II. Roles and Responsibilities of Master Servicer/Trustee

3. Accordingly, the duties of the Master Servicer/Trustee will include loan administration, servicing, and monitoring of the Bond Issue and the corresponding Bonds and Bond Loans with respect to the Qualified Issuer’s repayment obligations to the Bond Purchaser and the terms of the Agreement to Guarantee and the Bond Loan Agreement.

4. The Master Servicer/Trustee will also be charged with all customary duties required of a Paying Agent, Collateral Agent, and Custodian (as those terms are customarily used and which duties may be enumerated in the Bond Trust Indenture).

When necessary, the Master Servicer/Trustee will act as Special Servicer, performing certain administrative duties related to the restructuring of Bond Loans that are in or about to enter into an event of default (i.e., distressed asset management or resolution), as well as initiating foreclosure action, appointing a receiver, and enforcing deficiency judgments. As described below, the Department of the Treasury will have certain decision-making authority with respect to the Qualified Issuer’s instructions to the Master Servicer/Trustee as to the best course of action when multiple remedies or options are available (i.e., the decision as to whether to restructure a Bond Loan or initiate foreclosure actions).

Instead, its contractual relationships will be with each Qualified Issuer that receives a Guarantee under the CDFI Bond Guarantee Program. Each Qualified Issuer that receives a Guarantee will have entered into an Agreement to Guarantee with the CDFI Fund for the purpose of credit enhancement, any downgrade in the credit rating of the Eligible CDFI or any third-party guarantor by either Standard & Poor’s Financial Services LLC, Moody’s Investors Service or Fitch Ratings Ltd.; (C) any material change in the value of any project collateral, based on notices and updates provided by the Qualified Issuer or Eligible CDFIs; (D) problems or irregularities concerning any Secondary Loan, based on information obtained from the Qualified Issuers, Eligible CDFIs or in the course of any on-site visits conducted on behalf of the CDFI Fund; or (E) the inability of any Eligible CDFI to make payment on the Bond Loan or other debt obligation;

IV. Evaluation

A. Completeness and Minimum Requirements Review. The CDFI Fund will review each proposal to determine whether it is complete and the Offeror meets the minimum requirements described in this Notice. An incomplete proposal or one that does not meet minimum requirements will be rejected.

C. Substantive Review.
1. If the Offeror has submitted a complete proposal that meets the minimum requirements, the CDFI Fund will conduct a substantive review in accordance with the criteria and procedures described in the Regulations and this Notice. The CDFI Fund reserves the right to contact the Offeror in person, or by telephone, email, or mail for the sole purpose of clarifying or confirming information. If contacted, the Offeror must respond within the CDFI Fund’s time parameters or its proposal will be rejected. The CDFI Fund will consider the best value proposed by the Offeror through an equal consideration of technical capabilities, past performance, and proposed fees/cost structure.

The proposed all-in fee and methodology must be appropriate to cover the costs of performing the duties entailed in this Notice, including those of the Special Servicer (i.e., distressed asset management or resolution).

(c) The following table is an example of a possible methodology to present the fee in terms of a basis point percentage of the outstanding principle balance of each Bond Loan, starting at 1.25 basis points (0.125%) and subject to a maximum increase of 1/100th of a basis point per month.
