SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, provides that if the Commission finds a violation it shall exclude the articles concerned from the United States:

unless, after considering the effect of such exclusion upon the public health and welfare, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, and United States consumers, it finds that such articles should not be excluded from entry. 19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(1). (i) Explain how the articles potentially subject to the recommended orders are used in the United States;
