of current 49 CFR part 1511, the burden estimates do not anticipate any start-up costs or changes over subsequent years. It is estimated that the 185 respondent air carriers and foreign air carriers will each on average incur $104.60 annually, which includes $54.60 in records storage and $50 in labor costs for 2 hours of records management at $25 per hour. Thus, the annual average burden related to this requirement for all respondents is $19,351. The subject records may be used by TSA to make determinations regarding security-related costs in calendar year 2000, including conducting reviews and otherwise ensuring compliance with 49 CFR part 1511.

Issued in Arlington, Virginia, on October 23, 2012.

[Docket No. FR–5603–N–78]

Notice of Submission of Proposed Information Collection to OMB: Section 8 Contract Renewal Policy—Guidance for the Renewal of Project-Based Section 8 Contracts

AGENCY: Office of the Chief Information Officer, HUD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The proposed information collection requirement described below has been submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act. The Department is soliciting public comments on the subject proposal. The Section 8 Renewal Policy Guide implements Section 524 of the Multifamily Housing Reform and Affordability Act of 1997 (MAHRA) (Pub. L. 105–65, enacted on October 27, 1997), which governs how expiring Section 8 project-based assistance contracts are renewed. The Section 8 contract renewal process is an essential component to preserving low income rental housing affordability and availability, while reducing long-term costs of project-based assistance. Project-based assistance contracts are renewed under MAHRA to protect tenants and preserve affordable housing for low and very low-income tenants. The Section 8 contract renewal process will provide housing protection for the low and very low-income tenants living in various United States communities. This Notice also lists the Following Information:

Title of Proposed: Section 8 Contract Renewal Policy—Guidance for the Renewal of Project-Based Section 8 Contracts.
