National Park Service
Wow, a page full of natural text! It seems like a lot of decision-making and environmental impact statements are happening at Yellowstone National Park. Let's break it down:

SUMMARY: Pursuant to Sec. 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C), the National Park Service (NPS) announces the availability of the Amended Record of Decision for the Winter Use Plan for Yellowstone National Park, located in Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming.

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior.
ACTION: Notice of Availability of Amended Record of Decision for the Final Environmental Impact Statement for a Winter Use Plan, Yellowstone National Park.

The NPS will implement this decision through an implementing regulation that will take effect on December 15, 2012.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Amended Record of Decision selects Alternative 2 for implementation, for the 2012–2013 winter season only. The NPS will allow oversnow vehicle use in the park for the winter of 2012–2013 only. The Final Environmental Impact Statement analyzed eight alternatives, including a no-action alternative. The full range of foreseeable environmental consequences was assessed, and appropriate mitigating measures were identified.

The Amended Record of Decision includes a statement of the decision made, synopses of other alternatives considered, the basis for the decision, a description of the environmentally preferred alternative, a listing of measures to minimize environmental harm, and an overview of public involvement in the decision-making process.

Copies of the Amended Record of Decision may be obtained from the contact listed above or online at http://parkplanning.nps.gov/yell.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION
[Investigation No. 337–TA–851]
Certain Integrated Circuit Packages Provided with Multiple Heat- Conducting Paths and Products Containing Same; Commission Determination Not To Review an Initial Determination Granting Complainants’ Motion for Termination of the Investigation Based on Withdrawal of Complaint
ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 5) of the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) granting complainant’s motion for termination of the investigation based on withdrawal of the complaint.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Michael Liberman, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205–3115. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205–2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server at http://www.usitc.gov.

The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission’s electronic docket (EDIS) at http://edis.usitc.gov. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission’s TDD terminal on (202) 205–1810.

Complainants ITRI moved to terminate the investigation in its entirety based on withdrawal of the complaint. Respondents LG did not oppose the motion. On November 8, 2012, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 5) granting the motion. No party petitioned for review of the ID, and the Commission has determined not to review it.

Issued: December 6, 2012.

Lisa R. Barton,
Acting Secretary to the Commission.
