Solicitation for Comments on the Proposed Realignment of the Division of Workforce Development From the Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development to the Office of the Deputy Director—Indian Services, Bureau of Indian Affairs

AGENCIES: Office of the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs and Bureau of Indian Affairs

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Office of the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs (AS–IA) is considering realigning the Division of Workforce Development (DWD), now located in the Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development (IEED) within AS–IA, to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, under the Office of the Deputy Director—Indian Services. This notice seeks comments on this proposed realignment from federally recognized American Indian Tribes and Alaska Native entities.

DATES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments on or before July 27, 2012.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: You may request further information from Mr. Jack Stevens, Acting Director, Division of Workforce Development, Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development, U.S. Department of the Interior. Telephone: (202) 208–6764.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The AS–IA is considering realigning the DWD, now located in IEED, to the BIA, under the Office of the Deputy Director—Indian Services, to improve management efficiencies and strengthen the Public Law 102–477 demonstration project.

In 2005, DWD was realigned from the Office of Tribal Services (now the Office of the Deputy Director—Indian Services) and returned to the Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development, U.S. Department of the Interior. On August 29, 2006, it was realigned again, into IEED. The purpose of the action under consideration is to return DWD to the Office of the Deputy Director—Indian Services. This realignment will not result in any loss of funding or staff positions for DWD nor will it alter in any respect its responsibility to:
