SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

In the Implementing Recommendations of the 9/11 Commission Act of 2007, Congress in Public Law 110–53 (the 9/11 Act) mandated DHS to establish a voluntary private sector preparedness accreditation and certification program. This program, now known as the PS-Prep Program, will assess whether a private sector entity voluntarily complies with one or more preparedness standards adopted by DHS. It will do so through a system of accreditation and certification developed by DHS in close coordination with the private sector.

The 9/11 Act contains a provision, now codified at 6 U.S.C. 321m(b)(2)(D), which requires the PS-Prep Program to “establish separate classifications and methods of certification for small business concerns.”

The definition of “small business concerns” is found in the Small Business Administration’s regulations at 13 CFR part 121, published in accordance with Section 3 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632).

DHS published a notice in the Federal Register on December 24, 2008, describing DHS implementation of the PS-Prep Program, requesting comment on the PS-Prep Program and the target criteria for selecting preparedness standards, and requesting recommendations for standards that DHS should consider. See 73 FR 79140. After reviewing the responses to the December 2008 notice, DHS published a notice in the Federal Register on October 16, 2009, which proposed the adoption of three standards for use in the PS-Prep Program and sought public comment. See 74 FR 53266. After reviewing comments received, DHS published a notice formally adopting those three standards on June 16, 2010. See 75 FR 34148.

DHS received additional information and comments about small business aspects of the PS-Prep Program through several public meetings in Washington, DC, 10 public meetings across the country, and multiple meetings with government agencies and organizations interested in preparedness and small business. These comments further defined small business and provided recommendations regarding appropriate considerations for separate classifications and methods for small business.

A. DHS Standards Adoption for the PS-Prep Program

DHS announced formal adoption of the following three standards on June 16, 2010 (PS-Prep standards).

B. Initiation of the PS-Prep Accreditation and Certification Process

With the formal adoption of the three PS-Prep standards, the American National Standards Institute—American Society for Quality (ANSI–ASQ) National Accreditation Board (ANAB), the designated PS-Prep accrediting body, will finalize its process for accrediting third-party certifying bodies (CBs) for the PS-Prep Program. Businesses may voluntarily choose to seek third-party certification through
