Fresh Tomatoes From Mexico: Notice of Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review and Intent To Terminate the Suspended Antidumping Investigation

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On January 22, 2008, the Department of Commerce (the Department) signed the current suspension agreement on fresh tomatoes with growers/exporters of Mexican tomatoes accounting for substantially all (i.e., not less than 85 percent) of Mexico’s tomato exports to the United States. The agreement covers all fresh or chilled tomatoes of Mexican origin, except tomatoes that are for processing.

Dated: June 22, 2012.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Foreign-Trade Zones Board

Approval of Subzone Status; TST NA TRIM, LLC; Hidalgo, TX

On August 3, 2012, the Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones (FTZ) Board docketed an application submitted by the McAllen Foreign Trade Zone, Inc., grantee of FTZ 12, requesting subzone status subject to the existing activation limit of FTZ 12, on behalf of TST NA TRIM, LLC, in Hidalgo, Texas.

The application was processed in accordance with the FTZ Act and Regulations, including notice in the Federal Register inviting public comment (77 FR 47816, 08/10/2012). The FTZ staff examiner reviewed the application and determined that it meets the criteria for approval. Pursuant to the authority delegated to the FTZ Board Executive Secretary (15 CFR 401.36(f)), the application for the requested subzone (Subzone 12A) is approved, subject to the FTZ Act and the Board’s regulations, including Section 400.13 and further subject to FTZ 12’s 873.5-acre activation limit.

Dated: September 27, 2012.

Andrew McGilvray, Executive Secretary.

Scope of the Suspended Investigation

The merchandise subject to the suspended investigation is all fresh or chilled tomatoes (fresh tomatoes) which have Mexico as their origin, except for those tomatoes which are for processing. The merchandise subject to the suspended investigation is currently classified under the following subheadings of the Harmonized Tariff Schedules of the United States (HTSUS), according to the season of importation: 0702 and 9906.07.01 through 9906.07.09. Although the HTSUS numbers are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of the suspended investigation, available at Suspension of Antidumping Investigation: Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico, 73 FR 4832 (January 28, 2008), is dispositive.

Background

On August 21, 2012, the Department published a notice of initiation of changed circumstances review to examine the petitioners’ request to terminate the suspended investigation. See Initiation Notice. In the Initiation Notice we invited interested parties to submit comments for the Department’s consideration by September 4, 2012. Interested parties were requested to address the issue of industry support in their comments.

On September 4, 2012, we received comments from the Florida Tomato Exchange (FTE) and the Florida Tomato Growers Exchange (FTGE), Village Farms, Windset Farms and Houweling Nurseries Oxnard Inc. (collectively, “domestic producers”); CAADES Sinaloa, A.C., Consejo Agrícola de Baja California, A.C., Asociación Mexicana de Horticultura Protegida, A.C., Union Agrícola Regional de Sonora Productores de Hortalizas Frutas y Legumbres, and Confederación Nacional de Productores de Hortalizas, (collectively, “Mexican tomato growers/exporters”); San Vincente Camalu S.P.R. de R.I.; NatureSweet Ltd.; McIntyre Produce; the Fresh Produce Association of the Americas; Wal-Mart; Grant County Foods, LLC; the Government of Mexico; and the Texas International Produce Association. For additional background information, please see “Decision Memorandum: Preliminary Results of Changed Circumstances Review and Intent to Terminate the Suspended Investigation” (Preliminary Decision Memorandum) from Lynn Fischer Fox, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and Negotiations, to Paul Piquado, Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, dated concurrently with these results and hereby adopted by this notice.

Public Comment

Interested parties are invited to comment on the preliminary results of this review. The Department will consider case briefs filed by interested parties within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Interested parties may file rebuttal briefs, limited to issues raised in the case briefs. The Department will consider rebuttal briefs filed not later than ten days after the time limit for submission of such briefs.

1 See 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii).
2 See 19 CFR 351.309(d).
filing case briefs. Parties who submit arguments are requested to submit with each argument a statement of the issue, a brief summary of the argument, and a table of authorities cited.

Interested parties who wish to request a hearing, or to participate if one is requested, must submit a written request to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, filed electronically using Import Administration’s Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (IA ACCESS). An electronically filed document requesting a hearing must be received successfully in its entirety by the Department’s electronic records system, IA ACCESS, by 5 p.m. Eastern Time within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice. Requests should contain the party’s name, address, and telephone number, the number of participants, and a list of the issues to be discussed. If a request for a hearing is made, the Department will inform parties of the scheduled date for the hearing which will be held at the U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230, at a time and location to be determined. Parties should confirm by telephone the date, time, and location of the hearing.

The Department will issue the final results of this changed circumstances review, which will include the results of its analysis raised in any such written comments, as soon as is practicable, but not later than 270 days after the date on which this review was initiated. See 19 CFR 351.216(e).

If the suspended investigation is terminated in the final results of this review, the suspension agreement will also terminate, effective on the date of publication of the notice of final results of the changed circumstances review in the Federal Register.

These preliminary results of review and notice are in accordance with sections 751(b) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(e), and notice is in accordance with the publication of the notice of final results of review, the suspension agreement will be terminated in the final results of this administrative review of the AD Order.

Honey From Argentina: Notice of Initiation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Changed Circumstances Reviews and Consideration of Revocation of Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Orders

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Effective Date: October 2, 2012.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Paul Piquado, Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Background

On December 10, 2001, the Department published the antidumping and countervailing duty orders on honey from Argentina.1 On July 24, 2012, petitioners requested that the Department revoke the Orders, effective December 1, 2010, based on the domestic U.S. industry’s lack of further interest.2 We received submissions indicating support for revocation of the Orders from respondent parties participating in the ongoing administrative review of the AD Order.
