Petroleum Wax Candles From the People’s Republic of China: Final Results of Expedited Third Sunset Review of Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Effective Date: November 18, 2010.

SUMMARY: On July 9, 2010, the Department of Commerce (“Department”) initiated the third sunset review of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”). On the basis of a timely notice of intent to participate and an adequate substantive response filed on behalf of a domestic interested party, as well as an adequate response from any respondent interested parties (in this case, no response), the Department conducted an expedited sunset review. As a result of the sunset review, the Department finds that revocation of the antidumping duty order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and the magnitude of the margins likely to prevail if the order were revoked. Parties can find a complete discussion of all issues raised in this review and the corresponding recommendations in this public memorandum, which is on file in the Central Records Unit in room 7046 of the main Commerce building.

In addition, a complete version of the Decision Memorandum can be accessed directly on the Internet at http://ia.ita.doc.gov/frn. The paper copy and electronic version of the Decision Memorandum are identical in content.

Final Results of Review

Pursuant to sections 752(c)(1) and (3) of the Act, we determine that revocation of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from the PRC would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping at the following percentage margins:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Manufacturers/producers/exporters</th>
<th>Margin (percent)</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>PRC-Wide</td>
<td>108.30</td>
</tr>

Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction.

We are issuing and publishing the results and notice in accordance with sections 751(c), 752(c), and 777(i)(1) of the Act.
