Correction of Publication

Accordingly, 26 CFR part 1 is corrected by making the following correcting amendments:

PART 1—INCOME TAXES

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 1 continues to read in part as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805 * * *

PBGC uses the interest assumptions in Appendix B to part 4022 to determine whether a benefit is payable as a lump sum and to determine the amount to pay. Appendix C to part 4022 contains interest assumptions for private-sector pension practitioners to refer to if they wish to use lump-sum interest rates determined using PBGC’s historical methodology. Currently, the rates in Appendices B and C of the benefit payment regulation are the same.

The interest assumptions are intended to reflect current conditions in the financial and annuity markets. Assumptions under the benefit payments regulation are updated monthly. This final rule updates the benefit payments interest assumptions for November 2010.1

The November 2010 interest assumptions under the benefit payments regulation will be 1.75 percent for the period during which a benefit is in pay status and 4.00 percent during any years preceding the benefit’s placement in pay status. In comparison with the interest assumptions in effect for October 2010, these interest assumptions are unchanged.

PBGC has determined that notice and public comment on this amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest. This finding is based on the need to determine and issue new interest assumptions promptly so that the assumptions can reflect current market conditions as accurately as possible.

Because of the need to provide immediate guidance for the payment of benefits under plans with valuation dates during November 2010, PBGC finds that good cause exists for making the assumptions set forth in this amendment effective less than 30 days after publication.

PBGC has determined that this action is not a “significant regulatory action” under the criteria set forth in Executive Order 12866.

1 Appendix B to PBGC’s regulation on Allocation of Assets in Single-Employer Plans (29 CFR part 4044) prescribes interest assumptions for valuing benefits under terminating covered single-employer plans for purposes of allocation of assets under ERISA section 4044. Those assumptions are updated quarterly.
Rules implementing the financial institution ("BSA"). The BSA is codified in part financial institution—are in the payment chain ("Recordkeeping and Travel Rule").3
The Recordkeeping and Travel Rule applies to transmittals of funds in amounts that equal or exceed $3,000,4 and requires the transmittor’s financial institution to obtain and retain name, address, and other information on the transmittor and the transaction.5 Furthermore, the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule requires the recipient’s financial institution—and in certain instances, the transmittor’s financial institution—to obtain or retain identifying information on the recipient.6 The Recordkeeping and Travel Rule requires that certain information obtained or retained by the transmittor’s financial institution “travel” with the transmittal order through the payment chain.7 Mutual funds are subject to record retention requirements under the Investment Company Act of 1940, and mutual fund transfer agents are subject to recordkeeping requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In light of these existing regulatory obligations, FinCEN stated in the notice of proposed rulemaking that the requirements of 31 CFR 103.33 and 31 CFR 103.38 would have a de minimus impact on mutual funds and their transfer agents.
Furthermore, rules under the BSA on the establishment of customer identification programs by mutual funds and on the reporting by mutual funds of suspicious transactions impose requirements to create and retain records.

FinCEN also requested comment on the anticipated impact of subjecting mutual funds to the requirements of the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule. All three commenters noted that subjecting mutual funds to the requirements of the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule will require mutual funds to implement changes to their transaction processing and recordkeeping systems. All commenters requested additional time to comply with the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule. Commenters stated that such an extension would provide mutual funds with an opportunity to implement changes to their transaction reporting and recordkeeping systems. Generally, commenters suggested an extension of between 18 to 24 months. FinCEN determined that extending the compliance date with respect to the requirements of the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule to 270 days after the rule

See 31 CFR 101.33(g) (information that must “travel” with the transmittal order; 31 CFR 103.11(kk) (defining "transmittal order"). 10 Additionally, the Final Rule includes mutual funds within an existing exception designed to exclude from the Recordkeeping and Travel Rule’s coverage funds transfers or transmittal of funds in which certain categories of financial institution are the transmitter, originator, recipient, or beneficiary. See 31 CFR 103.33(o)(6) and 31 CFR 103.33(f)(6)(i). Further, the Final Rule subjects mutual funds to requirements on the creation and retention of records for extensions of credit and cross-border transfers of currency, monetary instruments, checks, investment securities, and credit. See 31 CFR 103.33(a)–(c). Financial institutions must retain these records for a period of five years. 31 CFR 103.38(d).

Amendment to Bank Secrecy Act Regulations; Defining Mutual Funds as Financial Institutions, 74 FR 26996, 26998 (June 5, 2009).

See 31 CFR 103.131 (mutual funds must obtain and record identifying information for persons opening new accounts, and verify the identity of persons opening new accounts); 31 CFR 103.15(c) (mutual funds must maintain records of documentation that supports the filing of a SAR).

1 Amendments to the Bank Secrecy Act Regulations; Defining Mutual Funds as Financial Institutions, 75 FR 19241 (April 14, 2010).

2 See 31 CFR 103.11(n)(10) (general definition of “financial institution”). The BSA is codified in part at 31 U.S.C. 5311 et seq. Rules implementing the BSA are codified at 31 CFR part 103.

3 See 31 CFR 103.33(f) and (g). Financial institutions must retain records for a period of five years. 31 CFR 103.38(d).

4 Rules under the BSA define a “transmittal of funds” and the persons or institutions involved in a “transmittal of funds.” See 31 CFR 103.11(d), (e), (q), (r), (s), (v), (w), (cc), (dd), (jj), (kk), (ll), and (mn). A “transmittal of funds” includes funds transfers processed by banks, as well as similar payments where one or more of the financial institutions processing the payment is not a bank. If the mutual fund is processing a payment sent by or to its customer, then the mutual fund would be either the “transmitter’s financial institution” or the “recipient’s financial institution.”
