for the manufacturer of the merchandise; and (4) if neither the exporter nor the manufacturer is a firm covered in this or any previous review, the cash deposit rate will be the all others rate for this proceeding, 5.71 percent. These deposit requirements, when imposed, shall remain in effect until further notice.

Notification to Importers

This notice also serves as a preliminary reminder to importers of their responsibility under 19 CFR 351.402(I) to file a certificate regarding the reimbursement of antidumping duties prior to liquidation of the relevant entries during this review period. Failure to comply with this requirement could result in the Department’s presumption that reimbursement of antidumping duties occurred and the subsequent assessment of double antidumping duties.

We are issuing and publishing these results in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777i of the Act.

Dated: July 31, 2013.

Paul Piquado,
Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Lemon Juice From Argentina: Continuation of Suspected Antidumping Duty Investigation

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: As a result of the determination by the Department of Commerce (“the Department”) and the International Trade Commission (“ITC”) that termination of the suspended investigation on lemon juice from Argentina would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and notified the ITC of the magnitude of the margins likely to prevail, should the suspended investigation be terminated. See Lemon Juice from Argentina: Final Results of the Expedited First Sunset Review of the Suspected Antidumping Duty Investigation, 77 FR 73021 (December 7, 2012). On July 10, 2013, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, the ITC determined that termination of the suspended investigation on lemon juice from Argentina would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby gives notice of the continuation of the suspended investigation on lemon juice from Argentina. The effective date of continuation will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of this Continuation Notice. Because the Department is continuing the suspended investigation, the suspension agreement will also continue to remain in effect. See Suspension of Antidumping Duty Investigation: Lemon Juice From Argentina, 72 FR 53991 (September 21, 2007). Pursuant to sections 751(c)(2) of the Act, the Department intends to initiate the next five-year sunset review of the suspended investigation on lemon juice from Argentina not later than 30 days prior to the fifth anniversary of the effective date of continuation.

This five-year (sunset) review and notice are in accordance with section 751(c) of the Act and published pursuant to section 777i of the Act.

Dated: August 1, 2013.

Paul Piquado.
Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
