Background

Section 104(c)(2) of CISADA sets forth the activities for which the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prohibit or impose strict conditions on the opening or maintaining in the United States of a correspondent account or a payable-through account by a foreign financial institution if the Secretary finds that the foreign financial institution knowingly engages in one or more of those activities. Under section 104(c)(2)(B) of CISADA, facilitating the activities of a person subject to financial sanctions pursuant to a United Nations Security Council resolution that imposes sanctions with respect to Iran is listed as a sanctionable activity. Section 214 of the TRA amends section 104(c)(2)(B) of CISADA by expanding this sanctionable category to include facilitating the activities of “a person acting on behalf of or at the direction of, or owned or controlled by,” a person sanctioned under such United Nations Security Council resolutions.

Section 215 of the TRA amends section 104(c)(2)(E) of CISADA to authorize the imposition of CISADA sanctions on a foreign financial institution that knowingly facilitates significant transactions or provides significant financial services for a “person” (formerly, a “financial institution”) whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) in connection with Iran’s proliferation of weapons of mass destruction (“WMD”) or delivery systems for WMD or Iran’s support for international terrorism.

Section 216 of the TRA amends CISADA by adding new section 104A after section 104 of CISADA. That new section requires the Secretary of the Treasury to revise the regulations prescribed under CISADA section 104(c) to apply, to the same extent that they apply to a foreign financial institution found to knowingly engage in an activity described in CISADA section
104(c)(2), to a foreign financial institution that the Secretary of the Treasury finds (1) knowingly facilitates, or participates or assists in, an activity described in section 104(c)(2) of CISADA; (2) attempts or conspires to facilitate or participate in such an activity; or (3) is owned or controlled by a foreign financial institution that the Secretary finds knowingly engages in such an activity.

The Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) originally published the Iranian Financial Sanctions Regulations, 31 CFR part 561 (the “IFSR”), on August 16, 2010, to implement sections 104(c) and (d) and other related provisions of CISADA (75 FR 49836). On February 27, 2012, OFAC amended the IFSR and reissued them in their entirety, in order to implement section 1245(d) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L. 112–81), which provides for the imposition of sanctions with respect to the Central Bank of Iran and designated Iranian financial institutions (77 FR 11724).

Today, OFAC is further amending the IFSR to implement the changes to CISADA made by sections 214 through 216 of the TRA. OFAC is revising section 561.201(a)(2) of the IFSR to incorporate the change made by section 214 of the TRA. Section 561.201(a)(5)(ii) and the note to paragraph (a)(5) are being revised to incorporate the change made by section 215 of the TRA. OFAC is revising the chapeau of section 561.201 and adding new paragraph (a)(6) to incorporate the change made by section 216 of the TRA. OFAC is amending the definitions of foreign financial institution and Iranian financial institution in, respectively, sections 561.308 and 561.320 of the IFSR. OFAC is amending these definitions to add “dealers in precious metals, stones, or jewels” to the examples of entities subject to financial sanctions with respect to the Central Bank of Iran and designated Iranian financial institutions (77 FR 11724).

L. 111–195) (22 U.S.C. 8501–8551) (“CISADA”), as amended by the Iran Threat Reduction and Syria Human Rights Act of 2012 (Pub. L. 112–158), either the Secretary of the Treasury will impose one or more strict conditions, as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, on the opening or maintaining of a correspondent account or a payable-through account in the United States for that foreign financial institution, or, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, the Secretary of the Treasury will prohibit a U.S. financial institution from opening or maintaining a correspondent account or a payable-through account in the United States for that foreign financial institution.
