Background
On May 20, 1997, President Clinton issued Executive Order 13047, “Prohibiting New Investment in Burma,” and declared a national emergency to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States posed by the Government of Burma’s actions and policies. In order to take additional steps with respect to the Government of Burma’s continued repression of the democratic opposition in Burma, President Bush issued Executive Order 13310, “Blocking Property of the Government of Burma and Prohibiting Certain Transactions” (“the Order” or “E.O. 13310”). E.O. 13310 imposes economic sanctions on persons listed in the Annex to the Order. The Order also authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to designate additional persons determined to meet the criteria set forth in E.O. 13310.

On September 27, 2007, the Director of OFAC, in consultation with the Secretary of State, designated, pursuant to one or more of the criteria set forth in subparagraphs (b)(i) through (b)(ii) of Section 1 of the Order, the individuals listed below, whose property and interests in property were blocked pursuant to the Order.

On September 19, 2012, the Director of OFAC removed and unblocked from the SDN List the two individuals listed below, whose property and interests in property were blocked pursuant to E.O. 13310.
