establish an inspection program by rule. Section 104(a)(2) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act provides that, in establishing such a program:

- The Board may allow for differentiation among classes of brokers and dealers;
- The Board shall consider whether differing inspection schedules would be appropriate with respect to auditors that issue audit reports only for brokers or dealers that do not receive, handle, or hold customer securities or cash or are not members of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation; and
- If the Board exempts any public accounting firm from such an inspection program, the auditor would not be required to register with the Board.

The Board has filed a proposed rule change to establish a temporary rule for an interim program of inspection that would allow the Board to begin inspections of relevant audits and auditors and provide a source of information to help guide decisions about the scope and elements of a permanent program. The Board explained that it intended to take a careful and informed approach in establishing a permanent program that appropriately protects the public interest and the interests of investors, including consideration of potential costs and regulatory burdens that would be imposed on different categories of registered public accounting firms and classes of brokers and dealers. The Board also explained that it did not intend to make the necessary judgments without first gathering and assessing relevant information, but that it did not intend to postpone all use of its new inspection authority until after those judgments were made.

The temporary rule provides that the Board will publish a report on the interim program no less frequently than every twelve months, beginning twelve months after the date the rule takes effect and continuing until rules for a permanent program take effect. Each report will describe the progress of the interim program and any significant observations that either may bear on the Board’s consideration of a permanent program or the publication of which may otherwise be appropriate to protect the interests of investors or to further the public interest.

III. Discussion of Comments

The Commission received one comment letter on the proposed rule change. The commenter, a small registered accounting firm that performs audits of broker-dealers but not issuers, expressed strong support for the inclusive scope of the temporary rule and also for the establishment of a permanent program of inspection that would include all auditors of broker-dealers. The commenter supported a program that would not differentiate among types of brokers and dealers or exempt certain public accounting firms, noting their view that any such limitations would not be “fully protecting the public interest and interest of investors.”

IV. Conclusion

After careful review of the proposed rule change, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the securities laws and is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 107 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act, that the proposed rule change (File No. PCAOB–2011–01) be and hereby is approved.

For the Commission, by the Office of the Chief Accountant, pursuant to delegated authority.

Public Company Accounting Oversight Board; Order Approving Proposed Board Funding Final Rules for Allocation of the Board’s Accounting Support Fee Among Issuers, Brokers, and Dealers, and Other Amendments to the Board’s Funding Rules

August 18, 2011.

I. Introduction

On June 21, 2011, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“Board” or the “PCAOB”) acted to finalize the Board’s Accounting Support Fee (the “Fee”) and related amendments to the Board’s Funding Rules.

II. Discussion

The Board has decided to change the allocation of a portion of the accounting fees paid by public accounting firms (the “PCAOB fees”) for meeting the requirements of Section 102(f)(1)2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 2002 (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act” and Section 19(b)(1)2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), a proposed rule change (PCAOB–2011–02) relating to the funding of the Board’s operations (PCAOB Rules 7100 through 7106) and proposed amendments to certain definitions that would appear in PCAOB Rule 1001. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on July 12, 2011. The Commission received no comment letters on the proposed rule change. This order approves the proposed rule change.

III. Conclusion

After careful review of the proposed rule change, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the securities laws and is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 107 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act, that the proposed rule change (File No. PCAOB–2011–01) be and hereby is approved.

For the Commission, by the Office of the Chief Accountant, pursuant to delegated authority.

Secretary.

BILLING CODE 8011–01–P
support fee among brokers and dealers, or classes of brokers and dealers, based on their relative “net capital (before or after any adjustments).”

As amended by the Dodd-Frank Act, Section 109 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act requires that the rules of the Board provide for the equitable allocation, assessment, and collection by the Board of the accounting support fee among issuers, brokers, and dealers, and allow “for differentiation among classes of issuers, brokers, and dealers, as appropriate.” This section further provides that “[t]he amount due from a broker or dealer shall be in proportion to the net capital of the broker or dealer (before or after any adjustments), compared to the total net capital of all brokers and dealers (before or after any adjustments), in accordance with rules issued by the Board.”

Accordingly, the Board has filed a proposed rule change to its funding rules to allocate a portion of the accounting support fee among brokers and dealers, to establish classes of brokers and dealers for funding purposes, to describe the methods for allocating the appropriate portion of the accounting support fee to each broker and dealer within each class, and to address the collection of the assessed share of the broker-dealer accounting support fee from brokers and dealers.

In addition, the proposed rule change includes amendments to the Board’s funding rules with respect to the allocation, assessment, and collection of the accounting support fee among issuers. Among other things, the proposed rule change:

- Revises the basis for calculating an issuer’s market capitalization to include the market capitalization of all classes of the issuer’s voting and non-voting common equity;
- Increases the average, monthly market capitalization thresholds in the funding rules for classes of equity issuers and investment companies; and
- Includes technical amendments to the Board’s funding rules.

Pursuant to Section 109(d)(3) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the PCAOB is required to begin the allocation, assessment, and collection of the accounting support fee from brokers and dealers to fund the first full fiscal year beginning after the date of the enactment of the Dodd-Frank Act, which is the Board’s 2011 fiscal year. Accordingly, the Board has indicated that the amendments to its funding rules are effective for the allocation, assessment, and collection of the 2011 broker-dealer accounting support fee for brokers and dealers and the 2012 issuer accounting support fee for issuers.

III. Conclusion

After careful review of the proposed rule change, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the securities laws and is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 107 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act, that the proposed rule change (File No. PCAOB–2011–02) be and hereby is approved.

For the Commission, by the Office of the Chief Accountant, pursuant to delegated authority.
