

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Monday, May 13, 1991

The House met at 12 noon.

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

When the turmoil and pressures of life surround and when responsibilities overwhelm, grant us, O God, the strength equal to the tasks before us and the peace of mind that frees us from the weight of decision. May our meditation upon Your Word and the realization of Your presence in the affairs of people, give us the serenity and the joy and the peace that is Your gift to us. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. UPTON] please come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. UPTON led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

WASHINGTON, DC,
May 13, 1991.

Hon. THOMAS S. FOLEY,
The Speaker, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 5 of Rule III of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Clerk received at 11:23 a.m. on Monday, May 13, 1991 the following message from the Secretary of the Senate: That the Senate passed without amendment H.J. Res. 109.

With great respect, I am,
Sincerely yours,

DONNALD K. ANDERSON,
Clerk, House of Representatives.

JUNE 8 WASHINGTON CELEBRATION PLANNED TO HONOR GULF TROOPS

(Mr. MONTGOMERY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MONTGOMERY. Mr. Speaker, on June 8 of this year, Gen. Norman Schwarzkopf will again lead more than 10,000 of his troops from all branches of the service in a major event, the largest military parade we have had in Washington since World War II, and it might be bigger than the one we had in World War II, to honor our great soldiers.

The national victory parade to be staged here in Washington, will be part of a day-long tribute to the men and women who served in Operation Desert Storm. I want to commend Mr. Harry Walters, who is chairman of this day, and his cochairman, Mr. Chuck Hagel.

The day's event will begin at 9 a.m., that is on Saturday, on June 8, with a memorial service at Arlington National Cemetery for the military personnel killed during the gulf war. President George Bush will attend this service.

Following the memorial service, the national victory parade will begin at 11 a.m. At 7 p.m. on the same day, the troops and the public are invited to a USO show on the Mall with several well-known entertainers and the tribute will be capped by a great fireworks display at 9 p.m., a wonderful day for all Americans on June 8.

PARENTS NEED MORE TIME AND MONEY

(Mrs. SCHROEDER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. SCHROEDER. Mr. Speaker, America's parents are now speaking out for two things. As we finish Mother's Day, we hear a cry from all over America that we could all be better parents if we only had more time and more money.

Well, Mr. Speaker, thank you for making family medical leave a priority. That will help with the time. And many of us have introduced a bill that would start to restore the personal exemption back to what Harry Truman wanted it to be.

Mr. Speaker, I have brought a chart today which shows you why people are talking about needing more money. If you look at where Harry Truman started, feeling what percentage of the personal income should be sheltered from taxes, and see what we have slid down to, you begin to see what the 1980's did to us. It shifted the taxes off the rich onto the middle class and really squeezed them.

To get back to Harry Truman's vision of what the personal exemption should do, we would have to raise the personal exemption to $8,000 apiece. That is where it should be.

We obviously will not get there this year, but we have got to begin to turn that around by moving it back up and reclaiming that. It is time to say trickle down did not work, and it is time to say the middle class needs some help, time, and money, and we will all be better parents and it will be a better country.

SENIOR CITIZENS MONTH

(Mr. MAZZOLI asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MAZZOLI. Mr. Speaker, we who spend time here in Washington know that May is a beautiful month of the year. Spring is beautiful in Washington. It is when the cherry blossoms come to the Tidal Basin, when azalea bushes bloom on the Capitol Grounds, and when tourists from the United States and around the world, really, come to Washington to view this place.

May also happens to be Senior Citizens Month. And as part of that, Mr. Speaker, we welcome, we the Members of the House and Senate, to our staffs for a period of a week senior citizens from our communities. We have, in our office, participated in the program from its inception. We have found it to be a very worthy and a very excellent program, both for the participants from home, but also for our full-time staffs, because there is a mixing of ideas and a matching of goals that really energizes both sides.

This year, Miss Ethel Zimmerer and Miss Lucille Martin are my two senior citizen interns. So I take this moment to welcome them to Washington, but not just the two ladies, but also all of the men and women who will be taking part in this program, a very worthy one, and we who take part in it benefit from it. We become better lawmakers, and I think the people who then go back home become better aware of how their Government operates.

May is a great month of the year, and it is partly great because of the great people who come to visit us.

FAST TRACK WILL BENEFIT THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

(Mr. RICHARDSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, this week and next week we move into one of the more important debates in this Congress, and that is whether we have fast track or not. Weeks ago the debate was, Should there be free trade or protectionism. Should we have a free-trade agreement with Mexico?

Today the focus of the debate is different. It used to be a Republican versus Democrat vote. Now it is a bipartisan issue. There is strong support on this side of the aisle, including that of the majority leader, with some reservations that need to be addressed.

Fast track means that there will be prosperity for the United States and Mexico and, if we are going to deal with environmental protection, worker rights, we do it after approving fast track.

Mr. Speaker, the merits are clear. It is in the best interests of the United States and Mexico to move ahead with fast track.

S. 248, LEGISLATION TO DESIGNATE THE NIOBRARA RIVER AS SCENIC

(Mr. BARRETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BARRETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to let my colleagues know of my strong opposition to S. 248, a bill which would confer an immediate and an unprecedented Federal designation on a segment of the Niobrara River in my congressional district. S. 248 is scheduled for floor action this week.

This isn't a debate about whether to protect the river, but how to protect it. I'll offer an amendment to S. 248 which will bring it in line with current law. My amendment will allow for an in-depth study of the river before we designate it as a component of the Wild and Scenic Rivers System, something that has been done on every other river in the Federal system.

My constituents understandably want to know what they're getting into before Federal control is bulldozed over their concerns and their rights. S. 248 ignores and belittles the efforts of local people, who are currently working on a plan to protect the river at the local level.

Seventy-eight percent of Nebraskans polled statewide in June 1990—that's the most recent poll by more than a year—opposed Federal management of the river. In addition, nearly every local county commission, natural resource district, and city council is opposed to immediate designation.

Support fair play, current law, and Nebraska opinion by opposing S. 248 and supporting my amendment.

PRESIDENT OWES COUNTRY PROOF OR AN APOLOGY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. GEPHARDT. Mr. Speaker, imagine the scene: The President of the United States comes to a predominantly black college to deliver a commencement address. Only a week before, on another campus, he called on all Americans to reject the politics of intolerance. This was the President who, after all, said in his first address before the Congress: "I will work to knock down the barriers left by past discrimination, and to build a more tolerant society that will stop such barriers from ever being built again."

What better time to reaffirm those powerful promises; what better place to reaffirm his commitment to equal justice for us all; and what better person to send that message of unity and equality than the one man who is elected by all the people?

In spite of all that, President Bush let the graduates of Hampton University—and all of us—down yesterday when, without a shred of evidence, he accused opponents of his trade policy of engaging in racism.

The Congress is debating the issue of granting fast track, expedited authorization to the President for trade treaties, especially the proposed North American Free-Trade Agreement. I support the grant of such authority with qualifications. But I cannot condone the President's attack on those who differ.

Many labor unions have spoken out in opposition to fast track. I understand and share their concern over the loss of jobs, but I am convinced that the right treaty, if it is tough enough and strong enough, can create new jobs rather than export existing jobs.

Still, the men and women of the labor movement are loyal, patriotic Americans who are conducting this debate on a high ground.

And so I was distressed to read that the President of the United States had chosen his commencement address at predominantly black Hampton University to accuse the labor movement of—and I quote "resorting to slurs against our Mexican neighbors." When reporters asked for proof, none was offered.

This is not the first time George Bush has used the politics of racial resentment. Who can forget some of the tactics of the 1988 campaign? Or the veto of the 1990 Civil Rights Act? Or the Jesse Helms smear campaign that libeled the Civil Rights Act with the label of "quota bill"? Or, most recently, when the Bush administration scuttled attempts by business and civil rights leaders to reach a compromise on a new civil rights law. Clearly, George Bush would rather have another political issue to divide Americans than another antidiscrimination law for all Americans.

George Bush is attempting to exploit working people's fear of losing their jobs in order to justify pitting white working people against black working people. But who should really fear losing his job? While the President has presided over the economy, over a million Americans have lost their jobs. While the President well knows the life-saving power of modern medicine, over 30 million Americans have no health insurance. And now as we enter the 1992 campaign, the President who preaches racial harmony is practicing racial division.

At the least, the President, owes it to the country to either prove his charge or apologize for it. But what really matters are deeds, not words. The President should jump-start the civil rights compromise talks he undermined, and bring together civil rights groups, the business community, Congress, and the administration, to give us all a new birth of fairness. If the President means what he says when he decries discrimination and racism, he can bring us all together to produce legislation that fights discrimination and quotas.

ADJUSTMENT OF CLERK-HIRE ALLOWANCE AND OFFICIAL EXPENSES ALLOWANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. ROSE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, at the direction of the Committee on House Administration, and under the authority granted in Public Law 94-184 and Public Law 99-440, the committee has issued Committee Order No. 40. The committee is sending each Member a "Dear Colleague" letter describing the administration of this change.

I include at this point in the RECORD the text of Committee Order No. 40:

COMMITTEE ORDER NO. 40

Resolved, That effective May 8, 1991, until otherwise provided by the Committee on House Administration, the Clerk-Hire Allowance and the Official Expenses Allowance are adjusted as follows:

Each session a Member may allocate not to exceed $75,000 from the basic Clerk-Hire Allowance which may be used to supplement the Official Expenses Allowance, and may allocate not to exceed $75,000 from the Official Expenses Allowance to supplement the basic Clerk-Hire Allowance, provided however that monthly Clerk-Hire disbursements may not exceed 10 percent of the basic Clerk-Hire Allowance.

All disbursements and allocations shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Committee on House Administration.

FDIC RESOLUTION COSTS ON THE RISE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. ANNUNZIO] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. ANNUNZIO. Mr. Speaker, the FDIC, which insures roughly $2 trillion in bank accounts, has declined by almost two-thirds since 1987, and is likely to be insolvent by the end of this year. We have heard that the FDIC's nose-dive is the fault of the banking industry. However, statistics prove that the FDIC itself must take a considerable portion of the blame, too.

Over the last two decades, there has been a startling increase in the FDIC's resolution costs. In the decade of the 1970's, FDIC's average cost per failed bank was 7.9 percent of the failed bank's assets. That figure jumped to 15 percent for the first half of the 1980's, and to 26.2 percent for the second half of the decade.

If these numbers weren't bad enough, this rising trend jumped right off the charts in 1990. Last year, it cost the FDIC $8.5 billion to close banks with $16.3 billion in assets or an incredible 52.1 percent of failed bank assets. That's over 6.5 times more than the average cost figure of the 1970's.

These numbers, which indicate regulatory forbearance, trouble me deeply. FDIC needs to tell Congress why these figures are increasing so rapidly, and what it is planning to do to reverse this disturbing trend.

MY ADVICE TO THE PRIVILEGED ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. GONZALEZ] is recognized for 60 minutes.

Mr. GONZALEZ. Mr. Speaker, it has been since Biblical times that we read that where there is no vision a nation fails and, frankly, we have been a visionless nation for quite some time.

Either it is because we have not bothered to develop or, if we did, lost it, historical memory, or we have forgotten the hard beginnings of our country, and like an individual who forgets his hard beginnings and soon luxuriates in the relaxed environment of affluence and riches and privileges is soon not only uprooted from those hard beginnings and those stern basic practices and disciplines that gave rise to the greatness of either the individual or the collective of individuals known as a nation.

For years, ever since, and I never dreamed I would be in such a place as the U.S. House of Representatives or, for that matter, in politics at all, for I never planned, I never intended, I never ambitioned political office. That came long after I had gained adulthood and had come back, that is, after the war period, after 1945, and went to work for the Bexar County Juvenile Court and realized how ignorantly and how wrongly we had been brought up in that environment that we had been brought up in San Antonio, TX, and it was then that I decided we had an obligation, if we were going to be true-born Americans as we are, to get into the fray, participate in the mainstream of civic, social, political, economic life.

Given the structure of our processes, failing to do so would be like failing to participate in a life-and-death struggle.

It turned out I was one of the precursors, one of the first, one who broke through. But even the dim memories of the Depression period, not so dim in my mind, recall the endless hours of one of my aunts and my mother and my neighbor's mother and daughter getting up at 4 in the morning, and at 5 in the morning beginning to hem-stitch the infant dresses that they would obtain from a business down the street, on what we called North Flora Street, known as the Juvenile Manufacturing Co. Then on Thursday, I, accompanying my aunt who could not speak English, and walking to a window with a basket of these hemstitched infant dresses, and a man at the window picking them out and saying, "This is OK; well, not this one," and my aunt was able to come home with about 75 cents, or even 50 cents, for each garment was paid at the rate of 5 cents.

That sounds absurd today. Let me try to evoke that world. At that time a person could get a pint of milk for a nickel. A person could get two loaves of bread on sale for a nickel at the little bakery around the corner where we lived. A person could get a quart of milk for less than 10 cents. The newspaper—and I delivered it—was 2 cents. I would get paid a penny and the newspaper would have to be paid a penny. We delivered it at 2 cents a piece. The Sunday's newspaper was at one time 3 cents, then finally raised to 5 cents. So there is no way we can evoke that world today, in today's context, other than the fundamental forces, the fundamental causes, the fundamental reasons for that state of being were not any different from the fundamental forces operating and impinging on our country, both domestically as well as externally.

I remember when the union, the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union came to San Antonio. They threw up a picket line, and one of the things advocated was putting a stop to this homework. There was great dismay and distress among our relatives. They said, "Oh, my goodness, who are these terrible people that want to stop us from making this little money." But I did not share that. It is a strange thing. I was in school, but my thinking was very different. I wondered why these women would get up at 4, start at 5, take time out to clean the house, prepare the noon lunch, then keep on going until 11 p.m. sometimes at night, day after day. It did not make sense to me then, but I could not say why.

When I heard about the union I said, "I wonder what that is?" I soon found out. The San Antonio papers had stories about how the sheriff went out and arrested the pickets, and threw them in a truck. They were mostly women. In fact, almost 100 percent women, because the operators were seamstresses, or later known as machine operators. The sheriff would take them out to the edge of the city and just dump them out and let them walk back in. Then, lo and behold, the pecan shellers; we used to have pecan shelling plants on the west side of San Antonio which was then the ghetto of the Mexican-American. We had a different world even there in that community. We had a country in exile in a city, for in effect my own parents came over as refugees from a revolution that was then in Mexico, starting in 1910, went on for another 30 years because we had revolution, counter-revolution, and the like. In each one of these convulsions, thousands of people would flee the violation. The Mexican Revolution was the most bloody of all. There is none we can compare. Mexico had a population of much less than 15 million. Yet in the course of that violence, over a million people died, and another million and a half left Mexico. Most of those who would come to Texas were the poor because the cheapest avenue of transportation was a rail line through central Mexico to the Texas border. That is where the untutored and the poorest of the poor would flee. California attracted more or less the upper or the more affluent.

So what are the cumulative, and I say this by way of parentheses, what is the cumulative effect of all of this? Well, in 1950, the census showed that an average 14-year-old so-called Hispanic surnamed child, male, in Texas, had an average school grade reached of less than four grades. There were some counties in which the mean average was 1½ grades. That was 1950. By that time, we will say that was a 14-year-old in 1950, by 6 years later in 1956, was 20 years of age, and became the target of most of the retraining and reeducational projects that we were able during the Presidency of Lyndon Johnson to approve in the war against poverty.

Let me again say by way of parentheses, if there is any among my colleagues that thinks the Federal Government and projects do not work, please come see me. I will show the Members the statistics. In an 8-year period, given that part of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 in which I had a big hand, title 7, and promoted such things as the Work-Study Program, the Neighborhood Job Corps, and the other areas that were targeted to that component in San Antonio, over 74 percent of a Mexican-American or Spanish surnamed child was a dropout. We had at least no more than 16 to 17 percent graduate from high school. After 8 years of these programs, that was radically changed to 84 percent. Since the advent of the Reagan administration and the cutbacks in the student aid programs and the others, of course, most of these others have eliminated during the President Nixon administration. In my district alone there were between 2,300 and 2,600 students who could not even either go into the community college, did not have the means for that, or who dropped out.

Now, no nation can suffer that for long without some consequences. Those are the statistics if any of my colleagues wish to find out about whether or not these programs worked. They did in my district. I am proud to say that those that did not work, or seem to be falling into disarray because they were locally administered, I was the first to expose them and gain the great anger of some of the local politics.

The truth of the matter is that fundamental to all of this is the fact that in those eerie days of Depression in the 1930's came these two forces, Union and San Antonio, the harsh down-putting of the Union, the pecan shelters, for instance. You had these plants that had several hundred in each working shelling pecans. They were getting paid a penny-and-a-half per pound or at the most 2 cents per pound; so then comes into that cause a classmate of mine in high school, Emma Tenayuca. She was so called by the newspapers in San Antonio La Pasionaria, from that individual in the Spanish Revolution, a woman who had been in the Republican Government fighting off Francisco Franco's quasi-fascist, if not out-and-out Fascist forces that ultimately won, and then ended up fleeing into Russia, which further confirmed the accusations of those who said these are just a bunch of Communists.

Well, here was a girl who had grown up with me. Emma Tenayuca came from a very poor family. We met in high school. She was the champion debater. She could pin our ears back any time we opened our mouths, and soon she was involved in causes. Soon she was fighting the cause of the pecan shelters, and soon they were violently put down by the San Antonio Police Department, whose chief later became the sheriff just about the time and who then proceeded to take the garment workers and put them in trucks and take them out to the edge of the city, as I said, and repeat.

The truth of the matter is that were it not for the fact that Franklin Roosevelt then announced the NRA, the National Recovery Administration, and it set a goal of a minimum wage. The minimum wage was to be no less than 20 cents, but it was voluntary, and the Supreme Court ruled somehow or other that that legislation was not constitutional.

So then came the 1938 Fair Labor Standards Act and the minimum wage of 20 cents an hour. All of the manufacturers in San Antonio in these garment industries got together and sent telegrams this high to President Roosevelt and said, "Mr. President, if you force us and compel us to pay 20 cents an hour, in less than a year we will have to either fire half of our work force or shut the plant down. We can't pay it."

Remember, in the meanwhile, the unions were not even anywhere near reaching any kind of an agreement with anybody.

Well, the records do not show that President Roosevelt bothered to answer them. I suspect that what he did was take it to the water closet with him.

The truth of the matter is that 1 year later every one of those garment factories was not only producing more, they had hired more. They had not diminished the work force.

Then the same thing happened, except milder, when it went from 20 cents to 30 cents; that is, the minimum wage. There it stood for a while and finally in 1940 it reached the great amount of 65 cents an hour and that, of course, also prompted just like this last time, this last round we had in the last Congress, I had messages from all over, from fast food or junk food processors that said, "If you make us pay this little modicum more of minimum wage, we will have to fire people. We will have to close our business."

I did the same thing I did all along since I have been here.

Now, my predecessor—to show you the difference—was here about 21 years. He got elected in 1938 by defeating the famous Maury Maverick, Sr., one of my predecessor Congressman, on the Red issue, made him a Communist. Anyway, he—Maverick—lost.

My predecessor came up for 21 years, beginning in 1938 and the first minimum wage law. Every time an issue came up on the minimum wage, he voted against it. In my case, I am going on 30 years now, in the same district, and every time the minimum wage has come up, I have been for it—every time—without fail.

When I hear leaders and others in our country talking about how we must continue the processes that have in effect sold out American labor, placed American labor not only in competition, but totally out of competition with the cheapest underpaid human labor all over the world.

When I hear talk about free trade, the fast track, there is a lot of confusion. A lot of people think, judging by the letters I get, that if you are for free trade, it means that you can get into a free-trade agreement with certain designated countries. The one touted right now is the Republic of Mexico, but there is no free-trade agreement with Mexico.

In the letters I received, you would think that there is a fair-trade agreement with Mexico. There is no such thing.

The issue we will have before us is not a fair-trade agreement, but whether or not we will vote for the fast track continued authority of the President to exercise what is called in most euphemistic terms fast track, which to me means fast shuffle, arrangements, and once the President under this legislation reaches an agreement, the Congress has no say-so as to whether to modify it, because if it comes back, it can only be voted up or down, but you cannot amend it.

This is the issue in the so-called fast-track argument, not fair trade. There is no fair-trade agreement at all.

Sometimes I feel that the confusion is deliberately propelled by those who feel as they have in the past they have been benefited; but benefited how? At the cost of American labor.

In fact, I have heard Member after Member in the eighties, particularly in the middle-eighties, talk about President Reagan's prosperity and how so many as 3 million new jobs have been created.

What was not explained was, and the statistics are there, that those 3 million jobs were all in the service area, mostly McDonald's Big Mac, hamburger shops, fast food, junk food.

You have got to remember what I said awhile ago. Junk food establishments are going to pay junk wages, but at the same time this has been happening, we lost 3 million production jobs in the manufacturing and producing section of our country. We are no longer a producing Nation and have not been since 1985. Not only are we a debt-ridden Nation since 1985, and let me point out to my colleagues they are interconnected. They are not separate and not cause and effect. The two go together.

In the proportion that we went into these huge imbalances in what—foreign accounts, foreign trade, for each $10 billion we went in, we were losing over 300,000 jobs in American production and manufacturing a year.

So we have not only gotten to be the most indebted Nation in the world, we also have such an unfavorable trade balance that without the perception of the American people have the facts, it has been relatively easy to do what has been done imperceptively.

There have been a few voices. It was futile to speak about this 20, 24, 25, 18, 15, 12 years ago. But the facts are that when we talk about wanting to revive American trade, we cannot unless we produce. We are not a net importing nation and not an exporting or a net producing nation. Even in the area which kept our balance at least in the illusion that it was somewhat balanced, the agricultural producing area, we have not been able to get into this last round, the Uruguay round of GATT agreements, mostly because Europeans were still set by agreements to protect their own unproductive and backward farming, going back to the Marshall plan—as a matter of fact, we are the ones that installed that protective system when we helped Europe get to its feet. And because there was no vision in these Halls or over in the White House or in the private sector, if there was, it was soon succumbing to the overpowering greed that has dominated that area, that corporate greed, the advent of the multinationals, the transnationals. Maybe they were corporately based in the United States, but their money and their heart was somewhere else.

No reflection of what was happening in any debate in these Halls, but I remember looking around in vain. The only one I recall—may he last in glory—was a Congressman from Pennsylvania, John Dent. He was the one who would take special orders, and he was the one who would stand right here and say, "My area is going to be a rustbelt. We are losing the steel producing all of the heavy manufacturing ability, and it is going, and nobody seems to be much aware." He would take these special orders day after day. I would be the only one, sometimes, sitting here with him.

So now let us look at where we are. If we were to think in terms of what we call a domestic product, let us take the $20,000 Pontiac model, so-called domestic. Well, of those $20,000, $6,000 of that goes to South Korea for the processing of labor-intensive sections or portions or complements. About $3,500 of that $20,000 goes to Japan for highly developed or high-technology components. About $3,500 goes to all the way from Great Britain to Barbados for such things as advertising and such things as labor-intensive concomitant types of labor, robotics, on the new computerized communications systems, accounting and the like, which have moved from the United States to Barbados.

What you have left is about $8,000 of the original $20,000 that is supposed to come to Americans. But of that amount, the lion's share goes to law firms, accountants in Detroit, lobbyists in Washington. So what you have left is almost next to nothing for that horny handed laborer whose jobs have gone all the way from Canada, Mexico, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, you name it, as a result of the so-called Caribbean Basin Initiative, which is very similar to what we want to do here with this fair trade pact with Mexico, all of those other jobs have gone there. In fact, in my district, Levi Strauss, the great manufacturer of Levis, had a plant employing 2,000 people. It just pulled out, lock, stock, and barrel. Where did it go? To the Caribbean. Why? The Caribbean Basin Initiative.

Was it losing money? No. Two years ago, when it decided to go, 3 years ago or the year before, Levi Strauss reported the best ledger sheet they had in their history. They were making profits. The San Antonio operation was not losing anything, but remember the greedy.

It has always been sort of an unwritten saying about human nature that it seems to be the more a person has, the more he wants, and that is true. We see this, and I think it will soon be more apparent than it has already, with all of the scandals that we have heard about, the S&L's; wait until you get hit by the banking sector, which is now more than in the making. As a matter of fact, it is what some author called a witches' brew.

And it will take very much, it will task every one of us who sits on these committees.

I happen to be the chairman, mostly because I was reelected to reach the point to be chairman of this committee, though there were very powerful forces in the banking world who did not consider me the candidate of choice. In fact, even international bankers. One of the biggest banks in England, I had reported to me, its head said, "Who is this fellow? You know, he wasn't our choice. But they tell me he is as clean as a hound's tooth and that he isn't turning out to be that radical bombthrower everybody said he was."

Well, I do not know what they think now. We are in the process at this time, and if we can go through this bramble patch without serious harm, I would say that we are lucky because you have such powerful forces, just like in the case of the S&L's. Anytime you have $24 billion, $28 billion out there, you know you are going to have a lot of court fights, you know you are going to have a lot of politics, you are going to have a lot of campaign funding. And above all, you know that every effort will be made from within and without, and from the executive branch side, to have the way of the one that has the most muscle. There is a real interesting saying that comes from Mexico that the common folks always used to kind of point this out. They would say, "El que mas saliva tiene mas pinole traga."

Pinole is a meal made out of the pinol berry of the tree that is very abundant in northern Mexico. You can make a meal; you grind up the pinole and make a meal out of it, just like the Indians in the Southwest used to make a meal out of the walnut, the real hard walnut that grows in the Southwest. It is very dry, though; you cannot take but just a part of a teaspoonful without having your whole tongue just dry up.

So the saying literally says, "He who has the most saliva will be able to swallow the most pinole."

It is the same thing in real life.

The other saying is, "Don Dinero poderoso caballero."

"Sir Moneybags: A mighty powerful gentleman indeed."

Of course, that has been true all through history. That it why it is distilled in the people no matter what their background.

We have comparable sayings in English history. We have Wat Tyler saying during the Great Leveller Revolution that, "When Adam dealt an Eve span, who was then the gentle man?" That goes back to the 13th century. They had to put down those old common folks that were beginning to react to what they knew would be a real loss of basic Englishmen's rights and heritage.

So, all these sayings, as my colleagues know, come from the distilled experience, as they are today, if any of my colleagues bothers to really go out and move among the people. I do not mean among those that one can say are relatively well off. As my colleagues know, they do not have to worry at the end of the month. Their pay probably stretches enough to have a little bit left over.

However, Mr. Speaker, I will point out a statistic which should have been devastating to most of us. I brought it out here 3 years ago, that, as of 2½, 3 years ago, over 70 percent of the American families at the end of the month have no disposable income.

So, when I hear these great economists come up and say, "Well, we've got to encourage Americans to save," well, how can they save if in the meanwhile taxes are shifted from the richest shoulders, attempted to be shoved on that of the poorest, and now it is beginning to be seen in the middle, and particularly the lower middle? And that is where we are going to have the problem.

Mr. Speaker, we cannot continue the injustices, and, my colleagues, the Congress has been an integral part and instrumentality in all of this. We can blame it on a President, yes, because he signs that bill. But remember that vote is made here.

It was in 1981, the first act to transfer wealth in big chunks from the richest shoulders, the richest corporations everywhere. In fact, we are in the throes of that. What good did it do to say in 1981, in the summer when they were pushing the so-called Reagan administration tax recovery—recovery? Recovery through taxation? I say to my colleagues, "Can you imagine? Tax recovery and reform?"

What did it do? It drained $755 billion over 5 years from the U.S. Treasury in the way of revenue.

Mr. Speaker, we cannot do that without either one of two things happening—and I said all of this in 1981—without, one, either getting a monstrous deficit, as we have, or two, finding new tax donkeys to shift that burden on to. And this is where we are.

Ultimately, Mr. Speaker, I think this thing will get so bad that it will not be possible to cover it up much longer. The danger is that we may bring the world with us. But the fact is that the world outside, too, has its greedy elements. Do not ever let anybody here, Members of this body, ever think that we are in anything but competition, even today, and our illusory, illusory, military greatness will be of no avail.

I ask my colleagues, "What good will it be for a nation to say at this moment, 'We can roam the world at will with our military might?' We can bomb the devil out of anybody, including women, children, like 110,000-plus innocents in Iraq. They weren't taking part in the war. They weren't soldiers. They were women, grandfathers, grandmothers, that we obliterated in Iraq."

That was a great military victory? Shooting them down like ducks? Fleeing soldiers? Conscripts that did not want to fight anyway? Just cut them in pieces with helicopter cannons and the like? That is a great victory?

Mr. Speaker, maybe my definition of victory is different, but I would hardly call that a reason for national glee, and satisfaction, and joy and boastfulness. But what good does it do to have all of that if our currency in the meanwhile has been debauched, as it is being slowly, and not so slowly, and inexorably? The value of the dollar since 1985 has eroded almost 60 percent. The so-called Reagan prosperity was fueled by foreign money coming into this country like never in its history, buying into, directly and indirectly, or most vital of assets.

I have given my colleagues an idea of what one is doing in buying a, quote, unquote, domestic car. In effect they are sharing. How did that happen? Did anybody ever report that that way? Of course not. Why the idea was to create the image that one was doing something, that they had bought prosperity, that, like the imagemakers of today in America, that image can make up for substance.

Mr. Speaker, it cannot, it never has, and it never will, and when I see the American people in a way blamed or looked down upon, yes, of course, what else can the people do? Naturally, once the shooting starts, what do we want people to do but to be with those that have the burden of waging war?

I said this all during Vietnam. It was very, very heart-rending, for the Presidency had a man that in so many other ways I considered the greatest of all in education, in just plain human sympathy for suffering humans, and yet I could not understand the forceable conscription of unwilling Americans into a war that had not been declared by Congress, nor even authorized other than through appropriations requested by the President for specific things such as arms with which the men could defend themselves.

As I said then, I did not send the soldiers there, and neither could I get them out. I wish I could have. My district had the highest volume of voluntarism in the country. Still does, and so I have constituents that were fighting and dying. The first to fall was my district.

Nevertheless, there is basically a constitutional question. The American people do not want to face it, or they have forgotten what the Constitution looks like. Fine.

But what is that old saying? That the worst of slaves are corrupted free men and women. That is true. It still is. Always has been.

We have history, written history—not preancient, prewritten, and ancient history. Written history. We have all the Roman histories. Even the Greeks did not have Caesars, but they did have a very different social system, and their historians record the wars and the fruitlessness of war.

Mr. Speaker, the most unlearned lesson of mankind is that force and violence never settles anything or accomplishes anything.

I will point to those that are celebrating with great jubilation, so-called triumph, in the sands over there. How many troops are still there? I ask, "Shouldn't we be celebrating on their return? Where are they? How come they are still over there? How much longer will they stay? What's going to happen? Is the war over with?" Of course not. This is just the beginning.

Mr. Speaker, we have gotten into something and started something that has a long way to go. But we must come back to basics, just like in this case: Free trade. Free for whom? What does it mean? Are we going to be given a chance to at least ask questions, and debate, and ask for amendments which we always felt were an integral part of the legislative process? What is not the way we are being asked to perform now on the so-called fast-track process and the extension thereof.

Mr. Speaker, it is the same thing in every other line. I have been on the Banking Committee since I came to the Congress 30 years ago. I cannot begin to describe to my colleagues the anguish I felt as I saw problems developing. I do not anguish now as much as I did all during the years when it was obvious as to what was happening.

Nobody cared, in or out of committee. Nobody would ask the questions, and when one asked a question, it was like the messenger bringing bad news—"Off with his head." Everything was done to humiliate me, to debase me, to make me look like a "dumb Mexican" as one of them said.

But that was done, and I took it. Why? Well, there is an old Chinese saying—yangfeng, yin we. That means compliance outwardly, resistance inwardly.

This is the way so much of the world feels today. If we want to shout with joy about our recent military venture, let us not forget that in Panama we dare not move out any of our 15,000 troops still there. How many of my colleagues and fellow Americans know we have that many there? Did we not have the same thing we see now? We saw pictures of heavy contingents supposedly coming back from Panama. But it was not so. Why? Because we ventured into an area against international law, against our own treaties that we ourselves had in some cases initiated.

Mr. Speaker, might makes right, but he who lives by the sword dies by the sword.

SEC. 304. UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE RIGHT TO FOOD.

It is the sense of the Congress that a major effort should be made to strengthen the right to food in international law. Toward that end, the Secretary of State, through the United States Representative to the United Nations, should propose to the United Nations General Assembly that a Declaration and a Convention on the Right to Food be adopted and submitted to the countries of the world for ratification. In the drafting of such a convention, strong consideration should be given to the inclusion of the following elements:

(1) The obligations of each country's government to ensure the realization of the right to food by the people of that country.

(2) The obligations of the international community to ensure the realization of the right to food by the people of all countries, including the provision to both emergency and nonemergency assistance to ensure the realization of this right.

(3) The obligations of individual governments, and of armed opposition groups, to ensure the realization of the right to food during times of war, other international armed conflict, or armed conflict not of an international character, to which they are a party.

(4) Sanctions against any government or armed opposition group which fails to take adequate steps to ensure the realization of the right to food by the people of the country.

SEC. 304. REFORMING THE UNITED NATIONS RESPONSE TO INTERNATIONAL DISASTERS.

It is the sense of the Congress that a major effort should be made to reform and restructure the United Nations mechanism for responding to international disasters and other humanitarian emergencies. Toward that end, the Secretary of State, through the United States Representative to the United Nations, shall evaluate the role of the United Nations Disaster Relief Organization (UNDRO) and shall develop a proposal for strengthening the United Nations response to such emergencies. In formulating such proposal, the Secretary of State and the United States Representative to the United Nations shall give strong consideration to proposals that have been made for strengthening the United Nations responsiveness to disasters, including the following:

(1) The appointment by the Secretary General of a senior representative to be responsible for humanitarian affairs (including disaster response), whose office would be vested with sufficient authority, support, and resources to develop new procedures and coordination mechanisms to become the United Nations lead agency in international disaster relief matters.

(2) Creation of a standing interagency group, consisting of all United Nations agencies involved in disaster assistance, with a secretariat based in the office referred to in paragraph (1).

Is this an Amendment?

YES NO

IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

NOTE on ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee", state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer".
(ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer", write "None" in answer to Item "B".
(b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report.
(i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
(ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names of agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

CHECK IF ADDRESS IS DIFFERENT THAN PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

NOTE on ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER —State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE on ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

- 1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.
2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.
3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) description, (b) quantity distributed, (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed.)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and, if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out items "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly Report."

Is this an Amendment?
 YES NO

NOTE on ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee", state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer". (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employee".)
 - (ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer", write "None" in answer to Item "B".
- (b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
- (i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
 - (ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names of agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

CHECK IF ADDRESS IS DIFFERENT THAN PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

NOTE on ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE on ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.

2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.

3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) description, (b) quantity distributed, (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed.)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and, if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out items "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report."

STATEMENT OF VERIFICATION

[Omitted in printing]

NOTE on ITEM "D."—(a) IN GENERAL. The term "contribution" includes anything of value. When an organization or individual uses printed or duplicated matter in a campaign attempting to influence legislation, money received by such organization or individual—for such printed or duplicated matter—is a "contribution." "The term 'contribution' includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution"—§ 302(a) of the Lobbying Act.

(b) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN EMPLOYER.—(i) In general. Item "D" is designed for the reporting of all receipts from which expenditures are made, or will be made, in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Receipts of Business Firms and Individuals.—A business firm (or individual) which is subject to the Lobbying Act by reason of expenditures which it makes in attempting to influence legislation—but which has no funds to expend except those which are available in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, even though it does have expenditures to report.

(iii) Receipts of Multi-purpose Organizations.—Some organizations do not receive any funds which are to be expended solely for the purpose of attempting to influence legislation. Such organizations make such expenditures out of a general fund raised by dues, assessments, or other contributions. The percentage of the general fund which is used for such expenditures indicates the percentage of dues, assessments, or other contributions which may be considered to have been paid for that purpose. Therefore, in reporting receipts, such organizations may specify what that percentage is, and report their dues, assessments, and other contributions on that basis. However, each contributor of $500 or more is to be listed, regardless of whether the contribution was made solely for legislative purposes.

(c) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN AGENT OR EMPLOYEE.—(i) In general. In the case of many employees, all receipts will come under Items "D 5" (received for services) and "D 12" (expense money and reimbursements). In the absence of a clear statement to the contrary, it will be presumed that your employer is to reimburse you for all expenditures which you make in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Employer as Contributor of $500 or More.—When your contribution from your employer (in the form of salary, fee, etc.) amounts to $500 or more, it is not necessary to report such contribution under "D 13" and "D 14," since the amount has already been reported under "D 5," and the name of the "employer" has been given under Item "B" on page 1 of this report.

QUARTERLY REPORTS*

*All alphanumeric characters and monetary amounts refer to receipts and expenditures on page 2, paragraphs D and E of the Quarterly Report Form.

The following reports for the fourth calendar quarter of 1990 were received too late to be included in the published reports for that quarter:

(NOTE.—The form used for report is reproduced below. In the interest of economy in the RECORD, questions are not repeated, only the essential answers are printed, and are indicated by their respective headings. This page (Page 1) is designed to supply identifying data, and Page 2 deals with financial data.)

PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

Table with columns: P, QUARTER (1st, 2d, 3d, 4th). (Mark one square only)

IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Is this an Amendment?
[] YES [] NO

NOTE on ITEM "A".—(a) IN GENERAL. This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

- (i) "Employee".—To file as an "employee", state (in Item "B") the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer".
(ii) "Employer".—To file as an "employer", write "None" in answer to Item "B".
(b) SEPARATE REPORTS. An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report:
(i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.
(ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING:

1. State name, address, and nature of business.

[] CHECK IF ADDRESS IS DIFFERENT THAN PREVIOUSLY REPORTED

2. If this Report is for an Employer, list names of agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

NOTE on ITEM "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers, except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER —State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

NOTE on ITEM "C".—(a) The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House"—§ 302(e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:

- 1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.
2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and bills.
3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) description, (b) quantity distributed, (c) date of distribution, (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

(Answer items 1, 2, and 3 in the space below. Attach additional pages if more space is needed.)

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and, if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this item "C4" and fill out items "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly Report."

STATEMENT OF VERIFICATION

[Omitted in printing]

NOTE on ITEM "D."—(a) IN GENERAL. The term "contribution" includes anything of value. When an organization or individual uses printed or duplicated matter in a campaign attempting to influence legislation, money received by such organization or individual—for such printed or duplicated matter—is a "contribution." "The term 'contribution' includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution"—§302(a) of the Lobbying Act.

(b) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN EMPLOYER.—(i) In general. Item "D" is designed for the reporting of all receipts from which expenditures are made, or will be made, in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Receipts of Business Firms and Individuals.—A business firm (or individual) which is subject to the Lobbying Act by reason of expenditures which it makes in attempting to influence legislation—but which has no funds to expend except those which are available in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, even though it does have expenditures to report.

(iii) Receipts of Multi-purpose Organizations.—Some organizations do not receive any funds which are to be expended solely for the purpose of attempting to influence legislation. Such organizations make such expenditures out of a general fund raised by dues, assessments, or other contributions. The percentage of the general fund which is used for such expenditures indicates the percentage of dues, assessments, or other contributions which may be considered to have been paid for that purpose. Therefore, in reporting receipts, such organizations may specify what that percentage is, and report their dues, assessments, and other contributions on that basis. However, each contributor of $500 or more is to be listed, regardless of whether the contribution was made solely for legislative purposes.

(c) IF THIS REPORT IS FOR AN AGENT OR EMPLOYEE.—(i) In general. In the case of many employees, all receipts will come under Items "D 5" (received for services) and "D 12" (expense money and reimbursements). In the absence of a clear statement to the contrary, it will be presumed that your employer is to reimburse you for all expenditures which you make in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Employer as Contributor of $500 or More.—When your contribution from your employer (in the form of salary, fee, etc.) amounts to $500 or more, it is not necessary to report such contribution under "D 13" and "D 14," since the amount has already been reported under "D 5," and the name of the "employer" has been given under Item "B" on page 1 of this report.
