

Part 19—Distilled Spirits Plants

The regulations in 27 CFR part 19 govern operations at distilled spirits plants. Several subparts and sections within part 19 have been revised or otherwise amended.

Subpart Ca—Dealer Registration. Subpart Ca has been revised in order to remove all references to special tax, and the subpart heading has been revised to read “Dealer Registration and Recordkeeping”. Effective July 1, 2008, every proprietor of a distilled spirits plant who sells or offers for sale any distilled spirits, wines, or beer must register as a dealer. As noted above, TTB has determined that proprietors who have registered the distilled spirits plant under the qualification provisions of part 19 will be deemed to have registered as wholesale liquor dealers at the distilled spirits plant premises. The revised subpart Ca includes a new § 19.50 which explains the registration process for proprietors. In addition, the revised subpart contains a new section on amending the registration (§ 19.51) and a new section on dealer records (§ 19.52).

Dealer Recordkeeping. Although distilled spirits plants proprietors who sell, or offer for sale, distilled spirits fit for beverage use will be subject to the recordkeeping requirements of 26 U.S.C. 5121, new § 19.52 provides that the records required by subpart W of part 19 will satisfy those requirements, except where the distilled spirits plant engages in dealer operations not already covered by the recordkeeping requirements of part 19.

Alcohol Fuel Plants. In general, alcohol fuel plants would not be subject to the requirements applicable to alcohol beverage dealers, because they generally do not produce and sell alcohol fit for beverage use. However, an alcohol fuel plant that sells distilled spirits that have not been rendered unfit for beverage use (for transfer in bond to a distilled spirits plant or another alcohol fuel plant) would meet the definition of a “dealer.” Therefore, § 19.906 is revised to clarify that such an alcohol fuel plant is subject to the provisions of revised subpart Ca.

Miscellaneous Amendments. In addition to the above amendments, TTB has made several minor amendments to the regulations in part 19 to remove references to special tax in various sections. We also amended several legal citations within the regulations to reflect the redesignation of certain sections of law that went into effect on July 1, 2008. For example, a reference to “26 U.S.C. 5131–5134” in the definition of “alcoholic flavoring material” of § 19.11 has been replaced with a reference to “26 U.S.C. 5111–5114”.

Part 20—Distribution and Use of Denatured Alcohol and Rum

The regulations in 27 CFR part 20 govern the distribution and use of denatured alcohol and rum. Effective July 1, 2008, section 11125(a)(3) of the Act repealed 26 U.S.C. 5276, which imposed a special tax on dealers and users of denatured alcohol and rum. Accordingly, in part 20, subpart Ca—Special (Occupational) Taxes has been removed and reserved. TTB also notes in this regard that dealers and users of denatured alcohol and rum who operate within the requirements of the law and regulations, selling denatured products for nonbeverage purposes only, are not considered to be “dealers” under the IRC and therefore will not be required to register as such.

Part 22—Distribution and Use of Tax-Free Alcohol

The regulations in 27 CFR part 22 govern the distribution and use of tax-free alcohol. As in the case of part 20 discussed above, the repeal of 26 U.S.C. 5276, which imposed a special tax on users of tax-free alcohol, necessitates the removal from part 22 of subpart Ca—Special (Occupational) Taxes. Similarly, users of tax-free alcohol are generally not considered to be “dealers” under the IRC and therefore will not be required to register as such. However, this document also amends § 22.102 to provide that any person who sells tax-free alcohol will become a dealer and therefore will be subject to the provisions of part 31 (since tax-free alcohol is fit for beverage use).

Part 24—Wine

The regulations in 27 CFR part 24 govern operations at bonded wine premises and taxpaid wine bottling houses.

Dealer Registration. As a result of the changes to the IRC made by section 11125 of the Act, effective July 1, 2008, every proprietor of bonded wine premises and every proprietor of a taxpaid wine bottling house who sells or offers for sale any distilled spirits, wines, or beer must register as a dealer. As noted above, TTB has determined that proprietors who have qualified as a bonded wine premises or taxpaid wine bottling house under part 24 will be deemed to have registered as a wholesale liquor dealer at those premises. Section 24.52 is revised to explain the registration process for these proprietors.

Dealer Recordkeeping. Although proprietors of wine premises who sell beverage wine (or who offer it for sale) will be subject to the recordkeeping requirements of 26 U.S.C. 5121, § 24.54 is revised to provide that the records required by subpart O of part 24 will satisfy these requirements, except where the bonded wine cellar or taxpaid wine bottling house engages in dealer operations not covered by the recordkeeping requirements of part 24.

Miscellaneous Amendments to Part 24. Several sections in part 24 relating to special tax have been removed. In addition, several sections have been amended by removing all reference to special tax and by replacing those references, where appropriate, with provisions covering the registration of proprietors as dealers. TTB notes that with regard to § 24.146, which covers bonds, although the specific reference to special tax is removed, bonds will still cover liability for unpaid special tax that was due prior to the repeal. Finally, § 24.53 is revised to cover amendment of the dealer registration.

Part 25—Beer

The regulations in 27 CFR part 25 govern operations at breweries. Subpart I and several sections in part 25 have been amended.

Subpart I—Dealer Registration. Subpart I has been revised in order to remove all sections relating to special tax, and the subpart heading has been revised to read “Subpart I—Dealer Registration and Recordkeeping.” As a result of the changes to the IRC made by section 11125 of the Act, effective July 1, 2008, every proprietor of a brewery who sells or offers for sale any distilled spirits, wines, or beer must register as a dealer. As noted above, TTB has determined that registration of the brewery premises will be accomplished when the proprietor files a Brewer’s Notice, Form 5130.10, and TTB approves the notice. The revised subpart includes § 25.112, which explains the registration process for proprietors. In addition, the revised subpart contains a section on amending the registration (§ 25.113), which provides that amendments to the brewer’s notice serve as amended dealer registrations, and a section on dealer records (§ 25.114—see the description of this section immediately below).

Dealer Recordkeeping. Although brewers who sell beverage beer (or offer it for sale) will be subject to the recordkeeping requirements of 26 U.S.C. 5121, the records required by subpart U of part 25 provide similar information. Therefore, § 25.114 provides that the records of subpart U will satisfy the requirements of section 5121 of the IRC, except where the brewer engages in dealer operations not covered by the recordkeeping requirements of part 25.

Employer Identification Number. Section 25.168, which concerns employer identification numbers, has been amended to revise a cross reference to instructions regarding the application for an employer identification number. Those instructions were formerly in subpart I and addressed the preparation of the special tax return. Since subpart I now deals with dealer registration, those instructions have been removed from that subpart and added as a new § 25.169, and the cross reference in § 25.168 has been revised accordingly.

Miscellaneous Amendments. In addition to the above amendments, TTB has made several minor amendments to the part 25 regulations by removing references to special tax in various sections.

Part 26—Liquors and Articles From Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands

The regulations in 27 CFR part 26 govern operations of persons bringing alcohol beverages and certain other alcoholic products to the United States from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. These persons include brewers, proprietors of distilled spirits plants and bonded wine cellars, dealers in denatured alcohol, and nonbeverage drawback claimants. Accordingly, several sections in part 26 are affected.

Industrial Alcohol. Since the special tax provisions on tax-free alcohol users, and on denatured spirits users and dealers, are repealed, § 26.36 is amended by removing references to that tax, and § 26.47 is removed. Because tax-free alcohol is fit for beverage use, persons shipping such alcohol to the United States for sale are subject to registration as alcohol beverage dealers; however, such registration will be accomplished by obtaining a distilled spirits plant permit and complying with the other requirements of 27 CFR part 19. Section 26.36(b) is amended accordingly. Section 26.46, which relates only to special (occupational) tax on distilled spirits plant proprietors, is removed.

Nonbeverage drawback claimant registration. Sections 26.171 and 26.173 (Puerto Rico), and §§ 26.307 and 26.309 (Virgin Islands), are revised or otherwise amended to replace references to the special tax for nonbeverage drawback claimants with a discussion of the new registration requirement for claimants similar to the discussion in part 17 above.

Dealer registration. In §§ 26.44 and 26.45 (Puerto Rico) and §§ 26.210 and 26.211 (Virgin Islands), references to the special tax registration and return for alcohol occupations are changed to refer to dealer registration and recordkeeping.

Miscellaneous Amendments. We changed a legal citation within the definition of “eligible flavors” and several informational citations to reflect the redesignation of certain sections of law affected by section 11125 of the Act. We made some minor technical amendments in §§ 26.173(a) and 26.309(a) relating to the description of the drawback rate and the procedure for filing drawback claims. In §§ 26.173(c) and 26.309(c), we replaced the requirement for entering the control number on the special tax stamp with a requirement for entering the claimant’s employer identification number, since the special tax return (which is no longer filed by these claimants) formerly supplied TTB with that information.

Part 27—Importation of Distilled Spirits, Wines, and Beer

The regulations in 27 CFR part 27 govern operations of persons importing distilled spirits, wine, and beer into the United States. Several sections of regulations within part 27 have been amended.

Dealer registration. In §§ 27.30 and 27.31, references to the special tax registration and return for alcohol occupations are changed to refer to dealer registration.

Miscellaneous Amendments. We also changed a legal citation within the definition of “eligible flavors” and several informational citations to reflect the redesignation of certain sections of law affected by section 11125 of the Act.

Part 28—Exportation of Alcohol

The regulations in 27 CFR part 28 govern operations by persons exporting distilled spirits, wines, and beer to foreign countries and possessions of the United States. Section 28.212, dealing with persons authorized to export wine with benefit of drawback, is revised to replace the reference to payment of special tax as a wholesale liquor dealer with a reference to registration as such a dealer under part 31. Also, the authority citation for part 28 is revised to reflect the repeal or redesignation of certain sections of law by section 11125 of the Act.

Part 31—Alcohol Beverage Dealers

The regulations in 27 CFR part 31 govern the operations of alcohol beverage dealers. The principal subject matter of part 31 historically has been the special (occupational) tax. The elimination of that tax makes it necessary to revise the entire part. In general, we have attempted in this document to retain as much of the old part 31 as can be adapted to the IRC provisions as amended by section 11125 of the Act. Nevertheless, the new part 31 set forth in this document is significantly shorter. References to the special (occupational) tax are removed, the part is reorganized, conforming changes are made to cross references, and OMB information collection approval numbers are updated. Several new sections are added to clarify producers’ status as dealers (§ 31.48), to describe situations where registration is required (§§ 31.137 and 31.138), to clarify liability for special (occupational) tax for periods prior to its elimination (§ 31.234), and to set forth penalty and disclosure provisions (§§ 31.14 and 31.15). In addition, sections concerning preparation of the special tax return are redrafted to cover preparation of the dealer registration form, and sections concerning exemption from dealer’s special tax for persons who registered as producers are removed.

Sections that formerly clarified liability for special tax have been revised to clarify when persons are considered to be dealers subject to the regulations. Some of these clarifications in part 31 were based on specific statutory exemptions formerly contained in 26 U.S.C. 5113 and 5123. Although these two statutory provisions were repealed by section 11125 of the Act, we will continue to apply those exemptions as administrative interpretations.

As noted above, the exemption in repealed section 5113 of the IRC for proprietors of controlled premises (distilled spirits plants, bonded wine cellars, taxpaid wine bottling houses, and breweries) has been retained in effect by allowing qualification documents and records required by part 19, 24, or 25, as applicable, to satisfy the alcohol dealer registration and recordkeeping requirements (§§ 31.48, 31.154). Other exemptions and exceptions in repealed section 5113 that are retained in the revised part 31 texts pertain to: States, political subdivisions, etc. (§§ 31.43, 31.153); creditors, fiduciaries, and officers of court (§§ 31.62(a), (b) and (c)); retiring partners or representatives of deceased partners (§ 31.62(d)); persons returning liquors for credit, refund, or exchange (§ 31.67); dealers making sales on purchaser dealers’ premises (§§ 31.52 and 31.53); retail dealers selling in liquidation (§ 31.66); and retail dealers selling to limited retail dealers (§ 31.55(b)).

Exemptions and exceptions contained in repealed section 5123 of the IRC that are retained in the revised part 31 texts pertain to: Wholesale dealers making retail sales (§ 31.51); retail dealers “at large” (§ 31.94); dealers on trains, aircraft, or vessels (§§ 31.91 through 31.93); and liquor stores operated by States, political subdivisions, etc. (§§ 31.43, 31.153). The exemption from additional special tax when a wholesale or retail dealer in beer begins to sell other liquors, which was formerly provided for in repealed sections 5113(g) and 5123(c) of the IRC, is not retained in the revised part 31 texts for registration purposes, because section 11125 of the Act requires a dealer to register his or her “trade or business” (see new § 31.75).

Part 40—Manufacture of Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes

The regulations in 27 CFR part 40 govern manufacturers of tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes. Although section 11125 of the Act did not do away with the special tax on tobacco occupations, TTB believes that it would be appropriate to have the special tax provisions applicable to tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes in one place, similar to the approach taken in revised part 31 for alcohol beverage dealer registration. Accordingly, in this document we have removed and reserved a number of part 40 sections and transferred their contents to a new subpart D in part 46, which contains miscellaneous regulations relating to tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes.

In addition to the transfer of special tax provisions to part 46, this document includes a number of other changes to the part 40 texts. A definition of "special tax" is added to § 40.11 to facilitate its use in the part 40 texts in place of "special (occupational) tax." Section 40.31 is amended by removing the 1988 transition rule in paragraph (b), clarifying liability for special tax under a partnership, and updating the informational citation at the end of the section. The informational citation at the end of § 40.371 is also amended to reflect the redesignation of certain IRC sections by section 11125 of the Act. Finally, §§ 40.33 and 40.373 are revised to serve as cross references to the special tax provisions of part 46.

Part 44—Exportation of Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes, Without Payment of Tax, or With Drawback of Tax

The regulations in 27 CFR part 44 govern exportation of tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes. For the same reason stated for part 40 above, we have transferred the part 44 special tax provisions to new subpart D of part 46.

For the same reason stated for § 40.11 above, a definition of “special tax” is added to § 44.11. In addition, § 44.31 is amended by removing the superseded 1988 transition rule in paragraph (b), clarifying liability for special tax under a partnership, and updating the informational citation at the end to reflect the redesignation of certain IRC sections by section 11125 of the Act. Finally, § 44.33 is revised to direct users to part 46 for additional provisions concerning special tax.

Part 46—Miscellaneous Regulations Relating to Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes

As discussed above, we are adding a new subpart D to 27 CFR part 46 to set forth provisions related to special tax on tobacco product and related occupations. Certain sections are consolidated from parts 40 and 44, and others are adopted from the liquor dealer regulations in part 31. The regulations adopted for part 46 from part 31 reflect special tax policy positions developed through rulemaking during the time we administered the dealer’s tax. Because we would be guided by these positions if similar questions arose concerning regulated entities in the tobacco product and related occupations, we are adopting them for part 46 purposes to preserve the precedents that existed. The table below shows the source of each new subpart D section:

New section number	Source
46.91	new
46.92	new
46.93	31.57 and 31.71

46.136	31.201
46.137	31.202
46.138	31.203

We did not adopt those provisions of part 31 that dealt with exemptions and exceptions from liquor dealers tax because we do not believe they are relevant to the special tax on tobacco product and related occupations.

Part 70—Procedure and Administration

Part 70 of 27 CFR sets forth the procedural and administrative rules of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau. We have amended various sections within part 70 to change references to special tax on alcohol occupations to references to dealer registration or claimant registration while retaining or adding references to special tax on tobacco occupations. We have also removed references to OMB approval after §§ 70.411, 70.412, and 70.414, and 70.431, because those sections are part of the Statement of Procedural Rules. These sections do not impose a recordkeeping requirement but rather only point to regulatory provisions that do impose a recordkeeping requirement. Finally, no changes were made to the title of subpart D or to §§ 70.61, 70.64, 70.433, 70.441, 70.442, or 70.448, because they refer to occupational taxes that are still in effect.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

We certify that this temporary rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Accordingly, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required. The relevant collections of information derive directly from the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations in this rule concerning these collections merely implement the statutory requirements. Likewise, any secondary or incidental effects, and any reporting, recordkeeping, or other compliance burdens flow directly from the statute. Pursuant to 26 U.S.C.

7805(f), this temporary regulation will be submitted to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small businesses.

Paperwork Reduction Act

TTB has provided estimates of the burdens that the collections of information contained in these regulations impose, and these estimated burdens have been reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507) and assigned control numbers 1513–0088, 1513–0112, and 1513–0113. Finally, TTB has provided the public with notice of these collections of information and solicited comments on them, with the most recent notices being published in the Federal Register on May 2, 2006 (71 FR 25889) for OMB No. 1513–0088, November 21, 2007 (72 FR 65646) for OMB No. 1513–0113, and September 4, 2008 (73 FR 51699) for OMB No. 1513–0112. To date, TTB has not received any comments in response to these notices.

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number.

Comments concerning suggestions for reducing the burden of the collections of information in this document should be directed to Mary A. Wood, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, at any of these addresses:

- P.O. Box 14412, Washington, DC 20044–4412;
- 202–927–8525 (facsimile); or
- formcomments@ttb.gov (e-mail).

Executive Order 12866

This is not a significant regulatory action as defined in E.O. 12866. Therefore, it requires no regulatory assessment.

Inapplicability of Prior Notice and Comment and Delayed Effective Date Procedures

Because this document merely implements a law which was effective on July 1, 2008, and because immediate guidance is necessary to implement the provisions of the law, it is found to be impracticable to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b).

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(3), we are issuing these regulations without a delayed effective date. These temporary regulations recognize an exemption within the meaning of section 553(d)(1) and (d)(2) because they lessen burdens by recognizing previously filed documents as registration and recognize longstanding agency interpretations in previously published regulations, respectively. Furthermore, TTB has determined that good cause exists to provide industry members with immediate guidance on their utilization of registration procedures in accordance with section 553(d)(3).

A dealer who believes that the circumstances that led to the failure were reasonable and who desires to have the penalty waived shall submit a written statement, under the penalty of perjury, affirmatively showing all of the circumstances alleged as reasonable causes for the failure. If the appropriate TTB officer determines that the failure was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, the penalty will not be assessed. If the dealer exercised ordinary business care and prudence but was nevertheless unable to comply with the requirement, then the failure was due to reasonable cause. Mere ignorance of the law will not be considered a reasonable cause.

§ 31.47 Warehouse receipts covering spirits.

The sale of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits is equivalent to the sale of distilled spirits. Accordingly, every person who sells, or offers for sale, warehouse receipts for distilled spirits held or stored in a distilled spirits plant, customs bonded warehouse, or elsewhere, is required to register and keep records as a wholesale dealer in liquors, or as a retail dealer in liquors, as the case may be, at the place where those warehouse receipts are sold, or offered for sale, unless the person is exempt from those requirements under subpart D of this part.

(26 U.S.C. 5121, 5122)

§ 31.48 Alcohol beverage producers, processors, and bonded warehousemen.

Brewers and proprietors of distilled spirits plants, bonded wine cellars, bonded wine warehouses, and taxpaid wine bottling houses who make sales, whether of their own alcohol beverage products or of such products produced by others, are not exempt from registration and recordkeeping as dealers under this part. However, the registration and recordkeeping requirements applicable to such persons are prescribed in parts 19 (Distilled Spirits Plants), 24 (Wine), and 25 (Beer) of this chapter.

Subpart D—Exemptions and ExceptionsPersons Exempt From Registration and/or Recordkeeping*§ 31.51 Wholesale dealers making retail sales.

A wholesale dealer in liquors who sells, or offers for sale, distilled spirits, wines, or beer, and a wholesale dealer in beer who sells, or offers for sale, only beer, whether to dealers or to persons other than dealers, at any place where the wholesale dealer in liquors or beer has appropriately registered under this part, is exempt from registration at that place as a retail dealer in liquors or in beer.

§ 31.52 Wholesale dealers in liquors consummating sales of wines or beer at premises of other dealers.

(a) Sales of wines. Any wholesale dealer in liquors (including the proprietor of a bonded wine cellar) who has registered as a wholesale dealer in liquors for the place from which that dealer conducts selling operations may consummate sales of wines to other wholesale or retail dealers in liquors, or to limited retail dealers, at the purchasers' places of business without having to register again as a wholesale dealer on account of those sales.

(b) Sales of beer. Any wholesale dealer in liquors who has already registered as such may also consummate sales of beer to wholesale or retail dealers in beer, to wholesale or retail dealers in liquors, or to limited retail dealers, at the purchasers' place of business without having to register again as a wholesale dealer on account of those sales.

§ 31.53 Wholesale dealers in beer consummating sales at premises of other dealers.

Any dealer who has registered as a wholesale dealer in beer for the place from which that dealer conducts selling operations may consummate sales of beer (but not wines or distilled spirits) to other dealers at the purchasers' places of business without having to register again as a wholesale dealer on account of those sales.

§ 31.54 Hospitals.

Hospitals and similar institutions furnishing liquors to patients are not required to register or keep records under this part, provided that no specific or additional charge is made for the liquors so furnished.

§ 31.55 Limited retail dealers.

(a) Sales by limited retail dealers. Limited retail dealers, as described in § 31.35, are not required to register or keep records under this part.

(b) Sales to limited retail dealers. Retail dealers in liquors or beer who make sales at their registered places of business to limited retail dealers are not required under this part, solely by virtue of those sales, to register or keep records as wholesale dealers.

Persons Who Are Not Dealers in Liquors or Beer

§ 31.61 Single sale of liquors or warehouse receipts.

A single sale of distilled spirits, wines, or beer, or a single sale of one or more warehouse receipts for distilled spirits, unattended by circumstances showing the person making the sale to be engaged in that activity as a business, does not subject the vendor to the registration and other requirements of this part.

(26 U.S.C. 5121, 5122)

§ 31.62 Persons making casual sales.

Certain persons making casual sales of liquors are not dealers for purposes of this part and therefore are not required to register, keep records, or submit a report as required of dealers under this part. These persons are:

(a) Administrators, executors, receivers, and other fiduciaries who receive liquors in their fiduciary capacities and sell them in one parcel or at public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons (75.7 liters);

(b) Creditors who receive liquors as security for, or in payment of, debts and sell them in one parcel or at a public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons (75.7 liters);

(c) Public officers or court officials who levy on liquors under order or process of any court or magistrate and sell them in one parcel or at public auction in parcels of not less than 20 wine gallons (75.7 liters); and

(d) A retiring partner, or representative of a deceased partner, who sells liquors to the incoming or remaining partner, or partners, of a partnership.

§ 31.63 Agents, auctioneers, brokers, etc., acting on behalf of others.

Certain persons may sell liquors as agents or employees of others (principals), or may receive and transmit orders therefor to a dealer, without being considered a dealer on account of those activities. Those persons, who have no property rights in the liquors sold, may make collections for their principals and receive commissions for their services, or may guarantee the payment of accounts, without being required to register or keep records under this part. In all such cases, however, the principal is required to register and keep records, as provided in this part, at each place where sales are consummated, unless the principal is exempt from those requirements under the provisions of this subpart. The persons covered by this section are:

(a) Auctioneers who merely sell liquors at auction on behalf of others;

(b) Agents or brokers who solicit orders for liquors in the name of a principal, but who neither stock nor deliver the liquors for which orders are taken;

(c) Employees who merely sell liquors on behalf of their employers; and

(d) Retail dealers in liquors or retail dealers in beer who merely receive and transmit to a wholesale dealer orders for liquors or beer to be billed, charged, and shipped to customers by such wholesale dealers.

§ 31.64 Apothecaries or druggists selling medicines and tinctures.

Apothecaries and druggists who use wines or spirituous liquors for compounding medicines and in making tinctures that are unfit for use for beverage purposes are not considered to be dealers by reason of the sale of those compounds or tinctures for nonbeverage purposes.

(26 U.S.C. 5002)

§ 31.65 Persons selling products unfit for beverage use.

(a) Vendors not deemed to be dealers. No person selling or offering for sale for nonbeverage purposes products qualifying as unfit for use for beverage purposes under § 19.58 of this chapter shall be deemed, solely by reason of such sales, to be a dealer.

(b) Restrictions. Any person who sells or offers for sale any nonbeverage products for use, or for sale for use, for beverage purposes, or who sells any of such products under circumstances in which it might reasonably appear that it is the intention of the purchaser to procure the product for sale or use for beverage purposes, must register and keep records as required under this part as a wholesale dealer in liquors, wholesale dealer in beer, or retail dealer in beer, as appropriate.

§ 31.66 Retail dealer selling entire stock in liquidation.

No retail dealer in liquors or retail dealer in beer shall be deemed to be a wholesale dealer in liquors or a wholesale dealer in beer by virtue of selling in liquidation that dealer's entire stock of liquors in one parcel, or in parcels, each of which embraces not less than the entire stock of distilled spirits, of wines, or of beer, which parcels may contain a combination of any or all such liquors, to any other dealer. A retail dealer making such sale or sales is not required to register or to keep records or submit reports of those sales.

§ 31.67 Persons returning liquors for credit, refund, or exchange.

No retail dealer in liquors or retail dealer in beer, or other person, shall be deemed to be a wholesale dealer in liquors or a wholesale dealer in beer by virtue of a bona fide return of distilled spirits, wines, or beer to the dealer from whom the distilled spirits, wines, or beer were purchased (or to the successor of such vendor's business or line of merchandise) for credit, refund, or exchange; and the giving of such credit, refund or exchange shall not be deemed to be a purchase within the meaning of § 31.141 of this part. Except in the case of wholesale dealers in liquors required to keep records of their transactions under §§ 31.155 and 31.156, or retail dealers required to keep records under § 31.171, persons returning liquors as provided in this section are not required to keep records or submit reports of such transactions.

(26 U.S.C. 5132)

Subpart E—Places Subject to Registration§ 31.71 Registration required at each place of business.

Except as otherwise provided in § 31.43 and in subpart D of this part, registration is required under this part for each and every place where distilled spirits, wines, or beer are sold or offered for sale. No person may engage in any business for which registration is required until the place of business has been registered in accordance with this part.

§ 31.72 Place of sale.

For purposes of this part, the place at which ownership of liquors is transferred, actually or constructively, is the place of sale.

§ 31.73 Place of offering for sale.

Liquors are considered to be offered for sale at the place where they are kept for sale and where a sale could take place, and at any place where sales are in fact consummated. Liquors are not considered to be offered for sale by sending an agent out to take orders, or by establishing an office for the mere purpose of taking orders, so long as in each case the orders received are transmitted to the principal for acceptance at the place where that principal has registered under this part or where the principal is exempt from registration as provided in subpart D of this part.

§ 31.74 Places of storage; deliveries therefrom.

Registration is not required under this part for warehouses and similar places that are used by dealers merely for the storage of liquors and that are not places where orders for liquors are accepted. When orders for liquors are received and duly accepted at a place that the dealer has registered under this part, the subsequent actual delivery of the liquors from a place of storage does not require registration at that place of storage. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 31.52 and 31.53, a dealer who registered a given place, and who makes actual delivery of liquors from a warehouse at another place, must register for the place where ownership of the liquors is transferred if there was no prior constructive delivery by the acceptance of an order for the liquors at the place covered by the existing registration.

§ 31.75 Dealer in beer and dealer in liquors at the same location.

Any person who registers as a wholesale dealer in beer or retail dealer in beer and who thereafter begins to sell distilled spirits or wine must also register as a wholesale dealer in liquors or retail dealer in liquors before commencing the sale, or offering for sale, of distilled spirits or wine.

(26 U.S.C. 5124)

Sales in Two or More Areas on the Same Premises§ 31.81 General.

When liquors are sold by a proprietor in two or more areas within the proprietor's place of business, only one registration is required under this part. When the proprietor leases to another person or persons the privilege of selling liquors in two or more areas within the proprietor's place of business, whether the privilege is exercised separately or simultaneously with the proprietor or another concessionaire, each lessee is required to register only once.

§ 31.82 Hotels.

The proprietor of a hotel who conducts the sale of liquors throughout the hotel premises is only required to register under this part for one place. For example, different areas operated by the proprietor in the hotel, such as banquet rooms, meeting rooms, and guest rooms, collectively constitute a single place of business. When a concessionaire conducts the sale of liquors at two or more areas in a hotel, those areas are regarded as a single place of business, and the concessionaire is required to register only once.

§ 31.83 Ball park, race track, etc.; sales throughout the premises.

The proprietor of a ball park, race track, stadium, pavilion, or other similar enclosure constituting one premises, who engages in the business of selling liquors throughout that enclosure, including sales from baskets or containers by employees on the proprietor's behalf, is required to register only once for the entire enclosure. Each concessionaire having the same privilege throughout the enclosure, whether the privilege is exercised separately or simultaneously with the proprietor or another concessionaire, is required to register only once for the entire enclosure.

Sales in Multiple Locations§ 31.91 Passenger trains, aircraft, and vessels.

Persons who carry on the business of a retail dealer in liquors or of a retail dealer in beer on trains, aircraft, boats, or other conveyances engaged in the business of carrying passengers may conduct that business throughout the passenger carrying train, aircraft, boat, or other vessel, after filing only one registration under this part. Such persons must specify on the registration form the number of passenger carriers for which registration is being completed.

§ 31.92 Carriers not engaged in passenger service.

Except as otherwise provided in § 31.93, the retailing of liquors on any train, aircraft, boat, or other conveyance that is not engaged in the business of carrying passengers is prohibited.

§ 31.93 Supply boats or vessels.

Persons may carry on the business of a retail dealer in liquor or of a retail dealer in beer on supply boats or vessels operated by them when those persons operate from a fixed address in a port or harbor and supply exclusively boats or other vessels, or persons thereon, at that port or harbor. Such persons must specify, on an attachment to the registration form, the following: that the business will consist of supplying exclusively boats, vessels, or persons thereon; the name of the port or harbor at which the business is to be carried on; and the fixed address from which operations are to be conducted. When such sales are to be made from two or more supply boats or vessels, the dealer must also specify on the attachment the number of supply boats or vessels for which registration is being made. If the dealer operates from two or more fixed addresses, the dealer must prepare one registration form covering all of those addresses and must include on the attachment to the registration form the number of supply boats or vessels operating from each address.

§ 31.94 Retail dealers “At Large.”

A retail dealer in liquors or a retail dealer in beer whose business requires the dealer to travel from place to place, such as a dealer who sells at carnivals or circuses, must register “At Large” covering the dealer’s activities throughout the United States by filing only one registration. A dealer submitting such a registration must state on the registration form, or on an attachment thereto, the nature of the dealer’s business and the reason the dealer requires registration “At Large.”

§ 31.95 Caterers.

(a) General. When a contract to furnish liquors is made by a caterer at a place of business for which the caterer has registered under this part, no additional registration is required by virtue of the serving of the liquors at a different location.

(b) Additional registration. When the contract of a caterer provides for the sale of liquors by the drink at a place, or simultaneously at different places, other than the place of business for which the caterer has registered under this part, a separate registration is required for each such place if the caterer does not keep the records specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Records. Caterers must maintain sufficient commercial records to identify all locations where activities subject to registration occur. These commercial records must indicate the names and addresses of locations where alcoholic beverages have been sold or offered for sale and the dates and times that those activities occurred. These commercial records must be available to an appropriate TTB officer upon request.

(26 U.S.C. 5121, 5122)

§ 31.96 Peddling.

No person shall peddle distilled spirits, wines, or beer, except in the circumstances described in §§ 31.52, 31.53, and 31.93. Persons peddling liquors to whom §§ 31.52, 31.53, and 31.93 do not apply are required to register at each place where sales are consummated.

Subpart F—Partnerships

§ 31.101 Registration of partners.

Any number of persons carrying on one business in partnership at any one place must register only once for that business.

§ 31.102 Addition of partners or incorporation of partnership.

Where a number of persons who have filed a registration under this part as partners admit one or more new members to the partnership or form a corporation (a separate legal entity) to take over the business, the new partnership or corporation must register as a new dealer before commencing business.

Subpart G—Registration Form, TTB Form 5630.5d

§ 31.111 Date registration form is due.

(a) General. Dealers must register by filing the registration form, TTB Form 5630.5d, before engaging in business and on or before July 1 of each year thereafter. However, as long as none of the information specified on the form has changed since the previous registration form was filed, no additional registration is required. If the registration form is received in the mail and the U.S. postmark on the cover shows that it was deposited in the mail in the United States within the time prescribed for filing in an envelope or other appropriate wrapper that was properly addressed with postage prepaid, the form will be considered as timely filed. If the postmark is not legible, the sender has the burden of proving the date when the postmark was made. When registered mail is used, the date of postal registration will be accepted as the postmark date.

(b) Transition rule. Dealers already engaged in business prior to July 1, 2008, must register as an “existing business” unless they had registered, in accordance with regulations in effect at the time of registration, on or after January 1, 2007. This one-time registration is due on or before July 1, 2009.

(26 U.S.C. 6071)

§ 31.112 Registration of multiple locations.

A dealer required to register at two or more locations shall file one registration form, prepared as provided in § 31.114(c), to cover all such locations.

- (4) The mailing address of the dealer’s principal place of business (or principal office, in the case of a corporate dealer).
- (5) The exact location of each place of business, by name and number of building or street, or if these do not exist, by some specific description in addition to the post office address.
- (6) The business telephone number of each place of business.
- (7) The class(es) of dealer in which the dealer operates a business.
- (8) Ownership and control information. This consists of the name, position, and residence address of every owner of the business and of every person having power to control its management and policies with respect to the activity subject to registration. “Owner of the business” includes every partner, if the dealer is a partnership, and every person owning 10 percent or more of its stock, if the dealer is a corporation. However, the ownership and control information required by this paragraph need not be stated if the same information has been previously provided to TTB and that previously provided information is still current.

(c) Multiple locations and/or classes of dealers. A dealer required to register at more than one location or for more than one class of dealers must—

- (1) File one registration form, TTB Form 5630.5d, to cover all locations and classes of dealers; and taxpayer's name, mailing address (as shown on TTB Form 5630.5d), and employer identification number, a list showing, by States, the trade name, address, telephone number, and dealer class of each location for which registration is being made. The original of the list must be filed with TTB on or with the registration form, and a copy must be retained at the dealer's principal place of business (or principal office, in the case of a corporate dealer) for the period specified in § 31.191.

§ 31.115 Employer identification number.

(a) Requirement. The employer identification number (as defined in 26 CFR 301.7701-12) of a dealer who has been assigned such a number must be shown on each registration form filed under this part. A dealer who does not have such a number must apply for one as provided in paragraph (b) of this section and enter "number applied for" in the space for the number on the registration form; then, upon receipt of the number from the Internal Revenue Service, the dealer must provide it to TTB by separate correspondence. Failure of a dealer to include the employer identification number may result in the imposition of the penalty specified in § 31.14(b).

(b) Application for employer identification number. Each dealer who files a registration form and who has not already been assigned an employer identification number must file Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form SS-4 to apply for one. The dealer shall apply for and be assigned only one employer identification number, regardless of the number of places of business for which the dealer is required to file a registration form under this part. The employer identification number shall be applied for no later than 7 days after the filing of the taxpayer's first registration form. IRS Form SS-4 may be obtained from the director of an IRS service center, from any IRS district director, from <http://www.irs.gov/>, or from TTB's National Revenue Center.

The person signing the registration form must identify his or her signing capacity as "individual owner," "member of firm," "agent," or "attorney-in-fact," as appropriate, or, in the case of a corporation, by the title of the signing officer. A receiver, trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, or other legal representative who continues the business of a dealer by reason of death, insolvency, or other circumstance must indicate the fiduciary capacity in which he or she acts. Registration forms signed by persons as agents or attorneys-in-fact will not be accepted unless, in each instance, the principal named on the form has executed a power of attorney authorizing that person to sign and that power of attorney is filed with the TTB officer with whom the TTB Form 5630.5d is required to be filed. Form 5630.5d must be verified by a written declaration that it has been executed under the penalties of perjury.

However, this may be omitted if the dealer keeps available for inspection a separate list or record identifying the producer or bottler with the brand name;

(5) Kind of spirits. However, this may be omitted if the dealer keeps available for inspection a separate list or record identifying "kind" with the brand name;

(6) Quantity actually received, showing number of packages, if any, and number of cases by size of bottle, and explaining any difference from the quantity shown on the commercial papers covering the shipment; and

(7) Package identification numbers of containers of alcohol received for repackaging for industrial use pursuant to subpart L of this part.

(b) Form of record. The record required by paragraph (a) of this section must be a part of the accounting system and must consist of consignors' invoices (or, if those invoices are not available on the day the shipment is received, memorandum receiving records prepared on the day of receipt of the distilled spirits, including records of inventory for recorded gains) and credit memorandums covering distilled spirits returned to the dealer.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0065) (26 U.S.C. 5121)

§ 31.156 Records of disposition.

(a) Information required. Every wholesale dealer in liquors must prepare a daily record of the physical disposition of each individual lot of distilled spirits. This record must show, at a minimum, the following:

(1) Name and address of consignee;
 (2) Date of disposition, including date of discovery in the case of casualty, theft or recorded inventory losses;

(3) Brand name;

(4) Kind of spirits. However, this may be omitted if the dealer keeps available for inspection a separate list or record identifying "kind" with the brand name;

(5) Number of packages, if any, and number of cases by size of bottle; and

(6) Package identification numbers of containers of alcohol repackaged for industrial use pursuant to subpart L of this part.

(b) Form of record. The record required by paragraph (a) of this section must be part of the accounting system and must consist of wholesale dealer's invoices (or, if those invoices are not available at the time the spirits are removed, memorandum shipping records prepared at the time of removal of the distilled spirits, including date of discovery in the case of casualty, theft or recorded inventory losses).

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0065) (26 U.S.C. 5121)

§ 31.157 Canceled or corrected records.

Entries on the records of receipt and disposition prescribed by §§ 31.155 and 31.156 must not be erased or obliterated. Correction or deletion of any entry must be accomplished by drawing a line through the entry and inserting an appropriate correction or explanation. If a wholesale dealer in liquors voids an invoice for any reason, the file copy prescribed in § 31.181 must be marked "Cancelled" and must be filed as provided in that section; any remaining copy of the voided invoice must be destroyed or similarly cancelled and filed. If a new invoice is prepared, its serial number must be cross referenced on any retained copies of the cancelled invoice.

(26 U.S.C. 5121)

§ 31.158 Previously prescribed or approved records of receipt and disposition.

A wholesale dealer in liquors may continue to use records of receipt and disposition in a format previously prescribed or approved. Those records must show the information required by paragraph (a) of § 31.155 or paragraph (a) of § 31.156, as applicable. The records must be preprinted with the name and address of the wholesale dealer. Each sheet or page must bear a preprinted serial number, or page serial numbers may be affixed in unbroken sequence during the preparation or processing of the records. A serial number must not be duplicated within a period of 6 months.

§ 31.159 Variations in format or preparation of records.

(a) Authorization. The appropriate TTB officer may approve variations in the type and format of records of receipt and disposition required under §§ 31.155 and 31.156, or in the methods of preparing those records, when it is shown that variations from the requirements are necessary in order to use data processing equipment, other business machines, or existing accounting systems, and provided that the variation will not unduly hinder the effective administration of this part, jeopardize the revenue, or be contrary to any provision of law. A dealer who wishes to employ such a variation must submit a written application to the appropriate TTB officer. The application must describe the proposed variation and set forth the need for it. Variations in type and format of records or methods of preparation must not be employed until approval is received from the appropriate TTB officer.

(b) Requirements. Any information required by this part to be kept or filed is subject to the provisions of law and this part relating to required records and reports, regardless of the form or manner in which kept or filed.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0067)

§ 31.160 Monthly summary report.

(a) Requirement. Every wholesale dealer in liquors must, when required, submit monthly to the appropriate TTB officer a summary report of the total quantities of all distilled spirits received and disposed of daily during the month (including the date of discovery for theft, casualty and inventory losses and inventory gains). This report must be posted by the wholesaler on a daily basis. If there were no receipts or disposals of distilled spirits during the month, the report must be marked "No Transactions During Month." This report must be filed not later than the 15th day of the month following the report period, with a copy retained by the dealer. The appropriate TTB officer may authorize a dealer, upon request, to post the report less frequently until otherwise notified; the appropriate TTB officer's authorization will specify the intervals at which the posting will be accomplished, but not less frequently than monthly.

(b) Form of report. When required under paragraph (a) of this section, the monthly summary report may be prepared in a format that is adapted to the dealer's accounting and recordkeeping systems. In addition to any other information shown therein, the report must include:

(1) Daily totals of all bottled spirits received and disposed of, recorded by wine gallons or liters;

(2) Daily totals of all bulk spirits in packages received and disposed of, recorded by proof gallons; and

(3) Entries showing, by date, each disposition caused by an inventory, casualty, or theft loss and each receipt caused by a recorded gain in inventory.

(c) Declaration. When required to be filed, the monthly summary report must bear the following declaration signed by the dealer or an authorized agent:

I declare under the penalties of perjury that I have examined this report and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete and is supported by true, correct, and complete records which are available for inspection.

(d) Other records. Even if the monthly summary report is not required by the appropriate TTB officer, every wholesale dealer in distilled spirits must maintain and make available for review by appropriate TTB officers:

(1) Records of receipt required by § 31.155;

(2) Records of disposition, required by § 31.156; and

(3) Any other supporting information or documents regarding the receipt and disposition of distilled spirits that have a direct role in determining the completeness and accuracy of the receipt and disposition records.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0065) (26 U.S.C. 5121)

§ 31.161 Conversion between metric and U.S. units.

When liters are converted to wine gallons, the quantity in liters must be multiplied by 0.264172 to determine the equivalent quantity in wine gallons. Once converted to wine gallons, the proof gallons of spirits in cases must be determined as provided in § 30.52 of this chapter. Cases containing the same quantity of spirits of the same proof in metric bottles may be converted to U.S. units by multiplying the liters in one case by the number of cases to be converted, as follows:

(a) If the conversion from liters to U.S. units is made before multiplying by the number of cases, the quantity in U.S.

units must be rounded to the sixth decimal; and

(b) If the conversion is made after multiplying by the number of cases, the quantity in U.S. units must be rounded to the nearest hundredth.

(26 U.S.C. 7805; 27 U.S.C. 205)

§ 31.162 Discontinuance of business.

When a wholesale dealer in liquors who is required, under § 31.160, to file a monthly summary report discontinues business, a monthly summary report marked "Final" must be filed covering transactions through the date of discontinuance.

(26 U.S.C. 5121)

§ 31.163 Requirements when a wholesale dealer in liquors maintains a retail department.

(a) Constructive receipt and sale. When a wholesale dealer in liquors maintains a separate department on the premises for the retailing of distilled spirits, and the retail sales of distilled spirits normally represent 90 percent or more of the volume of distilled spirits sold, the dealer may "constructively" receive all distilled spirits in the retail department. Sales involving a wholesale transaction may be "constructively" sold through the wholesale department.

(1) Receipts. In lieu of maintaining and preparing the records required by § 31.155, a wholesale dealer may constructively receive all distilled spirits in its retail department. In this case, the receiving document will serve as a receipt for (through) the wholesale department and a disposition (transfer) to the retail department. The receiving document must be maintained by the retail department in accordance with § 31.171.

(2) Dispositions. In lieu of maintaining and preparing the records required by § 31.156, a wholesale dealer may constructively sell distilled spirits from its retail department to other dealers. The sales invoice or bill must be filed in the wholesaler's disposition records and will serve as a record of receipt from the retail department and a record of disposition to another dealer.

(b) Receipt and disposition records. Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, a wholesale dealer must prepare and maintain the required records of receipt and disposition as prescribed in §§ 31.155 and 31.156. Transfers between the wholesale and retail departments will be treated in the same manner as any other transaction involving the wholesale department.

(c) Monthly summary report. When required by § 31.160, a wholesale dealer must prepare and file the monthly summary report of actual or constructive receipts and dispositions of all distilled spirits.

(d) Physical separation. Wholesale and retail departments need not be physically separated.

(26 U.S.C. 5121)

Filing of Wholesale Dealers' Records and Reports

§ 31.171 Method of filing.

A wholesale dealer may file the records of receipt and disposition required by §§ 31.155 and 31.156 in accordance with the wholesaler's regular accounting and recordkeeping systems. The required records must include the dealer's own file copies of the receiving or shipping invoices and must be filed according to the following rules:

(a) Wholesale dealers may file records of receipt and disposition in accordance with their own filing system as long as the records are filed by transaction or reporting date and the filing system systematically and accurately accounts for all receipts and dispositions of distilled spirits.

(b) The required records of receipt and disposition must be filed not later than one business day following the date the transaction occurred.

(c) Supporting documents for receipts and dispositions, such as delivery receipts and bills of lading, also may be filed in accordance with the wholesaler's regular accounting and recordkeeping practices.

(26 U.S.C. 5121, 5122, 5123)

§ 31.172 Place of filing.

Records of receipt and disposition and monthly summary reports required by §§ 31.155, 31.156, and 31.160 must be maintained at the dealer's place of business. The appropriate TTB officer may, upon request, authorize maintenance of files, or an individual file, at another business location under the control of the same wholesale dealer, when it is determined that such maintenance will not cause undue inconvenience to TTB officers desiring to examine those files.

(26 U.S.C. 5123)

Retail Dealer's Records

§ 31.181 Requirements for retail dealers.

(a) Records of receipt. All retail dealers must keep at their place of business complete records showing the quantities of all distilled spirits, wines, and beer received, from whom the distilled spirits, wines, and beer were received, and the dates of receipt. However, the appropriate TTB officer may, upon request, authorize the maintenance of records at another business premises also under the control of the same retail dealer when it is determined that such maintenance will not cause undue inconvenience to TTB officers desiring to examine those records. Records of receipts shall consist of all purchase invoices or bills covering distilled spirits, wines, and beer received, or, at the option of the retail dealer, a book record containing all of the required information.

(b) Records of sales of 20 wine gallons (75.7 liters) or more. Every retail dealer who makes sales of distilled spirits, of wines, or of beer in quantities of 20 wine gallons (75.7 liters) or more to the same person at the same time must prepare and keep a record of each sale. The record must show the date of sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the kind and quantity of each kind of liquors sold, and the serial numbers of all full cases of distilled spirits included in the sale. Each entry on that record must be supported by a corresponding delivery receipt (which may be executed on a copy of the sales slip) signed by the purchaser or the purchaser's agent.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0066) (26 U.S.C. 5122, 5123)

Retention of Records and Files

§ 31.191 Period of retention.

All records and files, all documents or copies of documents supporting these records and files, and all file copies of reports, submitted as required by this part, must be retained by the person required to have them, for a period of not less than three years and, during the retention period, must be available, during business hours, for inspection and copying by the appropriate TTB officers. In addition, the appropriate TTB officer may require retention of the documents and other records for an additional period of not more than three years if it is determined that such additional retention is necessary.

(26 U.S.C. 5123)

§ 31.192 Photographic copies of records.

(a) General. Dealers may record, copy, or reproduce records required by this part. Dealers may use any process that accurately reproduces the original record and that forms a durable medium for preserving the original record.

(b) Copies of records treated as original records. Whenever records are reproduced under this section, the reproduced records must be preserved in conveniently accessible files, and provision must be made for examining, viewing, and using the reproduced record in the same manner as if it were the original record. A reproduced record will be treated and considered for all purposes as though it were the original record. All provisions of law and regulations applicable to the original record are applicable to the reproduced record. As used in this section, "original record" means the record required by this part to be maintained or preserved by a dealer, even though it may be an executed duplicate or other copy of the document.

(b) By the addition of any substance whatsoever to any liquor bottle, in any manner alter or increase any portion of the original contents contained in that bottle at the time of closing under the provisions of 26 U.S.C. chapter 51.

(26 U.S.C. 5301)

The possession of used liquor bottles by any person other than the person who empties the contents thereof is prohibited except in the following circumstances:

(a) The owner or occupant of any premises on which the used bottles have been lawfully emptied may assemble the bottles on such premises—

(1) For delivery to a bottler or importer on specific request of that bottler or importer;

(2) For destruction, either on the premises on which the bottles are emptied or elsewhere, including disposition for purposes that will result in the bottles being rendered unusable as bottles; or

(3) In the case of unusual or distinctive bottles, for disposition or sale as collectors' items or for other purposes not involving the packaging of any product for sale;

(b) Any person may possess, offer for sale, or sell unusual or distinctive bottles for purposes not involving the packaging of any product for sale; and

(c) Any person may assemble used liquor bottles for the purpose of recycling or reclaiming the glass or other approved liquor bottle material.

(26 U.S.C. 5301)

§ 31.204 Mixed cocktails.

(26 U.S.C. 5301)

Subpart L—Packaging of Alcohol for Industrial Uses

§ 31.211 Requirements and procedure.

Upon compliance with the provisions of part 19 of this chapter applicable to persons repackaging distilled spirits, and subject to the requirements of paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section, a dealer engaged in the business of supplying distilled spirits for industrial use may obtain bulk alcohol on which the tax has been paid or determined and repackage the alcohol for sale for industrial use in containers of a capacity in excess of 1 wine gallon and not more than 5 wine gallons.

(a) Qualification procedure. An application for registration, TTB Form 5110.41, and an application for an operating permit, TTB Form 5110.25, modified in accordance with instructions of the appropriate TTB officer, must be executed and filed with the appropriate TTB officer. No alcohol shall be repackaged until the approved application for registration and the approved operating permit are received.

(b) Operations. Repackaging operations must be conducted in accordance with the bottling and packaging requirements of part 19 of this chapter. Packaging and labeling operations may be carried on without supervision of a TTB officer unless the appropriate TTB officer requires supervision.

(c) Records. The dealer must keep daily records showing the bulk alcohol received, dumped for packaging, packaged, and disposed of, including the name and address of each consignor and consignee. The dealer must prepare a monthly report on TTB Form 5110.28 of bulk alcohol received, packaged, and disposed of. Reports on Form 5110.28 must be submitted to the appropriate TTB officer not later than the 15th day of the month following the period covered by the report. Records, documents, or copies of documents supporting the records, and copies of reports submitted to the appropriate TTB officer, must be filed and retained as prescribed in §§ 31.172 and 31.191.

§ 31.212 Labeling.

Every dealer packaging alcohol for industrial use must affix to each package filled a label bearing in conspicuous print the words "Alcohol" and "For Industrial Use," the proof of the alcohol, the capacity of the container, and the packaging dealer's name and address. The dealer may incorporate in the label other appropriate statements; however, such statements must not obscure or contradict the data required by this section to be shown on such labels.

A State, a political subdivision of a State, or a person holding a wholesale liquor dealer's basic permit issued under part 1 of this chapter may export bottled taxpaid distilled spirits with benefit of drawback as provided in § 28.171 of this chapter. The marking of cases, the preparation of notice of shipment on TTB Form 5110.30, the removal and exportation of the distilled spirits, and the filing of claims by the processor of the spirits must be in accordance with the applicable provisions of parts 19 and 28 of this chapter.

§ 31.223 Records and reports.

The provisions of subpart J of this part regarding records and reports relating to liquors for domestic use also apply to export transactions permitted under this subpart.

A dealer who empties any cask, barrel, keg, or other bulk container of wine must scrape or obliterate from the empty container all marks, brands, tags, or labels placed thereon under the provisions of part 24 of this chapter as evidence of the payment or determination of the tax on the wine removed in the container from the bonded wine cellar.

§ 31.232 Wine bottling.

Each person desiring to bottle, package, or repackage taxpaid wines must, before carrying on those operations, apply and receive permission from the appropriate TTB officer in accordance with part 24 of this chapter. An officer or employee of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) authorized to perform any functions relating to the administration or enforcement of this part by TTB Order 1135.46, Delegation of the Administrator's Authorities in 27 CFR Part 46, Miscellaneous Regulations Relating to Tobacco Products and Cigarette Papers and Tubes.

U.S.C. The United States Code.

§ 46.93 Multiple businesses of same ownership and location.

(a) Where more than one type of taxable business is conducted by the same person at the same place, special tax for each business must be paid at the rates prescribed for each.

(b) Where the same type of taxable business is conducted by the same person in different areas of the same premises, only one special tax payment is required.

(26 U.S.C. 5733)

§ 46.94 Relation to State and municipal law.

(a) General. The payment of special (occupational) tax does not exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided by the laws of any State for carrying on any trade or business within that State, nor does it authorize the commencement or continuance of any trade or business contrary to State law or in places prohibited by county or municipal law. Payment of this tax does not prohibit any State from placing an additional duty or tax on the same trade or business, for State or other purposes.

(b) Special tax stamps. TTB officers are without authority to refuse to issue a special tax stamp to a person engaged in business in violation of State law. The stamp is not a Federal permit or license, but is merely a receipt for the tax. The stamp affords the holder no protection against prosecution for violation of State law.

(26 U.S.C. 5734)

§ 46.95 Liability of partners.

Any number of persons carrying on one business in partnership at any one place during any tax year are required to pay only one special tax.

Payment of Special Tax

§ 46.101 Special tax returns.

(a) Preparation of TTB Form 5630.5t. Every manufacturer of tobacco products, manufacturer of cigarette papers and tubes, and export warehouse proprietor is required to pay special (occupational) tax and file a return on TTB Form 5630.5t, "Special Tax Registration and Return—Tobacco." TTB Form 5630.5t must be completed in accordance with the instructions on the form, and all of the information called for on the form must be provided, including the following:

- (1) Name of the taxpayer.
- (2) Trade name(s) (if any) of the business(es) subject to special (occupational) tax.

(3) Employer identification number (see § 46.102).

(4) Exact location of the place of business, by name and number of building or street, or if these do not exist, by some specific description in addition to the post office address. In the case of one return for two or more locations, the address to be shown must be the taxpayer's principal place of business (or principal office, in the case of a corporate taxpayer).

(5) Class(es) of special tax to which the taxpayer is subject.

(6) Ownership and control information. This consists of the name, position, and residence address of every owner of the business and of every person having power to control its management and policies with respect to the activity subject to special tax. "Owner of the business" includes every partner, if the taxpayer is a partnership, and every person owning 10 percent or more of its stock, if the taxpayer is a corporation. However, the ownership and control information required by this paragraph need not be stated if the same information has been previously provided to TTB in connection with a permit application and that previously provided information is still current.

(b) Multiple locations and/or classes of tax. A taxpayer subject to special tax for the same period at more than one location or for more than one class of tax must—

(1) File one special tax return, TTB Form 5630.5t, with payment of tax, to cover all such locations and classes of tax; and

(2) Prepare, in duplicate, a list identified with the taxpayer's name, address (as shown on TTB Form 5630.5t), employer identification number, and period covered by the return. The list must show, by State, the name, address, and tax class of each location for which special tax is being paid. The original of the list must be filed with TTB as an attachment to TTB Form 5630.5t, and the copy must be retained at the taxpayer's principal place of business (or principal office, in the case of a corporate taxpayer) for a period of three years from the date of the return.

(c) Signing of TTB Form 5630.5t—(1) By principal. The return of an individual proprietor must be signed by the individual. The return of a partnership must be signed by a general partner. The return of a corporation must be signed by an officer. In each case, the person signing the return must designate his or her capacity as "individual owner," "member of firm," or, in the case of a corporation, the officer's title.

(2) By fiduciary. A receiver, trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, or other legal representative who continues the business of a bankrupt, insolvent, deceased, or otherwise incapacitated person must indicate the capacity in which the fiduciary acts.

(3) By agent or attorney in fact. If a return is signed by an agent or attorney in fact, the signature must be preceded by the name of the principal and followed by the title of the agent or attorney in fact. A return signed by a person as agent will not be accepted unless there is filed, with the TTB office with which the return is required to be filed, a power of attorney authorizing the agent to perform the act.

(d) Perjury statement. Each TTB Form 5630.5t must contain, or be verified by, a written declaration that the return has been executed under the penalties of perjury.

(26 U.S.C. 5732, 6061, 6065, 6151, 7011)
(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1513-0112)

§ 46.102 Employer identification number.

(a) Requirement. The employer identification number (as defined in 26 CFR 301.7701-12) of the taxpayer who has been assigned such a number must be shown on each special tax return, including each amended return, filed under this subpart. Failure of the taxpayer to include the employer identification number may result in the imposition of the penalty specified in § 70.113 of this chapter.

(b) Application for employer identification number. Each taxpayer who files a special tax return and who has not already been assigned an employer identification number must file Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form SS-4 to apply for one. The taxpayer must apply for and be assigned only one employer identification number, regardless of the number of places of business for which the taxpayer is required to file a special tax return. The taxpayer must apply for the employer identification number no later than 7 days after the filing of the taxpayer's first special (occupational) tax return. IRS Form SS-4 may be obtained from the director of an IRS service center, from any IRS district director, or from <http://www.irs.gov/>.

§ 46.103 Time for filing return and paying tax.

The return, along with remittance of special tax, must be filed on or before the date of commencing business as a manufacturer of tobacco products, manufacturer of cigarette papers or tubes, or export warehouse proprietor, and thereafter every year on or before July 1. If the return and applicable tax are received in the mail and the U.S. postmark on the cover shows that it was deposited in the mail in the United States within the time prescribed for filing in an envelope or other appropriate wrapper which was properly addressed with postage prepaid, the return will be considered as timely filed. If the postmark is not legible, the sender has the burden of proving the date when the postmark was made. When registered mail is used, the date of registration will be accepted as the postmark date. When certified mail is used, the date of the postmark on the sender's receipt of certified mail is treated as the postmark date.

§ 46.104 Method of payment.

Payment of special tax must be made in cash, or by check or money order payable to Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau. If a check or money order so tendered is not honored when presented for payment, the person who tendered the check or money order will remain liable for the payment of the special tax, and for all penalties and additions, to the same extent as if the check or money order had not been tendered. In addition, unless the person who tendered the check or money order can show that the check or money order was issued in good faith, and with reasonable cause to believe that it would be duly paid, there must be paid as penalty an amount equal to 1 percent of the amount of the check or money order, except that if the amount of the check or money order is less than $500, the penalty will be $5, or the amount of the check or money order, whichever is less.

(26 U.S.C. 6311, 6657)

§ 46.105 Receipt for taxes.

Subject to § 46.106, the appropriate TTB officer will issue a receipt to a taxpayer if cash is received as a remittance in payment of special tax (including penalties and interest, if any), or for any type of remittance received if the taxpayer requests a receipt.

§ 46.106 Receipt in lieu of stamp prohibited.

No receipt will be issued in lieu of issuance of a special tax stamp under § 46.116. A receipt may be given only pending the issuance of a stamp, or where the tax liability relates to a prior tax year.

(26 U.S.C. 6314)

§ 46.107 Penalty for failure to file return or to pay tax.

(a) Failure to file return. Any person required by this subpart to file a return on TTB Form 5630.5t who fails to file the return on or before the date for filing prescribed in § 46.103 must pay, in addition to the tax, a delinquency penalty, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect (see § 46.109). The delinquency penalty for failure to file the return on or before the last date prescribed will be 5 percent of the amount required to be shown as tax on the return if the failure to file is for not more than one month; with an additional 5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which the delinquency continues, but not more than 25 percent in the aggregate.

(b) Failure to pay tax. Any person who files a return on TTB Form 5630.5t under this subpart and who fails to pay the amount shown as tax on the return on or before the date prescribed in § 46.103 for payment of such tax, must pay a penalty, in addition to the tax, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect (see § 46.109). The penalty for failure to pay the tax on or before the date prescribed for payment is 0.5 percent of the amount shown as tax on the return if the failure to pay is not for more than one month; with an additional 0.5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which the failure continues, but not more than 25 percent in the aggregate. Any person required to pay the special tax who willfully fails to pay the tax shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than 2 years, or both, for each such offense.

(c) Limitations. With respect to any return on Form 5630.5t, the amount of the addition under paragraph (a) of this section will be reduced by the amount of the addition under paragraph (b) of this section for any month to which an addition to tax applies under both paragraph (a) and paragraph (b) of this section. If the amount of tax required to be shown as tax on the return is less than the amount shown as tax on such return, the penalties prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section will be applied by substituting that lower amount.

§ 46.108 Interest on unpaid tax.

(a) General. Interest is due on unpaid special tax from the date the tax was required to be paid to the date paid. Interest will be charged for each day at the rate prescribed by law in effect on that day. Interest accruing after December 31, 1982, is compounded daily.

(b) Adjusted interest rates. Adjusted interest rates, determined in accordance with the procedure prescribed by 26 U.S.C. 6621(b), are announced quarterly by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The appropriate TTB officer will provide information, when requested, regarding interest rates applicable to specific time periods.

(26 U.S.C. 6601, 6621)

§ 46.109 Waiver of penalties.

In every case where a special tax return is not filed, or the tax is not paid, at the time prescribed in § 46.103, the delinquency penalties specified in § 46.107 for failure to file a return or for failure to pay the amount shown as tax on the return will be asserted and collected unless a reasonable cause for delay in filing the return or payment of the tax is clearly established. A taxpayer who believes the circumstances that delayed such taxpayer's filing of the return or payment of the tax are reasonable, and who desires to have the penalties waived, must submit with the return a written statement under the penalty of perjury, affirmatively showing all of the circumstances alleged as reasonable causes for delay. If the appropriate TTB officer determines that the delinquency was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect or gross negligence, the addition to the tax will be waived. If the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence and was nevertheless unable to file the return within the prescribed time, or if the taxpayer made a satisfactory showing that the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence in providing for payment of the tax liability and was nevertheless either unable to pay the tax or would have suffered an undue hardship if the taxpayer had paid on the due date, then the delay is due to reasonable cause. Mere ignorance of the law will not be considered a reasonable cause.

(26 U.S.C. 6651)

Special Tax Stamps§ 46.116 Issuance, distribution, and examination of special tax stamps.

(a) Issuance of special tax stamps. Upon filing a properly executed return on TTB Form 5630.5t together with the full tax remittance, the taxpayer will be issued an appropriately designated special tax stamp. If the return covers multiple locations, TTB will send to the taxpayer's principal place of business (or principal office in the case of a corporate taxpayer) one appropriately designated stamp for each location listed on the attachment to TTB Form 5630.5t required by § 46.101(b)(2).

(b) Distribution of special tax stamps for multiple locations. On receipt of the special tax stamps, the taxpayer must verify that there is one stamp for each location listed on the attachment to TTB Form 5630.5t and that the information on each stamp is correct. The taxpayer must then forward each stamp to the place of business designated on the stamp. Incorrect stamps must be returned to the appropriate TTB officer as provided in § 46.120.

(c) Examination of special tax stamps. Each stamp denoting payment of special tax must be kept available for inspection by an appropriate TTB officer during business hours at the location for which the stamp is designated.

(26 U.S.C. 5732)

§ 46.117 Lost or destroyed stamps.

If a special tax stamp has been lost or destroyed, the taxpayer must immediately notify the TTB officer who issued the stamp. A "Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp" will be issued to the taxpayer who submits an affidavit explaining to the satisfaction of the appropriate TTB officer that the stamp was lost or destroyed. The certificate must be kept available for inspection in the same manner as prescribed for a special tax stamp in § 46.116(c).

§ 46.118 Certificate in lieu of lost or destroyed special tax stamp.

The provisions of this subpart relating to special tax stamps apply as well to certificates in lieu of lost or destroyed special tax stamps issued to taxpayers under § 46.117.

§ 46.119 Errors disclosed by taxpayers.

On receipt of a special tax stamp, the taxpayer must examine it to ensure that the name and address are correctly stated; if not, the taxpayer must return the stamp to the TTB officer who issued it, with a statement showing the nature of the error and the correct name or address. The appropriate TTB officer, on receipt of such stamp and statement, will compare the data on the stamp with that of the Form 5630.5t in TTB files, correct the error if made in the TTB office, and return the stamp to the taxpayer. However, if the error was in the taxpayer's preparation of the Form 5630.5t, the appropriate TTB officer will require the taxpayer to file a new Form 5630.5t, designated "Amended Return," setting forth the taxpayer's correct name and address, and a statement explaining the error on the original Form 5630.5t. On receipt of the amended Form 5630.5t and a satisfactory explanation of the error, the appropriate TTB officer will make the proper correction on the stamp and return it to the taxpayer.

§ 46.120 Errors discovered on inspection.

When a TTB officer discovers on a special tax stamp a material error in the name, ownership, or address of the taxpayer, that officer will require the taxpayer to surrender the erroneous tax stamp and prepare a new Form 5630.5t, designated "Amended Return," showing correctly all of the information required in § 46.101 and containing, in the body of the form or in an attachment thereto, a statement of the reason for requesting correction of the stamp. On receipt of the amended return and an acceptable explanation for the error, the officer will make the proper correction on the stamp and return it to the taxpayer. However, if the error found by the TTB officer is on a special tax stamp issued as a result of a return on Form 5630.5t filed under § 46.101(b), that officer will instruct the taxpayer to return the stamp, with a statement showing the nature of the error and the correct data, to the TTB officer who issued the stamp, for correction in accordance with § 46.119.

Changes in Businesses Holding Special (Occupational) Tax Stamps

§ 46.126 Change in name or address.

(a) Change in name. If there is a change in the corporate or firm name, or in the trade name, as shown on TTB Form 5630.5t, the taxpayer must file an amended special tax return as soon as practicable after the change, covering the new corporate or firm name, or trade name. No new special tax is required to be paid. The taxpayer must attach the special tax stamp for endorsement of the change in name.

(b) Change in location—(1) General. If there is a change in location of a taxable place of business, the taxpayer must, within 30 days after the change, file with TTB an amended special tax return covering the new location. The taxpayer must attach the special tax stamp or stamps for endorsement of the change in location. No new special tax is required to be paid. However, if the taxpayer does not file the amended return within 30 days, the taxpayer is required to pay a new special tax and obtain a new special tax stamp.

(2) Procedure. If the taxpayer's original return on TTB Form 5630.5t covered only one location, the taxpayer may deliver the amended return and the stamp at any TTB office, or to any TTB officer inspecting the business, in lieu of mailing them to TTB. If the taxpayer's original return covered multiple locations under the provisions of § 46.101(b), he or she must forward with the amended return an attachment showing both the old and new address of any place of business which has been relocated, and the special tax stamp covering the location from which the business was removed. The appropriate TTB officer receiving such return or stamp will, if the return is submitted within the 30-day period, enter the proper endorsement on the stamp and return it to the taxpayer. (26 U.S.C. 5733, 7011)

§ 46.127 Change in ownership.

(a) General. A special tax stamp is a receipt for tax, personal to the one to whom issued, and is not transferable from one manufacturer of tobacco products, manufacturer of cigarette papers and tubes, or export warehouse proprietor to another. If there is a change in the ownership of a special-tax payer, the successor must pay a new special (occupational) tax and obtain the required special tax stamp(s). Examples of changes in ownership that require payment of a new special tax include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) Sale of business;
- (2) Formation of a partnership by two persons who have paid special tax;
- (3) Addition of a partner;
- (4) Incorporation of the business;
- (5) Creation of a new corporation to replace one or more corporations that have paid special tax; and
- (6) Stockholder continuing the business of a corporation after its dissolution.

(b) Changes that do not require payment of a new special tax. The following changes do not require payment of a special tax:

- (1) Increase in capital stock of a corporation.
- (2) Change in ownership of any or all of the capital stock of a corporation.

(c) Exemption for certain successors. Persons identified in paragraph (d) of this section as having the right of succession may carry on the business for the remainder of the tax year for which the special tax was paid, without paying a new special tax, if within 30 days after the date on which the successor begins to carry on the business, the successor files with TTB a special tax return on TTB Form 5630.5t showing the basis of succession. A person who is a successor to a business for which special tax has been paid, and who fails to register the succession, is liable for special tax computed from the first day of the calendar month in which the successor began to carry on the business.

(d) Persons having right of succession. The right of succession referred to in paragraph (c) of this section will pass to the identified persons in the following circumstances:

(1) Death. The surviving spouse or child, or the executor, administrator, or other legal representative, of a deceased taxpayer;

(2) Succession of spouse. A husband or wife succeeding to the business of his or her living spouse;

(3) Insolvency. A receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors;

(4) Withdrawal from firm. The partner or partners remaining after the death or withdrawal of a member of a partnership.

(26 U.S.C. 5733)

Stamps for Incorrect Period or Incorrect Liability

§ 46.131 General.

If a taxpayer through error has filed a return and paid special tax for an incorrect period of liability or for an incorrect class of business, the taxpayer must prepare a corrected TTB Form 5630.5t, designated "Amended Return," for each tax year involved and must submit the amended return, or returns, with remittance for the total applicable tax and additions to the tax (delinquency penalties and interest), to TTB in accordance with the instructions on the Form 5630.5t or, if the error is discovered by a TTB officer inspecting the premises, to that officer. Subject to the limitations imposed by 26 U.S.C. 6511, the incorrectly paid tax (including additions thereto) may be allowed as a credit against the correct tax (including any additions thereto), as provided in § 46.132, on surrender of the incorrect stamp or stamps, with the amended return or returns noted to show that credit is requested. Any incorrectly paid tax (including additions thereto) that is not credited as provided in § 46.132, including any creditable tax and additions thereto in excess of the correct tax (including additions thereto), may be refunded pursuant to §§ 46.136 through 46.138 if the taxpayer files a corrected return on Form 5630.5t with remittance of the correct amount of tax (including any additions thereto). A new stamp will be issued only for a current period of liability.

(26 U.S.C. 6011)

§ 46.132 Credit for incorrect stamp.

(a) General. The appropriate TTB officer may credit the tax (including additions thereto) paid for an incorrect stamp if the taxpayer has filed an amended return showing the correct tax on TTB Form 5630.5t and has, with the amended return, surrendered the incorrect stamp for credit.

(b) Underpayment. Where the correct tax (including any additions thereto) exceeds the incorrect tax paid, the appropriate TTB officer may credit the tax paid against the correct tax upon remittance of the difference between the tax paid and the correct tax plus any additions thereto.

(c) Overpayment. Where the tax (and additions thereto) paid for the surrendered incorrect stamp exceeds the amount due, the appropriate TTB officer will advise the taxpayer to file a claim for refund of that excess on TTB Form 5620.8. Sections 46.136 through 46.138 apply to all claims for refund. (26 U.S.C. 6402, 6511)

Abatement or Refund of Special Taxes

§ 46.136 Claims.

Claims for abatement of assessment of special tax (including penalties and interest), or for refund of an overpayment of special tax (including interest and penalties), must be filed on TTB Form 5620.8. The claim must be filed with the appropriate TTB officer. Each claim must set forth in detail each ground on which it is based and must contain facts sufficient to explain to the appropriate TTB officer the exact basis for the claim. If the claim is for refund of special tax for which a stamp was issued, either the stamp must be attached to and be made a part of the claim, or the claimant must include in the claim a satisfactory explanation of the reason why the stamp cannot be submitted.

§ 46.137 Time limit on filing of claim for refund.

No claim for the refund of a special tax or penalty will be allowed unless presented within 3 years after the filing of the related tax return or within 2 years after the payment of such tax or penalty, whichever of these periods expires later. (26 U.S.C. 6511)

§ 46.138 Discontinuance of business.

A dealer who for any reason discontinues business is not entitled to a refund of special tax for the unexpired portion of the tax year for which the special tax stamp was issued. (26 U.S.C. 5732)
