Food and Drug Administration

21 CFR Part 882

Medical Devices; Neurological Devices; Clarification of Classification for Human Dura Mater; Technical Amendment

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Final rule; technical amendment.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is amending the device regulations to clarify the applicability of the device classification for human dura mater. This action is being taken to improve the accuracy of the regulations.

DATES: This final rule is effective June 24, 2011.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: FDA is clarifying the regulatory authority for human dura mater in the Agency’s codified regulations for part 882 (21 CFR part 882). In the Federal Register of November 24, 2004 (69 FR 68612), FDA published a final rule regarding current good tissue practice for establishments that manufacture human cell, tissue, and cellular and tissue-based products (HCT/Ps). That rule became effective on May 25, 2005. Prior to the effective date of the final rule, human dura mater was regulated as a medical device under §882.5975. As stated in the final rule, human dura mater is now defined under 21 CFR 1271.3(d) as a HCT/P. As such, it is regulated under section 361 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 264) and the requirements of 21 CFR part 1271, including requirements related to registration and listing, donor eligibility determinations, and current good tissue practice. Accordingly, the device classification contained in §882.5975 is only applicable for human dura mater recovered prior to the effective date of the final rule, May 25, 2005. The final rule omitted a corresponding annotation to §882.5975 to clarify that the device classification is only applicable for human dura mater recovered prior to the effective date of the final rule. This document clarifies the regulatory authority for human dura mater. Publication of this document constitutes final action under the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553). FDA has determined that notice and public comment are unnecessary because this amendment is nonsubstantive.
