In any case in which various terms and conditions are available, the terms and conditions shall be capable of successful implementation and shall be consistent with the objective of the applicant to the greatest extent possible.

“(4)(A) If the holder of a permit issued under this subsection for other than scientific purposes is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the permit, and any conservation plan or agreement incorporated by reference therein, the Secretary may not require the holder, without the consent of the holder, to adopt any new minimization, mitigation, or other measure with respect to any species adequately covered by the permit during the term of the permit, except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C) to meet circumstances that have changed subsequent to the issuance of the permit.

“(2) A written description of a proposed use is deemed to be sufficient for consideration by the Secretary under paragraph (1) if the description includes—

“(A) the nature, the specific location, the lawfulness under State and local law, and the anticipated schedule and duration of the proposed use, and a demonstration that the property owner has the means to undertake the proposed use; and

“(B) any anticipated adverse impact to a species that is included on a list published under 4(c)(1) that the requestor reasonably expects to occur as a result of the proposed use.

“(3) The Secretary may request and the requestor may supply any other information that either believes will assist the Secretary to make a determination under paragraph (1).

“(4) If the Secretary does not make a determination pursuant to a request under this subsection because of the omission from the request of any information described in paragraph (2), the requestor may submit a subsequent request under this subsection for the same proposed use.

“(5)(A) Subject to subparagraph (B), the Secretary shall provide to the requestor a written determination of whether the proposed use, as proposed by the requestor, will comply with section 9(a), by not later than expiration of the 180-day period beginning on the date of the submission of the request.

“(A) in the case of a written determination provided under paragraph (5)(A), for the 10-year period beginning on the date the written determination is provided; or

“(B) in the case of a determination that under paragraph (6) the Secretary is deemed to have made, the 5-year period beginning on the first date the Secretary is deemed to have made the determination.

“(10) The Secretary may withdraw a determination of compliance under this section only if the Secretary determines that, because of unforeseen changed circumstances, the continuation of the use to which the determination applies would preclude conservation measures essential to the survival of any endangered species or threatened species. Such a withdrawal shall take effect 5 days after the date the requestor receives from the Secretary, by certified mail, notice of the withdrawal.

“(11) The Secretary may extend the period that applies under paragraph (5) by up to 180 days if seasonal or biological considerations make a determination impossible within the period that would otherwise apply.”.

SEC. 13. PRIVATE PROPERTY CONSERVATION.

Section 13 (consisting of amendments to other laws, which have executed) is amended to read as follows:

“PRIVATE PROPERTY CONSERVATION

“SEC. 13. (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may provide conservation grants (in this section referred to as ‘grants’) to promote the voluntary conservation of endangered species and threatened species by owners of private property and shall provide financial conservation aid (in this section referred to as ‘aid’) to alleviate the burden of conservation measures imposed upon private property owners by this Act. The Secretary may provide technical assistance when requested to enhance the conservation effects of grants or aid.

“(b) AWARDED OF GRANTS AND AID.—Grants to promote conservation of endangered species and threatened species on private property—

“(1) may not be used to fund litigation, general education, general outreach, lobbying, or solicitation;

“(2) may not be used to acquire leases or easements of more than 50 years duration or fee title to private property;

“(3) must be designed to directly contribute to the conservation of an endangered species or threatened species by increasing the species’ numbers or distribution; and

“(4) must be supported by any private property owners on whose property any grant funded activities are carried out.

“(c) PRIORITY.—Priority shall be accorded among grant requests in the following order:

“(1) Grants that promote conservation of endangered species or threatened species on private property while making economically beneficial and productive use of the private property on which the conservation activities are conducted.

“(2) Grants that develop, promote, or use techniques to increase the distribution or population of an endangered species or threatened species on private property.

“(3) Other grants that promote voluntary conservation of endangered species or threatened species on private property.

“(d) ELIGIBILITY FOR AID.—(1) The Secretary shall award aid to private property owners who—

“(A) received a written determination under section 10(k) finding that the proposed use of private property would not comply with section 9(a); or “(B) receive notice under section 10(k)(10) that a written determination has been withdrawn.

“(2) Aid shall be in an amount no less than the fair market value of the use that was proposed by the property owner if—

“(A) the owner has foregone the proposed use;

“(B) the owner has requested financial aid—

“(i) within 180 days of the Secretary’s issuance of a written determination that the proposed use would not comply with section 9(a); or

“(ii) within 180 days after the property owner is notified of a withdrawal under section 10(k)(10); and

“(C) the foregone use would be lawful under State and local law and the property owner has demonstrated that the property owner has the means to undertake the proposed use.

“(e) DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS AND AID.—(1) The Secretary shall pay eligible aid—

“(A) within 270 days after receipt of a request for aid unless there are unresolved questions regarding the fair market value; or

“(B) at the resolution of any questions concerning the fair market value established under subsection (g).

“(2) All grants provided under this section shall be paid on the last day of the fiscal year. Aid shall be paid based on the date of the initial request.

“(f) DOCUMENTATION OF THE FOREGONE USE.—Within 30 days of the request for aid, the Secretary shall enter into negotiations with the property owner regarding the documentation of the foregone proposed use through such mechanisms that would benefit the species such as contract terms, lease terms, deed restrictions, easement terms, or transfer of title. If the Secretary and the property owner are unable to reach an agreement, then, within 60 days of the request for aid, the Secretary shall determine how the property owner’s foregone use shall be documented to benefit the species with the least impact on the ownership interests of the property owner necessary to document the foregone use, which shall not include transfer of title.

“(g) FAIR MARKET VALUE.—For purposes of this section, the fair market value of the foregone use of the affected portion of the private property, including business losses, is what a willing buyer would pay to a willing seller in an open market. Fair market value shall take into account the likelihood that the foregone use would be approved under State and local law. The fair market value shall be determined within 180 days of the documentation of the foregone use. The fair market value shall be determined jointly by 2 licensed independent appraisers, one selected by the Secretary and one selected by the property owner. If the 2 appraisers fail to agree on fair market value, the Secretary and the property owner shall jointly select a third licensed appraiser whose appraisal within an additional 90 days shall be the best and final offer by the Secretary. Within one year after the date of enactment of the Threatened and Endangered Species Recovery Act of 2005, the Secretary shall promulgate regulations regarding selection of the jointly selected appraisers under this subsection.

“(h) LIMITATION ON AID AVAILABILITY.—Any person receiving aid under this section may not receive additional aid under this section for essentially the same foregone use of the same property and for the same period of time.

“(i) ANNUAL REPORTING.—The Secretary shall by January 15 of each year provide a report of all aid and grants awarded under this section to the Committee on Resources of the House of Representatives and the Environment and Public Works Committee of the Senate and make such report electronically available to the general public on the website required under section 14.”.

Whereas 1,400 college students between the ages of 18 and 24 die each year from alcohol-related unintentional injuries, including motor vehicle crashes;

Whereas each year there is approximately $2.8 million worth of property damage from fires on-campus;

Whereas Security On Campus, Inc., a national group dedicated to promoting safety and security on college and university campuses, has designated September as National Campus Safety Awareness Month; and

Whereas the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN), the first national patient advocacy organization serving the pancreatic cancer community, focuses its efforts on public policy, research funding, patient services, and public awareness and education related to developing effective treatments and a cure for pancreatic cancer; and

¶105.16 AFRICAN-AMERICAN BASKETBALL TEAMS

Mr. DUNCAN moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 59):

Whereas, even though African-Americans were excluded from playing in organized white-only leagues, the desire of African-Americans to play basketball could not be repressed;

Whereas, unlike baseball, which had Negro leagues, basketball had no organized black leagues, thus forcing blacks to take to the road out of necessity;

Whereas among the most well-known black barnstorming teams who found their beginnings in the 1920s were the New York Renaissance (or Rens), the Harlem Globetrotters, the New York Enforcers, the Harlem Clowns, the Harlem Road Kings, the Harlem Stars, the Harlem Ambassadors, and the Philadelphia Tribunes;

Whereas, despite the racism they faced, Negro basketball teams overcame great obstacles to play the game before black players were allowed to play in the National Basketball Association in the early 1950s;

Whereas the New York Rens became one of the first great basketball dynasties in the history of the game, compiling a 2,588-539 record in its 27-year existence, winning 88 straight games in the 1932-33 season, and winning the 1939 World Professional Championship;

Whereas the Harlem Globetrotters proved that they were capable of beating professional teams like the World Champions Minneapolis Lakers led by basketball great George Mikan in 1948;

Whereas the barnstorming African-American basketball teams included exceptionally talented players and shaped modern-day basketball by introducing a new style of play predicated on speed, short crisp passing techniques, and vigorous defensive play;

Whereas among the pioneers who played on black barnstorming teams included players such as Tarzan Cooper, Pop Gates, John Isaacs, Willie Smith, Sweetwater Clifton, Ermer Robinson, Bob Douglas, Pappy Ricks, Runt Pullins, Goose Tatum, Marques Haynes, Bobby Hall, Babe Pressley, Bernie Price, Ted Strong, Inman Jackson, Duke Cumberland, Fat Jenkins, Eddie Younger, Lou Badger, Zachary Clayton, Jim Usry, Sonny Boswell, and Pugy Bell;

Whereas the struggles of these players and others paved the way for current African American professional players, who are playing in the National Basketball Association today;

Whereas the style of black basketball was more conducive to a wide open, fast-paced spectator sport;

Whereas, by achieving success on the basketball court, African-American basketball players helped break down the color barrier and integrate African-Americans into all aspects of society in the United States;

Whereas, during the era of sexism and gender barriers, barnstorming African-American basketball was not limited to men's teams, but included women's teams as well, such as the Chicago Romas and the Philadelphia Tribunes;

Whereas only in recent years has the history of African-Americans in team sports begun receiving the recognition it deserves;

Whereas basketball is a uniquely modern and uniquely American sport;

Whereas the Black Legends of Professional Basketball Foundation, founded by former Harlem Globetrotter Dr. John Kline, of Detroit, Michigan, honors and highlights the significant contributions of these pioneers and their impact on professional basketball today; and

Whereas the hard work and efforts of the foundation have been instrumental in bringing African-American inductees into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts: Now therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That—

(1) Congress recognizes the teams and players of the barnstorming African-American basketball teams for their achievement, dedication, sacrifices, and contribution to basketball and to the Nation prior to the integration of the white professional leagues;

(2) current National Basketball Association players should pay a debt of gratitude to those great pioneers of the game of basketball and recognize them at every possible opportunity; and

(3) a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Black Legends of Professional Basketball Foundation, which has recognized and commemorated the achievements of African-American basketball teams, the National Basketball Association, and the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Whereas, during World War II, Simon Wiesenthal worked with the Polish underground and was interned in 12 different concentration camps until his liberation by the United States Army in 1945 from the Mauthausen camp;

Whereas, after the war, Simon Wiesenthal worked for the War Crimes Section of the United States Army gathering documentation to be used in prosecuting the Nuremberg trials;

Whereas Simon Wiesenthal's investigative work and expansive research was instrumental in the capture and conviction of more than 1,000 Nazi war criminals, including Adolf Eichmann, the architect of the Nazi plan to annihilate European Jewry, and Karl Silberbauer, the Gestapo officer responsible for the arrest and deportation of Anne Frank;

Whereas numerous honors and awards were bestowed upon Simon Wiesenthal, including the Congressional Gold Medal, honorary British Knighthood, the Dutch Freedom Medal, the French Legion of Honor, the World Tolerance Award, and the Jerusalem Medal;

Whereas the Simon Wiesenthal Center was founded in 1977 in Los Angeles and named in honor of Simon Wiesenthal to promote awareness of anti-Semitism, monitor neo-Nazi and other extremist groups, and help bring surviving Nazi war criminals to justice;

Whereas, in 1978, inspired in part by the work of Simon Wiesenthal, the Congress enacted a law to deny citizenship and Federal benefits to former Nazis, and the Office of Special Investigations of the Department of Justice has since conducted more than 1,500 investigations, won 101 cases, and blocked the immigration of 170 individuals, and the work of the Office continues;

Whereas, in keeping with the efforts of Simon Wiesenthal, many governments have responded to the growing tide of anti-Semitism worldwide, elected leaders have spoken out against anti-Semitism, and law enforcement officials and prosecutors have aggressively pursued the perpetrators of anti-Semitic acts; and

Whereas Simon Wiesenthal's legacy teaches that the perpetrators of genocide cannot and will not be allowed to hide from their crimes: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress—

(1) honors the life and work of Simon Wiesenthal to memorialize the victims of the Holocaust and to bring the perpetrators of crimes against humanity to justice;

(2) reaffirms its commitment to the fight against anti-Semitism and intolerance in all forms, in all forums, and in all nations; and

(3) urges all members of the international community to facilitate the investigation and prosecution of surviving Nazi war criminals and to continue documenting and collecting information on Nazi war crimes for archival and historical purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMMONS, recognized Mr. SMITH of New Jersey and Mr. LANTOS, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMMONS, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

Mr. LANTOS demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMMONS, pursuant to clause 8, rule XX, announced that further proceedings on the question were postponed, until Friday, October 7, 2005.

¶105.23 CENTERS FOR MEDICAID AND MEDICARE SERVICES

Mr. DEAL of Georgia moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 261); as amended:

Whereas chemotherapy for cancer patients is primarily furnished in physician offices and is therefore subject to the revised method for determining payment amounts;

Whereas in 2005 the Medicare program instituted a demonstration project to assess the quality of care for patients undergoing chemotherapy by collecting data on the impact of chemotherapy on cancer patients' quality of life;

Whereas the demonstration project is a strong effort to improve the quality of cancer treatment by assessing pain, nausea and vomiting, and fatigue;

Whereas the demonstration project reflects a foundation to evaluate important patient services moving forward;

Whereas payment amounts under the demonstration project have mitigated the significant reductions in Medicare support for chemotherapy services that would otherwise have gone into effect;

Whereas reports by the Department of Health and Human Services and the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission regarding any adverse effects from the changes in the reimbursement method for chemotherapy services are not due until late 2005 and January 1, 2006;

Whereas the demonstration project achieves the concurrent objectives of collecting data to improve the quality of cancer care and maintaining financial support for cancer chemotherapy pending the completion and review of studies on the recent reimbursement changes;

Whereas it may be possible to modify the demonstration project to collect additional or different data elements that would make it even more useful in enhancing the quality of cancer care; and

Whereas it is essential that the access of Medicare cancer patients to chemotherapy treatment be maintained and in the strong interest of patients that the quality of their care be assessed and improved: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the House of Representatives that—

(1) the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services should extend through 2006 the Medicare demonstration project to assess the quality of care for patients undergoing chemotherapy, and then thoroughly review the merits of the demonstration project;

(2) the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services should use the results of this demonstration project to develop a system to pay for chemotherapy services under Medicare based on the quality of care delivered and the resources used to deliver that care, including physician performance;

(3) the demonstration project should be modified to accumulate even more useful data relating to the quality of care furnished to Medicare patients with cancer, such as the clinical context in which chemotherapy is administered, and patient outcomes; and

(4) payments to physicians for participation in the demonstration project should facilitate continued access of Medicare patients with cancer to chemotherapy treatments of the highest quality.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMPSON, recognized Mr. DEAL of Georgia and Mr. BROWN of Ohio, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMPSON, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

By unanimous consent, the title was amended so as to read: "A resolution expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services should be commended for implementing the Medicare demonstration project to assess the quality of care of cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy, and should extend the project through 2006, subject to any appropriate modifications."

A motion to reconsider the votes whereby the rules were suspended and said resolution, as amended, was agreed to and the title was amended was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) No new refinery has been constructed in the United States since 1976. There are 148 operating refineries in the United States, down from 324 in 1981. Refined petroleum product imports are currently projected to grow from 7.9 percent to 10.7 percent of total refined product by 2025 to satisfy increasing demand.

(2) While the number of American refineries in operation has reduced over the last 20 years, much of the resulting lost capacity has been replaced by gains from more efficient refineries.

(3) Hurricanes Katrina and Rita substantially disrupted petroleum production, refining, and pipeline systems in the Gulf Coast region, affecting energy prices and supply nationwide. In the immediate aftermath of Katrina alone, United States refining capacity was reduced by more than 2,000,000 barrels per day. However, before Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, United States refining capacity was already significantly strained by increased levels of production, with industry average utilization rates of 95 percent of capacity or higher.

(4) It serves the national interest to increase refinery capacity for gasoline, heating oil, diesel fuel, and jet fuel wherever located within the United States, to bring more reliable and economic supply to the American people.

(5) According to economic analysis, households are conservatively estimated to spend an average of $1,948 this year on gasoline, up 45 percent from 3 years ago, and households with incomes under $15,000 (1/3 of all households) this year will spend, on average, more than 1/10 of their income just on gasoline.

(6) According to economic analysis, rural American households will spend $2,087 on gasoline this year. Rural Americans are paying an estimated 22 percent more for gasoline than their urban counterparts because they must drive longer distances.

(7) A growing reliance on foreign sources of refined petroleum products impairs our national security interests and global competitiveness.

(8) Refiners are subject to significant environmental and other regulations and face several new Clean Air Act requirements over the next decade. New Clean Air Act requirements will benefit the environment but will also require substantial capital investment and additional government permits. These new requirements increase business uncertainty and dissuade investment in new refinery capacity.

(9) There is currently a lack of coordination in permitting requirements and other regulations affecting refineries at the Federal, State, and local levels. There is no consistent national permitting program for refineries, compared with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's lead agency role over interstate natural gas pipelines, liquefied natural gas, and hydroelectric power and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's role over nuclear plant licensing. More regulatory certainty and coordination is needed for refinery owners to stimulate investment in increased refinery capacity.

A site shall not be leased under this paragraph except for the purpose of construction of a refinery.

(2) SPECIAL RULES FOR CLOSED MILITARY INSTALLATIONS.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a closed military installation. The management and disposal of real property at a closed military installation, even a closed military installation or portion thereof found to be suitable for the siting of a refinery under subsection (b)(3), shall be carried out in the manner provided by the base closure law applicable to the installation.

(d) APPLICABILITY.—Section 102 shall only apply to a refinery sited or proposed to be sited or expanded or proposed to be expanded—

(1) in a State whose governor has requested applicability of such section pursuant to subsection (a);

(2) on a site (other than a closed military installation or portion thereof) designated by the President under subsection (b);

The Secretary may enter into contracts under this section with respect to new refineries or refurbished refineries that add a total of no more than 2,000,000 barrels per day of refining capacity to the refining capacity of the United States as in existence on the date of enactment of this Act.

(2) CONDITIONS.—Except as provided in paragraphs (4) and (5), under a contract authorized under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall pay to the non-Federal entity the costs specified in paragraph (3), using funds deposited in the Standby Refinery Support Account established under subsection (c), if—

(A) the non-Federal entity has substantially completed construction of the new refinery or the refurbished refinery and the initial commercial operation of the new refinery or of the refurbished refinery is delayed because of—

(i) litigation that could not have been reasonably foreseen by the non-Federal entity at the time the non-Federal entity entered into the firm contract to construct; or

(ii) a failure of an agency of the Federal Government or of a State government to grant an authorization within a period specified in the contract authorized by this section; or

(B) the throughput level of commercial operation of the new or refurbished refinery is substantially reduced due to—

(i) State or Federal law or regulations enacted or implemented after the firm contract was entered into; or

(ii) litigation, that could not have been reasonably foreseen by the non-Federal entity, disputing actions taken by the non-Federal entity to conform with and satisfy Federal law or regulations enacted or implemented after the firm contract was entered into.

(3) COVERED COSTS.—Under a contract authorized under this section, the Secretary shall pay—

(A) in the case of a delay described in paragraph (2)(A), all costs of the delay in the initial commercial operation of a new refining or a refurbished refinery, including the principal or interest due on any debt obligation of the new refinery or of the refurbished refinery during the delay, and any consequential damages; and

(B) in the case of a substantial reduction described in paragraph (2)(B), all costs necessary to offset the costs of the reduced throughput and the costs of complying with the new State or Federal law or regulations.

(4) COSTS NOT COVERED.—The Secretary shall not enter into a contract under this section that would obligate the Secretary to pay any costs resulting from—

(A) except as provided in paragraph (3)(B), a failure of the non-Federal entity to take any action required by law or regulation; or

(B) events within the control of the non-Federal entity.

(5) DEPOSIT.—The Secretary shall not enter into a contract authorized under this section until the Secretary has deposited into the Standby Refinery Support Account amounts sufficient to cover the costs specified in paragraph (3).

(c) STANDBY REFINERY SUPPORT ACCOUNT.—There is established in the Treasury an account known as the Standby Refinery Support Account. The Secretary shall deposit into this account amounts appropriated, in advance of entering into a contract authorized by this section, to the Secretary for the purpose of carrying out this section and payments paid to the Secretary by any non-Federal source for the purpose of carrying out this section. The Secretary may receive and accept payments from any non-Federal source, which shall be made available without further appropriation for the payment of the covered costs.

(d) REGULATIONS.—The Secretary may issue regulations necessary or appropriate to carry out this section.

(e) REPORTS.—The Secretary shall file with Congress annually a report of the Secretary's activities under this section and the activities of the non-Federal entity under any contract entered into under this section.

(f) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary such sums as are necessary to carry out this section.

(g) APPLICABILITY.—This section shall only apply to refineries sited or proposed to be sited—

(1) in a State whose governor has requested applicability of this section pursuant to section 101(a)(1); or

(2) on a site designated by the President under section 101(b).

SEC. 105. MILITARY USE REFINERY.

(a) AUTHORIZATION.—If the President determines that there is not sufficient refining capacity in the United States, the President may authorize the design and construction of a refinery that will be—

(1) located at a site—

(A) designated by the President under section 101(b), other than a closed military installation or portion thereof; or

(B) on a closed military installation, or portion thereof, made available for the siting of a refinery in the manner provided by the base closure law applicable to the installation;

(2) disposed of in the manner provided in paragraph (1) of section 101(c) or, in the case of a closed military installation, or portion thereof, paragraph (2) of such section; and

(3) reserved for the exclusive purpose of manufacturing petroleum products for consumption by the Armed Forces.

(b) SOLICITATION FOR DESIGN, CONSTRUCTION, AND OPERATION.—The President shall solicit proposals for the design, construction, and operation of a refinery “(or any combination thereof)” under this section. In selecting a proposal or proposals under this subsection, the President shall consider—

(1) the ability of the applicant to undertake and complete the project;

(2) the extent to which the applicant’s proposal serves the purposes of the project; and

(3) the ability of the applicant to best satisfy the criteria set forth in subsection (c).

(c) REFINERY CRITERIA.—A refinery constructed under this section shall meet or exceed the industry average for—

(1) construction efficiencies; and

(2) operational efficiencies, including cost efficiencies.

(d) USE OF PRODUCTS.—All petroleum products manufactured at a refinery constructed under this section shall be sold to the Federal Government at a price not to exceed the fair market value of the petroleum products,” for use by the Armed Forces of the United States.

(e) FUNDING.—A contract for the design or construction of a refinery may not be entered into under this section in advance of the appropriation of funds sufficient for such purpose. Funds appropriated for the Department or Defense or for Department of Energy national security programs may not be used to enter into contracts under this section for the design, construction, or operation of a refinery. Funds appropriated for the Department of Defense may be used to purchase petroleum products manufactured at a refinery constructed under this section for use by the Armed Forces.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section, the terms “base closure law” and “closed military installation” have the meanings given those terms in section 101.

SEC. 106. WAIVER AUTHORITY FOR EXTREME FUEL SUPPLY EMERGENCIES.

Section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7545) is amended—

(1) by redesignating the second clause (v) as clause (viii);

(2) by redesignating clause (v) as clause (vii);

(3) by inserting after clause (iv) the following:

“(v)(I) For the purpose of alleviating an extreme and unusual fuel or fuel additive supply emergency resulting from a natural disaster, “the President, in consultation with the Administrator and the Secretary of Energy may temporarily waive any control or prohibition respecting the use of a fuel or fuel additive required by this subsection or by subsection (h), (i), (k), or (m); and may, with respect to a State implementation plan, temporarily waive any equivalent control or prohibition respecting the use of a fuel or fuel additive required by this subparagraph. Nothing in this clause shall be construed to authorize the waiver of, or to affect in any way, any Federal or State law or regulation pertaining to ethanol or methyl tertiary butyl ether.”

(4) by inserting after clause (v) (as inserted by paragraph (3)) the following:

“(vi) A State shall not be subject to any finding, disapproval, or determination by the Administrator under section 179, no person may bring an action against a State or the Administrator under section 304, and the Administrator shall not take any action under section 110(c) to require the revision of an applicable implementation plan, because of any emissions attributable to a waiver granted by the Administrator under clause (ii) or by the President under clause (v).”

SEC. 107. LIST OF FUELS.

(a) LIST OF FUELS.—Section 211(c)(4)(C) of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7545(c)(4)(C)) is amended as follows:

(1) By redesignating subclause (VI) of clause (viii) (as so redesignated by section 107(1) of this Act) as clause (x).

(2) In such redesignated clause (x) by striking “this clause” and inserting “clause (viii) or clause (ix)”.

(3) By inserting the following new subclause at the end of clause (viii) (as so redesignated by section 107(1) of this Act):

“(VI) The provisions of this clause, including the limitations of the authority of the Administrator and the limit on the total number of fuels permitted, shall remain in effect until the publication of the list under subclause (III) of clause (ix).”

(4) By inserting the following new clause after clause (viii) (as so redesignated):

“(ix)(I) The Administrator”, in coordination with the Secretary of Energy (hereinafter in this clause referred to as the ‘Secretary’), shall identify and publish in the Federal Register, within 12 months after the enactment of this subclause and after notice and opportunity for public comment, a list of “6 gasoline and diesel fuels” to be used in States that have not received a waiver under section 209(b) of this Act or any State dependent on refineries in such State for gasoline or diesel fuel supplies. The list shall be referred to as the ‘Federal Fuels List’ and shall include one Federal diesel fuel, “one other diesel fuel”, one conventional gasoline for ozone attainment areas, one reformulated gasoline (RFG) meeting the requirements of subsection (k), and “2 additional gasolines” with Reid vapor pressure (RVP) controls for use in ozone nonattainment areas of varying degrees of severity. “None of the fuels” identified under this subclause shall control fuel sulfur or toxics levels beyond levels required by regulations of the Administrator.

“(II) Gasoline and “diesel fuels” shall be included on the Federal Fuels List based on the Administrator’s analysis of their ability to reduce ozone emissions to assist States in attaining established ozone standards under this Act, and on an analysis by the Secretary that the adoption of the Federal Fuels List will not result in a reduction in supply or in producibility, including that caused by a reduction in domestic refining capacity triggered by this clause. In the event the Secretary concludes that adoption of the Federal Fuels List will result in a reduction in supply or in producibility, the Administrator and the Secretary shall report that conclusion to Congress, and suspend implementation of this clause. The Administrator and the Secretary shall conduct the study required under section 1541(c) of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 on the timetable required in that section to provide Congress with legislative recommendations for modifications to the proposed Federal Fuels List only if the Secretary concludes that adoption of the Federal Fuels List will result in a reduction in supply or in producibility.

“(III) Upon publication of the Federal Fuels List, the Administrator shall have no authority, when considering a State implementation plan or State implementation plan revision, to approve under this subparagraph any fuel included in such plan or plan revision if the fuel proposed is not one of the fuels included on the Federal Fuels List; or to approve such plan or revision unless, after consultation with the Secretary, the Administrator publishes in the Federal Register, after notice and opportunity for public comment, a finding that, in the Administrator’s judgment, such revisions to newly adopt one of the fuels included on the Federal Fuels List will not cause fuel supply or distribution interruptions or have a significant adverse impact on fuel producibility in the affected area or contiguous area. The Administrator’s findings shall include an assessment of reasonably foreseeable supply distribution emergencies that could occur in the affected area or contiguous area and how adoption of the particular fuel revision would effect supply opportunities during reasonably foreseeable supply distribution emergencies.

“(IV) The Administrator, in consultation with the Secretary, shall develop a plan to harmonize the “currently approved fuels” in State implementation plans with “the fuels included” on the Federal Fuels List and shall promulgate implementing regulations for this plan not later than 18 months after enactment of this subclause. This harmonization shall be fully implemented by the States by December 31, 2008.”

(b) STUDY.—Section 1541(c)(2) of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 is amended to read as follows:

“(2) FOCUS OF STUDY.—The primary focus of the study required under paragraph (1) shall be to determine how to develop a Federal fuels system that maximizes motor fuel fungibility and supply, preserves air quality standards, and reduces motor fuel price volatility that results from the proliferation of boutique fuels, and to recommend to Congress such legislative changes as are necessary to implement such a system. The study should include the impacts on overall energy supply, distribution, and use as a result of the legislative changes recommended. The study should include an analysis of the impact on ozone emissions and supply of a mandatory reduction in “the number of fuels” to 6, including one Federal diesel fuel, “one other diesel fuel”, one conventional gasoline for ozone attainment areas, one reformulated gasoline (RFG) meeting the requirements of subsection (k), and 2 “additional gasolines” with Reid vapor pressure (RVP) controls for use in ozone nonattainment areas of varying degrees of severity.”

SEC. 108. ATTAINMENT DATES FOR DOWNWIND OZONE NONATTAINMENT AREAS.

Section 181 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7511) is amended by adding the following new subsection at the end thereof:

“(d) EXTENDED ATTAINMENT DATE FOR CERTAIN DOWNWIND AREAS.—

“(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

“(A) The term ‘upwind area’ means an area that—

“(i) affects nonattainment in another area, hereinafter referred to as a downwind area; and

“(ii) is either—

“(I) a nonattainment area with a later attainment date than the downwind area, or “(II) an area in another State that the Administrator has found to be significantly contributing to nonattainment in the downwind area in violation of section 110(a)(2)(D) and for which the Administrator has established requirements through notice and comment rulemaking to eliminate the emissions causing such significant contribution.

“(B) The term ‘current classification’ means the classification of a downwind area under this section at the time of the determination under paragraph (2).

“(2) EXTENSION.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b)(2) of this section, a downwind area that is not in attainment within 18 months of the attainment deadline required under this section may seek an extension of time to come into attainment by petitioning the Administrator for such an extension. If the Administrator—

“(A) determines that any area is a downwind area with respect to a particular national ambient air quality standard for ozone;

“(B) approves a plan revision for such area as provided in paragraph (3) prior to a reclassification under subsection (b)(2)(A); and

“(C) determines that the petitioning downwind area has demonstrated that it is affected by transport from an upwind area to a degree that affects the area’s ability to attain, the Administrator, in lieu of such reclassification, may extend the attainment date for such downwind area for such standard in accordance with paragraph (5).

“(3) APPROVAL.—In order to extend the attainment date for a downwind area under this subsection, the Administrator may approve a revision of the applicable implementation plan for the downwind area for such standard that—

“(A) complies with all requirements of this Act applicable under the current classification of the downwind area, including any requirements applicable to the area under section 172(c) for such standard;

“(B) includes any additional measures needed to demonstrate attainment by the extended attainment date provided under this subsection, and provides for implementation of those measures as expeditiously as practicable; and

“(C) provides appropriate measures to ensure that no area downwind of the area receiving the extended attainment date will be affected by transport to a degree that affects the area’s ability to attain, from the area receiving the extension.

“(4) PRIOR RECLASSIFICATION DETERMINATION.—If, after April 1, 2003, and prior to the time the 1-hour ozone standard no longer applies to a downwind area, the Administrator made a reclassification determination under subsection (b)(2)(A) for such downwind area, and the Administrator approves a plan consistent with subparagraphs (A) and (B) for such area, the reclassification shall be withdrawn and, for purposes of implementing the 8-hour ozone national ambient air quality standard, the area shall be treated as if the reclassification never occurred. Such plan must be submitted no later than 12 months following enactment of this subsection, and—

“(A) the plan revision for the downwind area must comply with all control and planning requirements of this Act applicable under the classification that applied immediately prior to reclassification, including any requirements applicable to the area under section 172(c) for such standard; and

“(B) the plan must include any additional measures needed to demonstrate attainment no later than the date on which the last reductions in pollution transport that have been found by the Administrator to significantly contribute to nonattainment are required to be achieved by the upwind area or areas.

The attainment date extended under this subsection shall provide for attainment of such national ambient air quality standard for ozone in the downwind area as expeditiously as practicable but no later than the end of the first complete ozone season following the date on which the last reductions in pollution transport that have been found by the Administrator to significantly contribute to nonattainment are required to be achieved by the upwind area or areas.

“(5) EXTENDED DATE.—The attainment date extended under this subsection shall provide for attainment of such national ambient air quality standard for ozone in the downwind area as expeditiously as practicable but no later than the new date that the area would have been subject to had it been reclassified under subsection (b)(2).

“(6) RULEMAKING.—Within 12 months after the enactment of this subsection, the Administrator shall, through notice and comment, promulgate rules to define the term ‘affected by transport to a degree that affects an area’s ability to attain’ in order to ensure that downwind areas are not unjustly penalized, and for purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection.”.

SEC. 110. REBATES FOR SALES OF ROYALTY-IN-KIND OIL TO QUALIFIED SMALL REFINERIES.

(a) REQUIREMENT.—The Secretary of the Interior shall issue and begin implementing regulations by not later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, under which the Secretary of the Interior shall pay to a qualified small refinery a rebate for any sale to the qualified small refinery of crude oil obtained by the United States as royalty-in-kind.

(b) AMOUNT OF REBATE.—The amount of any rebate paid pursuant to this section with respect to any sale of crude oil to a qualified small refinery—

(1) shall reflect the actual costs of transporting such oil from the point of origin to the qualified small refinery; and

(2) shall not exceed $4.50 per barrel of oil sold.

(c) SUBJECT TO APPROPRIATIONS.—The requirement to pay rebates under this section is subject to the availability of funds provided in advance in appropriations Acts.

(d) TERMINATION.—This section and any regulations issued under this section shall not apply on and after any date on which the Secretary of Energy determines that United States domestic refining capacity is sufficient.

(e) QUALIFIED SMALL REFINERY DEFINED.—In this section the term “qualified small refinery” means a refinery of a small business refiner (as that term is defined in section 45H(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) that demonstrates to the Secretary of the Interior that it had unused crude oil processing capacity in 2004.

SEC. 111. STUDY AND REPORT RELATING TO STREAMLINING PAPERWORK REQUIREMENTS.

(a) STUDY.—The Administrator shall study ways to streamline the paperwork requirements associated with title V of the Clean Air Act and corresponding requirements under State laws, particularly with regard to States that have more stringent requirements than the Federal Government in this area.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Administrator shall report to Congress the results of the study made under subsection (a), together with recommendations on how to streamline those paperwork requirements.

SEC. 112. RESPONSE TO BIOMASS DEBRIS EMERGENCY.

(a) USE OF BIOMASS DEBRIS AS FUEL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Energy may authorize any facility to use as fuel biomass debris if—

(2) the debris is located in the area for which the major disaster is declared; and

(3) the requirements of subsection (b) are met.

(b) CERTIFICATION.—A facility described in subsection (a)—

(1) shall certify to the State in which the facility is located that no significant impact on meeting national ambient air quality standards will result and shall propose emission limits adequate to support such certification; and

(2) may begin burning biomass debris fuel upon filing the certification required by paragraph (1) unless the State notifies the facility to the contrary.

(c) EMISSION LIMITS.—The State in which a facility described in subsection (a) is located shall—

(1) adopt (or as appropriate amend) the proposed emission limits for the biomass burning at the facility; and

(2) retain other existing emissions limits wherever they are necessary and reasonable.

(d) NEW SOURCE REVIEW.—No activities needed to qualify a facility to burn biomass debris as fuel in accordance with this section shall trigger the requirements of new source review or new source performance standards under the Clean Air Act.

TITLE II—INCREASING DELIVERY INFRASTRUCTURE

SEC. 201. FEDERAL-STATE REGULATORY COORDINATION.

(b) APPLICABILITY.—Section 202 shall only apply to crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facilities sited or proposed to be sited in a State whose Governor has requested such applicability under subsection (a).

(c) INTERSTATE COMPACTS.—(1) The consent of Congress is given for 2 or more contiguous States to enter into an interstate compact, subject to approval by Congress, establishing regional pipeline siting agencies to facilitate siting of future crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facilities within those States.

(2) The Secretary may provide technical assistance to regional pipeline siting agencies established under this subsection.

SEC. 202. PROCESS COORDINATION AND RULES OF PROCEDURE.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this title—

(1) the term “Commission” means the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; and

(2) the term “Federal pipeline authorization”—

(A) means any authorization required under Federal law, whether administered by a Federal or State administrative agency or official, with respect to siting of a crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facility in interstate commerce; and

(B) includes any permits, special use authorizations, certifications, opinions, or other approvals required under Federal law with respect to siting of a crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facility in interstate commerce.

(b) DESIGNATION AS LEAD AGENCY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall act as the lead agency for the purposes of coordinating all applicable Federal pipeline authorizations and related environmental reviews with respect to a crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facility.

(2) OTHER AGENCIES.—Each Federal and State agency or official required to provide Federal pipeline authorization shall cooperate with the Commission and comply with the deadlines established by the Commission.

(c) SCHEDULE.—

(1) COMMISSION’S AUTHORITY TO SET SCHEDULE.—The Commission shall establish a schedule for all Federal pipeline authorizations with respect to a crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facility. In establishing the schedule, the Commission shall—

(A) ensure expeditious completion of all such proceedings; and

(B) accommodate the applicable schedules established by Federal law for such proceedings.

(2) FAILURE TO MEET SCHEDULE.—If a Federal or State administrative agency or official does not complete a proceeding for an approval that is required for a Federal pipeline authorization in accordance with the schedule established by the Commission under this subsection, the applicant may pursue remedies under subsection (e).

(d) CONSOLIDATED RECORD.—The Commission shall, with the cooperation of Federal and State administrative agencies and officials, maintain a complete consolidated record of all decisions made or actions taken by the Commission or by a Federal administrative agency or officer (or State administrative agency or officer acting under delegated Federal authority) with respect to any Federal pipeline authorization. Such record shall be the record for judicial review under subsection (e) of decisions made or actions taken by Federal and State administrative agencies and officials, except that, if the Court determines that the record does not contain sufficient information, the Court may remand the proceeding to the Commission for further development of the consolidated record.

(1) IN GENERAL.—The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over any civil action for the review of—

(A) an order or action related to a Federal pipeline authorization by a Federal or State administrative agency or official; and

(B) an alleged failure to act by a Federal or State administrative agency or official acting pursuant to a Federal pipeline authorization.

The failure of an agency or official to act on a Federal pipeline authorization in accordance with the Commission's schedule established pursuant to subsection (c) shall be considered inconsistent with Federal law for the purposes of paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) COURT ACTION.—If the Court finds that an order or action described in paragraph (1)(A) is inconsistent with the Federal law governing such Federal pipeline authorization, or that a failure to act as described in paragraph (1)(B) has occurred, and the order, action, or failure to act would prevent the siting of the crude oil or refined petroleum product pipeline facility, the Court shall remand the proceeding to the agency or official to take appropriate action consistent with the order of the Court. If the Court remands the order, action, or failure to act to the Federal or State administrative agency or official, the Court shall set a reasonable schedule and deadline for the agency or official to act on remand.

TITLE III—CONSERVATION AND EDUCATION

SEC. 301. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY CARPOOLING AND VANPOOLING PROGRAM.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) Metropolitan transit organizations have reported heightened interest in carpooling and vanpooling projects in light of recent increases in gasoline prices.

(2) The National Transportation Database reports that, in 2003, American commuters traveled over 440,000 miles using public transportation vanpools, an increase of 60 percent since 1996.

(3) According to the Natural Resource Defense Council, if each commuter car carried just one more passenger once a week, American gasoline consumption would be reduced by about 2 percent.

(b) ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.—The Secretary shall establish and carry out a program to encourage the use of carpooling and vanpooling to reduce the consumption of gasoline. The program shall focus on carpool and vanpool operations, outreach activities, and marketing programs, including utilization of the Internet for marketing and outreach.

(c) GRANTS TO STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.—As part of the program established under subsection (b), the Secretary may make grants to State and local governments for carpooling or vanpooling projects. The Secretary may make such a grant only if at least 50 percent of the costs of the project will be provided by the State or local government. If a private sector entity provides vehicles for use in a carpooling or vanpooling project supported under this subsection, the value of those vehicles may be counted as part of the State or local contribution to the project.

(d) CONSIDERATIONS.—In making grants for projects under subsection (c), the Secretary shall consider each of the following:

(1) The potential of the project to promote oil conservation.

(2) The contribution of the project to State or local disaster evacuation plans.

(3) Whether the area in which the project is located is a nonattainment area (as that term is defined in section 171 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7501)).

SEC. 302. EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF CARPOOL AND VANPOOL PROJECTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Administrator, in consultation with the Secretary, shall evaluate and assess carpool and vanpool projects funded under the congestion mitigation and air quality program established under section 149 of title 23, United States Code, to—

(1) reduce consumption of gasoline;

(2) determine the direct and indirect impact of the projects on air quality and congestion levels; and

(3) ensure the effective implementation of the projects under such program.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator, in consultation with the Secretary, shall submit to Congress a report including recommendations and findings that would improve the operation and evaluation of carpool and vanpool projects funded under the congestion mitigation and air quality improvement program and shall make such report available to all State and local metropolitan planning organizations.

SEC. 306. MINORITY EMPLOYMENT.

Section 385 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(d) PROGRAM.—The Secretary of Energy is authorized and directed to establish a program to encourage minority students to study the earth sciences and enter the field of geology in order to qualify for employment in the oil, gas, and mineral industries. There are authorized to be appropriated for the program established under the preceding sentence $10,000,000.”.

TITLE IV—GASOLINE PRICE REFORM

SEC. 401. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the “Gas Price Gouging Prevention Act”.

SEC. 402. GASOLINE PRICE GOUGING PROHIBITED.

(a) UNLAWFUL CONDUCT.—During a period of a major disaster, it shall be unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act for any person to sell crude oil, gasoline, diesel fuel, or home heating oil at a price which constitutes price gouging as defined by rule pursuant to subsection (b).

(b) PRICE GOUGING.—Not later than 6 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Federal Trade Commission shall promulgate any rules necessary for the enforcement of this section. Such rules shall define “price gouging” for purposes of this section, and shall be consistent with the requirements for declaring unfair acts or practices in section 5(n) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 45(n)).

(c) ENFORCEMENT BY FTC.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A violation of subsection (a) shall be treated as a violation of a rule defining an unfair or deceptive act or practice prescribed under section 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)). The Federal Trade Commission shall enforce this section in the same manner, by the same means, and with the same jurisdiction as though all applicable terms and provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act were incorporated into and made a part of this section.

(2) EXCLUSIVE ENFORCEMENT.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person or State or political subdivision of a State other than the Federal Trade Commission, or the Attorney General to the extent provided for in section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, shall have any authority to enforce this section, or any rule prescribed pursuant to this section.

(d) PENALTIES.—Any person who violates subsection (a), or the rules promulgated pursuant to this section, shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $11,000 per violation.

(e) DEFINITION OF MAJOR DISASTER.—

(1) DETERMINATION.—As used in this section, and for purposes of any rule promulgated pursuant to this section, the term “major disaster” means a major disaster declared by the President as defined in section 102(2) of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122(2)) that the Secretary of Energy determines to have substantially disrupted the production, distribution, or supply of crude oil, gasoline, diesel fuel, or home heating oil.

(2) APPLICABLE AREA AND PERIOD.—The prohibition in subsection (a) shall apply to the United States or a specific geographic region of the United States as determined by the President and the Secretary of Energy at the time in which a determination under paragraph (1) is made, and for a period of 30 days after such determination is made. The President may extend the prohibition for such additional 30-day periods as the President determines necessary.

SEC. 403. FTC INVESTIGATION ON PRICE-GOUGING.

(a) STUDY.—The Federal Trade Commission shall conduct an investigation into nationwide gasoline prices in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, including any evidence of price-gouging by subject companies described in subsection (b). Such investigation shall include—

(1) a comparison of, and analysis of the reasons for changes in, profit levels of subject companies during the 12-month period ending on August 31, 2005, and their profit levels for the month of September, 2005, including information for particular companies on a basis that does not permit the identification of any company to which the information relates;

(2) a summary of tax expenditures (as defined in section 3(3) of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974 (2 U.S.C. 622(3)) for such companies;

(3) an examination of the effects of increased gasoline prices and gasoline price-gouging on economic activity in the United States;

(4) an analysis of the overall cost of increased gasoline prices and gasoline price-gouging to the economy, including the impact on consumers’ purchasing power in both declared State and National disaster areas and elsewhere; and

(5) an analysis of the role and overall cost of credit card interchange rates on gasoline and diesel fuel retail prices.

(b) SUBJECT COMPANIES.—The companies subject to the investigation required by this section shall be—

(1) any company with total United States wholesale sales of gasoline and petroleum distillates for calendar year 2004 in excess of $500,000,000; and

(2) any retail distributor of gasoline and petroleum distillates against which multiple formal complaints (that identify the location of the particular retail distributor and provide contact information for the complainant) of price-gouging were filed in August or September 2005, with a Federal or State consumer protection agency.

(c) EVIDENCE OF PRICE-GOUGING.—In conducting its investigation, the Commission shall treat as evidence of price-gouging any finding that the average price of gasoline available for sale to the public in September, 2005, or thereafter in a market area located in an area designated as a State or National disaster area because of Hurricane Katrina, or in any other area where price-gouging complaints have been filed because of Hurricane Katrina with a Federal or State consumer protection agency, exceeded the average price of such gasoline in that area for the month of August, 2005, unless the Commission finds substantial evidence that the increase is substantially attributable to additional costs in connection with the production, transportation, delivery, and sale of gasoline in that area or to national or international market trends.

(d) REPORTS.—

(1) NOTIFICATION TO STATE AGENCIES.—In any areas of markets in which the Commission determines price increases are due to factors other than the additional costs, it shall also notify the appropriate State agency of its findings.

(2) PROGRESS AND FINAL REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—The Commission shall provide information on the progress of the investigation to the Appropriations Committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate, every 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act. The Commission shall provide those Committees a written interim report 90 days after such date, and shall transmit a final report to those Committees, together with its findings and recommendations, no later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this Act. Such reports shall include recommendations, based on its findings, for any legislation necessary to protect consumers from gasoline price-gouging in both State and National disaster areas and elsewhere.

(e) EVIDENCE OF CRIMINAL MISCONDUCT.—If, during the investigation required by this section, the Commission obtains evidence that a person may have violated a criminal law, the Commission may transmit that evidence to appropriate Federal or State authorities.

(1) The geographic size of the delivery market and the number of delivery points.

(2) The proximity of energy futures markets in relation to the source of supply.

(3) The specified grade of gasoline deliverable on the exchange.

(5) The effectiveness of temporary trading halts and the monetary threshold for such temporary trading halts.

TITLE V—STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE

SEC. 501. STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE CAPACITY.

(a) UNCONSCIONABLE PRICING.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—During any energy emergency declared by the President under section 102, it is unlawful for any person to sell crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates in, or for use in, the area to which that declaration applies at a price that—

(A) is unconscionably excessive; or

(B) indicates the seller is taking unfair advantage of the circumstances to increase prices unreasonably.

(2) FACTORS CONSIDERED.—In determining whether a violation of paragraph (1) has occurred, there shall be taken into account, among other factors, whether—

(A) the amount charged represents a gross disparity between the price of the crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillate sold and the price at which it was offered for sale in the usual course of the seller’s business immediately prior to the energy emergency; or

(B) the amount charged grossly exceeds the price at which the same or similar crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillate was readily obtainable by other purchasers in the area to which the declaration applies.

(3) MITIGATING FACTORS.—In determining whether a violation of paragraph (1) has occurred, there also shall be taken into account, among other factors, whether the price at which the crude oil, gasoline, nat-

(a) IN GENERAL.—If the President finds that the health, safety, welfare, or economic well-being of the citizens of the United States is at risk because of a shortage or imminent shortage of adequate supplies of crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates due to a disruption of the national distribution system for crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates (including such a shortage related to a major disaster (as defined in section 102(2) of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 5122)), or significant pricing anomalies in national or regional energy markets for crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates of a more than transient nature, the President may declare that a Federal energy emergency exists.

(b) SCOPE AND DURATION.—The declaration shall apply to the Nation, a geographical region, or 1 or more States, as determined by the President, but may not be in effect for a period of more than 45 days.

(2) extend such a declaration more than once.

SEC. 103. ENFORCEMENT BY THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

(a) ENFORCEMENT BY FTC.—A violation of section 101 shall be treated as a violation of a rule defining an unfair or deceptive act or practice prescribed under section 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)). The Federal Trade Commission shall enforce this title in the same manner, by the same means, and with the same jurisdiction as though all applicable terms and provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act were incorporated into and made a part of this title. In enforcing section 101(a) of this title, the Commission shall give priority to enforcement actions concerning companies with total United States wholesale or retail sales of crude oil, gasoline, and petroleum distillates in excess of $500,000,000 per year.

(b) NOTICE.—The State shall serve written notice to the Federal Trade Commission of any civil action under subsection (a) prior to initiating such civil action. The notice shall include a copy of the complaint to be filed to initiate such civil action, except that if it is not feasible for the State to provide such prior notice, the State shall provide such notice immediately upon instituting such civil action.

(2) PROTECTION OF PUBLIC FROM ANTI-COMPETITIVE ACTIVITY.—In determining the information to be made available under this section and time to make the information available, the Federal Trade Commission shall seek to ensure that consumers and competitive markets are protected from the adverse effects of potential collusion or other anticompetitive behaviors that can be facilitated by untimely public disclosure of transaction-specific information.

(3) PROTECTION OF MARKET MECHANISMS.—The Federal Trade Commission shall withhold from public disclosure under this section any information the Commission determines would, if disclosed, be detrimental to the operation of an effective market or jeopardize system security.

(c) INFORMATION SOURCES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out subsection (b), the Federal Trade Commission may—

(A) obtain information from any market participant; and

(B) rely on entities other than the Commission to receive and make public the information, subject to the disclosure rules in subsection (b)(3).

(2) PUBLISHED DATA.—In carrying out this section, the Federal Trade Commission shall consider the degree of price transparency provided by existing price publishers and providers of trade processing services, and shall rely on such publishers and services to the maximum extent possible.

(3) ELECTRONIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS.—The Federal Trade Commission may establish an electronic information system if it determines that existing price publications are not adequately providing price discovery or market transparency. Nothing in this section, however, shall affect any electronic information filing requirements in effect under this title as of the date of enactment of this section.

(4) DE MINIMUS EXCEPTION.—The Federal Trade Commission may not require entities who have a de minimus market presence to comply with the reporting requirements of this section.

(A) ensuring that information requests to markets within the respective jurisdiction of each agency are properly coordinated to minimize duplicative information requests; and

(B) regarding the treatment of proprietary trading information.

(2) CFTC JURISDICTION.—Nothing in this section may be construed to limit or affect the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission under the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. 1 et seq.).

(e) RULEMAKING.—Within 180 days after the date of enactment of this title, the Federal Trade Commission shall initiate a rulemaking proceeding to establish such rules as the Commission determines to be necessary and appropriate to carry out this section.

SEC. 108. REPORT ON UNITED STATES ENERGY EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS.

(a) POTENTIAL IMPACTS REPORT.—Within 30 days after the date of enactment of this title, the Federal Trade Commission shall transmit to the Congress a confidential report describing the potential impact on domestic prices of crude oil, residual fuel oil, and refined petroleum products that would result from the disruption for periods of 1 week, 1 year, and 5 years, respectively, of not less than—

(1) 30 percent of United States oil production;

(2) 20 percent of United States refinery capacity; and

(3) 5 percent of global oil supplies.

(b) PROJECTIONS AND POSSIBLE REMEDIES.—The President shall include in the report—

"(c) EMERGENCY PERIODS.—The Secretary shall make petroleum products from the Strategic Refinery Reserve available under subsection (b)(1) only—

"(1) during a severe energy supply interruption, within the meaning of such term under part B; or

(3) MARKET MANIPULATION.—It is unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to use or employ, in connection with the purchase or sale of crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates at wholesale, any manipulative or deceptive device or contrivance, in contravention of such rules and regulations as the Federal Trade Commission may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of United States citizens.

(4) RULEMAKING.—Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this section, the Federal Trade Commission shall promulgate rules necessary and appropriate to enforce this section.

(b) DECLARATION OF ENERGY EMERGENCY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—If the President finds that the health, safety, welfare, or economic well-being of the citizens of the United States is at risk because of a shortage or imminent shortage of adequate supplies of crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates due to a disruption of the national distribution system for crude oil, gasoline, natural gas, or petroleum distillates (including such a shortage related to a major disaster (as defined in section 102(2) of the Robert T. (c) ENFORCEMENT BY THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.—

(1) ENFORCEMENT BY FTC.—A violation of subsection (a) shall be treated as a violation of a rule defining an unfair or deceptive act or practice prescribed under section 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)). The Federal Trade Commission shall enforce this section in the same manner, by the same means, and with the same jurisdiction as though all applicable terms and provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act were incorporated into and made a part of this section. In enforcing subsection (a)(1), the Commission shall give priority to enforcement actions concerning companies with total United States wholesale or retail sales of crude oil, gasoline, and petroleum distillates in excess of $500,000,000 per year.

(2) CIVIL PENALTIES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding the penalties set forth under the Federal Trade Commission Act, any person who violates subsection (a) shall be subject to the following penalties:

(i) PRICE GOUGING; UNJUST PROFITS.—Any person who violates subsection (a)(1) shall be subject to—

(I) a fine of not more than 3 times the amount of profits gained by such person through such violation; or

(II) a fine of not more than $3,000,000.

(ii) FALSE INFORMATION; MARKET MANIPULATION.—Any person who violates paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (a) shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $1,000,000.

(B) METHOD OF ASSESSMENT.—The penalties provided by subparagraph (A) shall be assessed in the same manner as civil penalties imposed under section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 45).

(C) MULTIPLE OFFENSES; MITIGATING FACTORS.—In assessing the penalty provided by this paragraph—

(i) each day of a continuing violation shall be considered a separate violation; and

(ii) the Federal Trade Commission shall take into consideration the seriousness of the violation and the efforts of the person committing the violation to remedy the harm caused by the violation in a timely manner.

(d) ENFORCEMENT AT RETAIL LEVEL BY STATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A State, as parens patriae, may bring a civil action on behalf of its residents in an appropriate district court of the United States to enforce the provisions of subsection (a)(1) or to impose the civil penalties authorized by subsection (c)(2)(a)(ii), whenever the attorney general of the State has reason to believe that the interests of the residents of the State have been or are being threatened or adversely affected by a violation of this section or a regulation under this section.

(2) NOTICE.—The State shall serve written notice to the Federal Trade Commission of any civil action under paragraph (1) prior to initiating such civil action. The notice shall include a copy of the complaint to be filed to initiate such civil action, except that if it is not feasible for the State to provide such prior notice, the State shall provide such notice immediately upon instituting such civil action.

(3) AUTHORITY TO INTERVENE.—Upon receiving the notice required by paragraph (2), the Federal Trade Commission may intervene in such civil action and upon intervening—

(A) be heard on all matters arising in such civil action; and

(B) file petitions for appeal of a decision in such civil action.

(4) CONSTRUCTION.—For purposes of bringing any civil action under paragraph (1), nothing in this section shall prevent the attorney general of a State from exercising the powers conferred on the attorney general by the laws of such State to conduct investigations or to administer oaths or affirmations or to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of documentary and other evidence.

(5) VENUE; SERVICE OF PROCESS.—In a civil action brought under paragraph (1)—

(A) the venue shall be a judicial district in which—

(i) the defendant operates;
(ii) the defendant was authorized to do business; or
(iii) where the defendant in the civil action is found;

(B) process may be served without regard to the territorial limits of the district or of the State in which the civil action is instituted; and

(C) a person who participated with the defendant in an alleged violation that is being litigated in the civil action may be joined in the civil action without regard to the residence of the person.

(6) LIMITATION ON STATE ACTION WHILE FEDERAL ACTION IS PENDING.—If the Federal Trade Commission has instituted a civil action or an administrative action for violation of this section, no State attorney general, or official or agency of a State, may bring an action under this subsection during the pendency of that action against any defendant named in the complaint of the Federal Trade Commission or the other agency for any violation of this section alleged in the complaint.

(7) ENFORCEMENT OF STATE LAW.—Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit an authorized State official from proceeding in State court to enforce a civil or criminal statute of such State.

(e) LOW INCOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE.—Amounts collected in fines and penalties under subsection (c) shall be deposited in a separate fund in the treasury to be known as the Consumer Relief Trust Fund. To the extent provided for in advance in appropriations Acts, such fund shall be used to provide assistance under the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program established under title XXVI of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 (42 U.S.C. 8621 et seq.).

(f) EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.—

(1) OTHER AUTHORITY OF FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or affect in any way the Federal Trade Commission's authority to bring enforcement actions or take any other measure under the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.) or any other provision of law.

(2) STATE LAW.—Nothing in this section preempts any State law.

(g) MARKET TRANSPARENCY FOR CRUDE OIL, GASOLINE, AND PETROLEUM DISTILLATES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Federal Trade Commission shall facilitate price transparency in markets for the sale of crude oil and essential petroleum products at wholesale, having due regard for the public interest, the integrity of those markets, fair competition, and the protection of consumers.

(2) MARKETPLACE TRANSPARENCY.—

(A) DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION.—In carrying out this subsection, the Federal Trade Commission shall provide by rule for the dissemination, on a timely basis, of information about the availability and prices of wholesale crude oil, gasoline, and petroleum distillates to the Federal Trade Commission, States, wholesale buyers and sellers, and the public.

(B) PROTECTION OF PUBLIC FROM ANTI-COMPETITIVE ACTIVITY.—In determining the information to be made available under this subsection and time to make the information available, the Federal Trade Commission shall seek to ensure that consumers and competitive markets are protected from the adverse effects of potential collusion or other anticompetitive behaviors that can be facilitated by untimely public disclosure of transaction-specific information.

(C) PROTECTION OF MARKET MECHANISMS.—The Federal Trade Commission shall withhold from public disclosure under this subsection any information the Commission determines would, if disclosed, be detrimental to the operation of an effective market or jeopardize system security.

(3) INFORMATION SOURCES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In carrying out paragraph (2), the Federal Trade Commission may—

(i) obtain information from any market participant; and

(ii) rely on entities other than the Commission to receive and make public the information, subject to the disclosure rules in paragraph(2)(C).

(B) PUBLISHED DATA.—In carrying out this subsection, the Federal Trade Commission shall consider the degree of price transparency provided by existing price publishers and providers of trade processing services, and shall rely on such publishers and services to the maximum extent possible.

(C) ELECTRONIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS.—The Federal Trade Commission may establish an electronic information system if it determines that existing price publications are not adequately providing price discovery or market transparency. Nothing in this subsection, however, shall affect any electronic information filing requirements in effect under this section as of the date of enactment of this section.

(D) DE MINIMUS EXCEPTION.—The Federal Trade Commission may not require entities who have a de minimus market presence to comply with the reporting requirements of this subsection.

(4) COOPERATION WITH OTHER FEDERAL AGENCIES.—

(A) MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING.—Within 180 days after the date of enactment of this section, the Federal Trade Commission shall conclude a memorandum of understanding with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and other appropriate agencies (if applicable) relating to information sharing, which shall include provisions—

(i) ensuring that information requests to markets within the respective jurisdiction of each agency are properly coordinated to minimize duplicative information requests; and

(ii) regarding the treatment of proprietary trading information.

(B) CFTC JURISDICTION.—Nothing in this subsection may be construed to limit or affect the exclusive jurisdiction of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission under the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. 1 et seq.).

(5) RULEMAKING.—Within 180 days after the date of enactment of this subsection, the Federal Trade Commission shall initiate a rulemaking proceeding to establish such rules as the Commission determines to be necessary and appropriate to carry out this subsection.

(h) REPORT ON UNITED STATES ENERGY EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS.—

(1) POTENTIAL IMPACTS REPORT.—Within 30 days after the date of enactment of this section, the Federal Trade Commission shall transmit to the Congress a confidential report describing the potential impact on domestic prices of crude oil, residual fuel oil, and refined petroleum products that would result from the disruption for periods of 1 week, 1 year, and 5 years, respectively, of not less than—

(A) 30 percent of United States oil production;

(B) 20 percent of United States refinery capacity; and

(C) 5 percent of global oil supplies.

(2) PROJECTIONS AND POSSIBLE REMEDIES.—The President shall include in the report—

(A) projections of the impact any such disruptions would be likely to have on the United States economy; and

(B) detailed and prioritized recommendations for remedies under each scenario covered by the report.

¶107.6 NATIONAL CHEMISTRY WEEK

Mr. SMITH of Texas moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 457):

Whereas chemistry is at the core of every technology we benefit from today;

Whereas the power of the chemical sciences is what they create as a whole; an enabling infrastructure that delivers the foods, fuels, medicines, and materials that are the hallmarks of modern life;

Whereas the contributions of chemical scientists and engineers are central to technological progress and to the health of many industries, including the chemical, pharmaceutical, electronics, agricultural, automotive, and aerospace sectors, and these contributions boost economic growth, create new jobs, and improve our health and standard of living;

Whereas the American Chemical Society, the world's largest scientific society, founded National Chemistry Week in 1987 to educate the public, particularly elementary and secondary school children, about the role of chemistry in society and to enhance students' appreciation of the chemical sciences;

Whereas National Chemistry Week is a community-based public awareness campaign conducted by more than 10,000 volunteers in all 50 States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico;

Whereas National Chemistry Week volunteers from United States industry, government, secondary schools, and institutions of higher education reach and educate millions of children through hands-on science activities in local schools, libraries, and museums;

Whereas the theme of National Chemistry Week in 2005, "The Joy of Toys", was chosen to emphasize the chemistry involved in the creation and production of toys and the role that chemistry has played in new material development that has helped to make toys safer and more durable; and

Whereas in recognition of National Chemistry Week, volunteers across the United States will teach children about the chemistry involved with the materials, function, and properties of toys during the week beginning October 16, 2005: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) recognizes that the important contributions of chemical scientists and engineers to technological progress and the health of many industries have created new jobs, boosted economic growth, and improved the Nation's health and standard of living;

(2) supports the goals of National Chemistry Week as founded by the American Chemical Society; and

(3) encourages the people of the United States to observe National Chemistry Week with appropriate recognition, ceremonies, activities, and programs to demonstrate the importance of chemistry to our everyday lives.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

Mr. SMITH of Texas demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, pursuant to clause 8, rule XX, announced that further proceedings on the question were postponed.

¶107.7 CYBER SECURITY AWARENESS MONTH

Mr. SMITH of Texas moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 491):

Whereas over 202,000,000 Americans use the Internet in the United States, including 53 percent of home-users through broadband connections, to communicate with family and friends, manage their finances, pay their bills, improve their education, shop at home, and read about current events;

Whereas the approximately 23,000,000 small businesses in the United States, who represent 99.7 percent of all United States employers and employ 50.1 percent of the private work force, increasingly rely on the Internet to manage their businesses, expand their customer reach, and enhance their connection with their supply chain;

Whereas nearly 100 percent of public schools in the United States have Internet access, with approximately 80 percent of instructional rooms connected to the Internet, to enhance our children's education by providing access to educational online content and encouraging responsible self-initiative to discover research resources;

Whereas almost 9 in 10 teenagers between the ages of 12 and 17, or 87 percent of all youth (approximately 21,000,000 people) use the Internet, and 78 percent (or about 16,000,000 students) say they use the Internet at school;

Whereas teen use of the Internet at school has grown 45 percent since 2000, and educating children of all ages about safe, secure, and ethical practices will not only protect their systems, but will protect our children's physical safety, and help them become good cyber citizens;

Whereas our Nation's critical infrastructures rely on the secure and reliable operation of our information networks to support our Nation's financial services, energy, telecommunications, transportation, health care, and emergency response systems;

Whereas cyber security is a critical part of our Nation's overall homeland security, in particular the control systems that control and monitor our drinking water, dams, and other water management systems; our electricity grids, oil and gas supplies, and pipeline distribution networks; our transportation systems; and other critical manufacturing processes;

Whereas terrorists and others with malicious motives have demonstrated an interest in utilizing cyber means to attack our Nation, and the Department of Homeland Security's mission includes securing the homeland against cyber terrorism and other attacks;

Whereas Internet users and our information infrastructure face an increasing threat of malicious attacks through viruses, worms, Trojans, and unwanted programs such as spyware, adware, hacking tools, and password stealers, that are frequent and fast in propagation, are costly to repair, and disable entire systems;

Whereas consumers face significant financial and personal privacy losses due to identity theft and fraud, as reported in 205,568 complaints in 2004 to the Federal Trade Commission's Consumer Sentinel database; and Internet-related complaints in 2004 accounted for 53 percent of all reported fraud complaints, with monetary losses of over $265,000,000 and a median loss of $214;

Whereas our Nation's youth face increasing threats online such as inappropriate content or child predators, with 70 percent of teens having accidentally come across pornography on the Internet, and with one in five children having been approached by a child predator online each year;

Whereas national organizations, policy-makers, government agencies, private sector companies, nonprofit institutions, schools, academic organizations, consumers, and the media recognize the need to increase awareness of computer security and enhance our level of computer and national security in the United States;

Whereas the National Cyber Security Alliance's mission is to increase awareness of cyber security practices and technologies to home users, students, teachers, and small businesses through educational activities, online resources and checklists, and Public Service Announcements; and

Whereas the National Cyber Security Alliance has designated October as National Cyber Security Awareness Month, which will provide an opportunity to educate the people of the United States about computer security; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

- (1) supports the goals and ideals of National Cyber Security Awareness Month; and
(2) will work with Federal agencies, national organizations, businesses, and educational institutions to encourage the development and implementation of existing and future computer security voluntary consensus standards, practices, and technologies in order to enhance the state of computer security in the United States.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, recognized Mr. SMITH of Texas and Mr. WU, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, pursuant to clause 8, rule XX, announced that further proceedings on the question were postponed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. NEUGEBAUER, laid before the House a communication, which was read as follows:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, October 17, 2005.

Hon. J. DENNIS HASTERT,
The Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 2(h) of rule II of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, I have the honor to transmit a sealed envelope received from the White House on October 17, 2005, at 4:42 p.m. and said to contain a message from the President consistent with the Trade Act of 2002 whereby he notifies the Congress of his intention to enter into a Free Trade Agreement with the Sultanate of Oman.

With best wishes, I am
Sincerely,

GERASIMOS VANS,
Deputy Clerk of the House.

¶107.17 FREE TRADE AGREEMENT WITH THE SULTANATE OF OMAN

The Clerk then read the message from the President, as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Consistent with section 2105(a)(1)(A) of the Trade Act of 2002, (Public Law 107-210) (the "Trade Act"), I am pleased to notify the Congress of my intention to enter into a Free Trade Agreement (FTA) with the Sultanate of Oman.

The Agreement will generate export opportunities for U.S. companies, farmers, and ranchers, help create jobs in the United States, and help American consumers save money while offering them more choices. Entering into an FTA with Oman will build on the FTAs that we already have with Israel, Jordan, and Morocco, as well as the FTA that we have concluded with Bahrain, and will be an important step on the path to fulfilling my vision of developing economic growth and democracy in the Middle East and creating a U.S.—Middle East Free Trade Area (MEFTA) by 2013.

Consistent with the Trade Act, I am sending this notification at least 90 days in advance of signing the FTA. My Administration looks forward to working with the Congress in developing appropriate legislation to approve and implement this Agreement.

GEORGE W. BUSH,
THE WHITE HOUSE, October 17, 2005.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 109-60).

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The following amendment, reported from the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, was agreed to:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Personal Responsibility in Food Consumption Act of 2005".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that— (1) the food and beverage industries are a significant part of our national economy;

(2) the activities of manufacturers and sellers of foods and beverages substantially affect interstate and foreign commerce;

(3) a person's weight gain, obesity, or a health condition associated with a person's weight gain or obesity is based on a multitude of factors, including genetic factors and the lifestyle and physical fitness decisions of individuals, such that a person's weight gain, obesity, or a health condition associated with a person's weight gain or obesity cannot be attributed to the consumption of any specific food or beverage; and

(4) because fostering a culture of acceptance of personal responsibility is one of the most important ways to promote a healthier society, lawsuits seeking to blame individual food and beverage providers for a person's weight gain, obesity, or a health condition associated with a person's weight gain or obesity are not only legally frivolous and economically damaging, but also harmful to a healthy America.

(b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to allow Congress and regulatory agencies to determine appropriate laws, rules, and regulations to address the problems of weight gain, obesity, and health conditions associated with weight gain or obesity.

SEC. 3. PRESERVATION OF SEPARATION OF POWERS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A qualified civil liability action may not be brought in any Federal or State court.

(b) DISMISSAL OF PENDING ACTIONS.—A qualified civil liability action that is pending on the date of the enactment of this Act shall be dismissed immediately by the court in which the action was brought or is currently pending.

(c) DISCOVERY.—

(1) STAY.—In any action that is allegedly of the type described in section 4(5) seeking to impose liability of any kind based on accumulative acts of consumption of a qualified product, the obligation of any party or non-party to make disclosures of any kind under any applicable rule or order, or to respond to discovery requests of any kind, as well as all proceedings unrelated to a motion to dismiss, shall be stayed prior to the time for filing a motion to dismiss and during the pendency of any such motion, unless the court finds upon motion of any party that a response to a particularized discovery request is necessary to preserve evidence or to prevent undue prejudice to that party.

(2) RESPONSIBILITY OF PARTIES.—During the pendency of any stay of discovery under paragraph (1), the responsibilities of the parties with regard to the treatment of all documents, data compilations (including electronically recorded or stored data), and tangible objects shall be governed by applicable Federal or State rules of civil procedure. A party aggrieved by the failure of an opposing party to comply with this paragraph shall have the applicable remedies made available by such applicable rules, provided that no remedy shall be afforded that conflicts with the terms of paragraph (1).

(d) PLEADINGS.—In any action that is allegedly of the type described in section 4(5) seeking to impose liability of any kind based on accumulative acts of consumption of a qualified product, the complaint initiating such action shall state with particularity for each defendant and cause of action—

(1) each element of the cause of action and the specific facts alleged to satisfy each element of the cause of action;

(2) the Federal and State statutes or other laws that allegedly create the cause of action; and

(3) the section 4(5)(B) exception being relied upon and the specific facts that allegedly satisfy the requirements of that exception.

(e) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—No provision of this Act shall be construed to create a public or private cause of action or remedy.

SEC. 4. DEFINITIONS.

In this Act:

(1) ENGAGED IN THE BUSINESS.—The term “engaged in the business” means a person who manufactures, markets, distributes, advertises, or sells a qualified product in the person’s regular course of trade or business.

(2) MANUFACTURER.—The term “manufacturer” means, with respect to a qualified product, a person who is lawfully engaged in the business of manufacturing the product.

(3) PERSON.—The term “person” means any individual, corporation, company, association, firm, partnership, society, joint stock company, or any other entity, including any governmental entity.

(4) QUALIFIED PRODUCT.—The term “qualified product” means a food (as defined in section 201(f) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 321(f))).

(5) QUALIFIED CIVIL LIABILITY ACTION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), the term “qualified civil liability action” means a civil action brought by any person against a manufacturer, marketer, distributor, advertiser, or seller of a qualified product, or a trade association, for damages, penalties, declaratory judgment, injunctive or declaratory relief, restitution, or other relief arising out of, or related to a person’s accumulated acts of consumption of a qualified product and weight gain, obesity, or a health condition that is associated with a person’s weight gain or obesity, including an action brought by a person other than the person on whose weight gain, obesity, or health condition the action is based, and any derivative action brought by or on behalf of any person or any representative, spouse, parent, child, or other relative of that person.

(B) EXCEPTION.—A qualified civil liability action shall not include—

(i) an action based on allegations of breach of express contract or express warranty, provided that the grounds for recovery being alleged in such action are unrelated to a person’s weight gain, obesity, or a health condition associated with a person’s weight gain or obesity;

(ii) an action based on allegations that—
(I) a manufacturer or seller of a qualified product knowingly violated a Federal or State statute applicable to the marketing, advertisement, or labeling of the qualified product with intent for a person to rely on that violation;

(II) such person individually and justifiably relied on that violation; and

(III) such reliance was the proximate cause of injury related to that person’s weight gain, obesity, or a health condition associated with that person’s weight gain or obesity; or

(iii) an action brought by the Federal Trade Commission under the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.) or by the Federal Food and Drug Administration under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 301 et seq.).

(6) SELLER.—The term “seller” means, with respect to a qualified product, a person lawfully engaged in the business of marketing, distributing, advertising, or selling a qualified product.

(7) STATE.—The term “State” includes each of the several States of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and any other territory or possession of the United States, and any political subdivision of any such place.

(8) TRADE ASSOCIATION.—The term “trade association” means any association or business organization (whether or not incorporated under Federal or State law) that is not operated for profit, and 2 or more members of which are manufacturers, marketers, distributors, advertisers, or sellers of a qualified product.

¶109.20 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Sherman Williams, one of his secretaries.

¶109.21 MESSAGE FROM THE
PRESIDENT—NATIONAL EMERGENCY
WITH RESPECT TO COLOMBIA

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SIMPSON, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1622(d), provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice to the Federal Register for publication, stating that the emergency declared with respect to significant narcotics traffickers centered in Colombia is to continue in effect beyond October 21, 2005. The most recent notice continuing this emergency was published in the Federal Register on October 20, 2004 (69 Fed. Reg. 61733).

The circumstances that led to the declaration on October 21, 1995, of a national emergency have not been resolved. The actions of significant narcotics traffickers centered in Colombia continue to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States and to cause unparalleled violence, corruption, and harm in the United States and abroad. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to maintain economic pressure on significant narcotics traffickers centered in Colombia by blocking their property and interests in property that are in the United States or within the possession or control of United States persons and by depriving them of access to the U.S. market and financial system.

GEORGE W. BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 19, 2005.

The message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on International Relations and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 109-61).

¶112.8 AMERICA'S BLOOD CENTERS

Mr. BASS moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 220); as amended:

Whereas each year more than 4,500,000 Americans need a blood transfusion, and for over half the need is urgent and lifesaving;

Whereas one out of three people need donated blood in their lifetime, and one out of seven hospital patients need a blood transfusion;

Whereas it is the blood available on a daily basis that saves lives, and volunteer blood donors are required every day to meet patient needs and to be immediately available in times of disaster;

Whereas community blood centers strive year-round to maintain a sufficient blood supply, an urgent task because blood components must be constantly rotated as a result of blood's short 42-day shelf life;

Whereas America's Blood Centers was founded in 1962 and is North America's largest network of community-based, federally licensed, not-for-profit blood centers;

Whereas members of America's Blood Centers serve more than 150,000,000 people and operate more than 600 collection sites, collecting a significant amount of the blood supply of the United States;

Whereas members of America's Blood Centers are currently engaged in developing new tests and new technologies to further assure the safety of the Nation's blood supply and are actively engaged in biomedical research in the area of transfusion medicine;

Whereas America's Blood Centers assists its members and other blood organizations in assuring adequate blood supplies for patients in times of disasters;

Whereas members of America's Blood Centers were the first to respond to the Oklahoma City bombing, the Columbine shootings, and the 9/11 World Trade Center tragedy and since 9/11 have supported and developed with the Departments of Homeland Security and Health and Human Services proposals to ensure rapid response and adequate blood support in the case of a national disaster or act of terrorism; and

Whereas members of America's Blood Centers support military operations around the globe: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) recognizes the role of America's Blood Centers and its members in—

(A) providing life saving blood to patients, including the military in times of war and the Nation in times of disaster;

(B) ensuring the safety of that blood supply; and

(C) promoting essential blood donor initiatives;

(2) acknowledges the efforts made by member community blood centers and other blood organizations to promote and protect the safety and adequacy of blood components provided to patients; and

(3) recognizes the need to promote a stable blood supply and increase volunteer participation of blood donors.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, recognized Mr. BASS and Mr. BROWN of Ohio, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said resolution, as amended?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the votes whereby the rules were suspended and said resolution, as amended, was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶112.9 AMERICAN SPIRIT FRAUD PREVENTION

Mr. STEARNS moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 3675) to amend the Federal Trade Commission Act to increase civil penalties for violations involving unfair or deceptive acts or practices that exploit popular reaction to an emergency or major disaster, and to authorize the Federal Trade Commission to seek civil penalties for such violations in actions brought under section 13 of that Act.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, recognized Mr. STEARNS and Ms. SCHAKOWSKY, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and pass said bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, announced that two-thirds of the Members present had voted in the affirmative.

Mr. STEARNS demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, pursuant to clause 8, rule XX, announced that further proceedings on the question were postponed.

¶112.10 RED RIBBON WEEK

Mr. BASS moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 485):

Whereas the Governors and Attorneys General of the States, the National Family Partnership, Parent Teacher Associations, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, and more than 100 other organizations throughout the United States annually cosponsor Red Ribbon Week during the week of October 23 through October 31;

Whereas a purpose of the Red Ribbon Campaign is to commemorate the service of Enrique "Kiki" Camarena, a Drug Enforcement Administration special agent who died in the line of duty in 1985 while engaged in the battle against illicit drugs;

Whereas the Red Ribbon Campaign is nationally recognized and is in its twentieth year of celebration, helping to preserve Special Agent Camarena's memory and further the cause for which he gave his life;

Whereas the objective of Red Ribbon Week is to promote drug-free communities through drug prevention efforts, education, parental involvement, and community wide support;

Whereas drug and alcohol abuse contributes to domestic violence and sexual assaults, and places the lives of children at risk;

Whereas drug abuse is one of the major challenges our Nation faces in securing a safe and healthy future for our families and children;

Whereas emerging drug threats, such as the growing epidemic of methamphetamine abuse, jeopardize the progress made against illegal drug abuse; and

Whereas parents, youth, schools, businesses, law enforcement agencies, religious institutions, service organizations, senior citizens, medical and military personnel, sports teams, and individuals throughout the United States demonstrate their commitment to drug-free, healthy lifestyles by wearing and displaying red ribbons during this weeklong celebration: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) supports the goals of Red Ribbon Week;

(2) encourages children and teens to choose to live a drug-free life; and

¶112.11 WHITE HOUSE FELLOWS PROGRAM

Mrs. SCHMIDT moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 269):

Whereas in 1964, John W. Gardner presented the idea of selecting a handful of outstanding men and women to come to Washington to participate as Fellows and learn the workings of the highest levels of the Federal Government to learn about leadership as they observed the Nation's officials in action and met with these officials and other leaders of society, thereby strengthening the Fellows' abilities and desires to contribute to their communities, their professions, and their country;

Whereas President Lyndon B. Johnson established the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, through Executive Order 11183, to create a program that would select between 11 and 19 outstanding young Americans every year and bring them to Washington for "first hand, high-level experience in the workings of the Federal Government, to establish an era when the young men and women of America and their government belonged to each other—belonged to each other in fact and in spirit";

Whereas the White House Fellows Program has steadfastly remained a nonpartisan program that has served 8 Presidents exceptionally well;

Whereas the more than 600 White House Fellows that have served have established a legacy of leadership in every aspect of American society that includes appointments as Cabinet officials and senior White House staff, election to the House of Representatives, Senate, and State and local Government, appointments to the Federal, State, and local judiciary, appointments as United States Attorneys, leadership in many of the Nation's largest corporations and law firms, service as presidents of colleges and universities, deans of our most distinguished graduate schools, officials in nonprofit organizations, distinguished scholars and historians, and service as senior leaders in every branch of the United States Armed Forces;

Whereas this legacy of leadership is a national resource that has been used by the Nation in major challenges including organizing resettlement operations following the Vietnam War, assisting with the national response to terrorist attacks, managing the aftermath of natural disasters such as Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, and reforming and innovating in national and international securities and capital markets;

Whereas the more than 600 White House Fellows have characterized their post-Fellowship years with a lifetime commitment to public service through continuing personal and professional renewal and association, creating a Fellows community of mutual support for leadership at every level of government and in every element of our national life; and

Whereas September 1, 2005, marked the 40th anniversary of the first class of White House Fellows to serve this Nation: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That Congress—

(1) recognizes the 40th anniversary of the White House Fellows program and commends the White House Fellows for their continuing lifetime commitment to public service;

(2) acknowledges the legacy of leadership provided by White House Fellows over the years in their local communities, the Nation, and the world; and

(3) expresses appreciation and support for the continuing leadership of White House Fellows in all aspects of our national life in the years ahead.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, recognized Mrs. SCHMIDT and Mr. DAVIS of Illinois, each for 20 minutes.

H.R. 3058. An Act making appropriations for the Departments of Transportation, Treasury, and Housing and Urban Development, the Judiciary, District of Columbia, and independent agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2006, and for other purposes.

¶112.16 RUNAWAY YOUTH PREVENTION PROGRAMS

Mr. PORTER moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 484):

Whereas preventing young people from running away and supporting homeless youth and youth in other high-risk situations is a family, community, and national concern;

Whereas the prevalence of runaway and homeless youth in the Nation is staggering, with studies suggesting that between 1,600,000 and 2,800,000 young people live on the streets of the United States each year;

Whereas running away from home is widespread, with 1 out of every 7 children in the United States running away before the age of 18;

Whereas youth that end up on the streets or in emergency shelters are often those who have been thrown out of their homes by their families; who have been physically, sexually, or emotionally abused at home; who have been discharged by State custodial systems without adequate transition plans; who have lost their parents through death or divorce; and who are too poor to secure their own basic needs;

Whereas providers of services to runaway and homeless youth are experiencing increased demand for services due to the displacement of youth and families in the aftermath of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita;

Whereas the commemoration of National Runaway Prevention Month will encourage all sectors of society to develop community-based solutions to prevent runaway and homeless episodes among the Nation's youth;

Whereas effective programs that support runaway and homeless youth and assist young people in remaining at home succeed because of partnerships created among families, community-based human service agencies, law enforcement agencies, schools, faith-based organizations, and businesses;

Whereas the future well-being of the Nation is dependent on the value placed on young people and the opportunities provided for youth to acquire the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to develop into safe, healthy, and productive adults;

Whereas Congress supports an array of community-based support services that address the critical needs of runaway and homeless youth, including family strengthening, street outreach, emergency shelter, and transitional living programs;

Whereas Congress supports programs that provide crisis intervention and referrals to reconnect runaway and homeless youth to their families and to link young people to local resources that provide positive alternatives to running away; and

Whereas the purpose of National Runaway Prevention Month in November 2005 is to increase public awareness of the life circumstances of youth in high-risk situations and the need for safe and productive alternatives, resources, and supports for youth, their families, and their communities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives supports efforts to promote greater public awareness of effective runaway youth prevention programs and the need for safe and productive alternatives, resources, and supports for homeless youth and youth in other high-risk situations.

¶112.18 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—NATIONAL EMERGENCY WITH RESPECT TO WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. PETRI, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent to the Federal Register for publication the enclosed notice, stating that the emergency posed by the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and their means of delivery declared by Executive Order 12938 on November 14, 1994, as amended, is to continue in effect beyond November 14, 2005. The most recent notice continuing this emergency was signed on November 4, 2004, and published in the Federal Register on November 8, 2004 (69 FR 64637).

Because the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and the means of delivering them continues to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States, I have determined the national emergency previously declared must continue in effect beyond November 14, 2005.

GEORGE W. BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, October 25, 2005.

Within 60 days of such hearing, the Director shall notify such party whether the suspension or prohibition from participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the regulated entity will be continued, terminated, or otherwise modified, or whether the order removing such party from office or prohibiting such party from further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the regulated entity, and prohibiting compensation in connection with termination will be rescinded or otherwise modified. Such notification shall contain a statement of the basis for the Director's decision, if adverse to such party. The Director is authorized to prescribe such rules as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this subsection.

¶114.15 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment in the nature of a substitute numbered 2, printed in House Report 109-253, submitted by Mr. SCHIFF:

Strike all after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. "THREE STRIKES AND YOU'RE OUT" FOR ATTORNEYS WHO FILE FRIVOLOUS LAWSUITS.

(a) SIGNATURE REQUIRED.—Every pleading, written motion, and other paper in any action shall be signed by at least 1 attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, or, if the party is not represented by an attorney, shall be signed by the party. Each paper shall state the signer's address and telephone number, if any. An unsigned paper shall be stricken unless omission of the signature is corrected promptly after being called to the attention of the attorney or party.

(b) CERTIFICATE OF MERIT.—By presenting to the court (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) a pleading, written motion, or other paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances—

(1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;

(2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a non frivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law; and

(3) the allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are reasonable based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) MANDATORY SANCTIONS.—

(1) FIRST VIOLATION.—If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, a court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, determines that subsection (b) has been violated, the court shall find each attorney or party in violation in contempt of court and shall require the payment of costs and attorneys fees. The court may also impose additional appropriate sanctions, such as striking the pleadings, dismissing the suit, and sanctions plus interest, upon the person in violation, or upon both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(2) SECOND VIOLATION.—If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, a court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, determines that subsection (b) has been violated and that the attorney or party with respect to which the determination was made has committed one previous violation of subsection (b) before this or any other court, the court shall find each such attorney or party in contempt of court and shall require the payment of costs and attorneys fees, and require such person in violation (or both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be)) to pay a monetary fine. The court may also impose additional appropriate sanctions, such as striking the pleadings, dismissing the suit and sanctions plus interest, upon such person in violation, or upon both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(3) THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT VIOLATIONS.—If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, a court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, determines that subsection (b) has been violated and that the attorney or party with respect to which the determination was made has committed more than one previous violation of subsection (b) before this or any other court, the court shall find each such attorney or party in contempt of court, refer each such attorney to one or more appropriate State bar associations for disciplinary proceedings (including suspension of that attorney from the practice of law for one year or disbarment), require the payment of costs and attorneys fees, and require such person in violation (or both such person and such person's attorney, or client (as the case may be)) to pay a monetary fine. The court may also impose additional appropriate sanctions, such as striking the pleadings, dismissing the suit, and sanctions plus interest, upon such person in violation, or upon both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(4) APPEAL; STAY.—An attorney has the right to appeal a sanction under this subsection. While such an appeal is pending, the sanction shall be stayed.

(5) NOT APPLICABLE TO CIVIL RIGHTS CLAIMS.—Notwithstanding subsection (d), this subsection does not apply to an action or claim arising out of Federal, State, or local civil rights law or any other Federal, State, or local law providing protection from discrimination.

(d) APPLICABILITY.—Except as provided in subsection (c)(5), this section applies to any paper filed on or after the date of the enactment of this Act in—

(1) any action in Federal court; and

(2) any action in State court, if the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, determines that the action affects interstate commerce.

SEC. 2. "THREE STRIKES AND YOU'RE OUT" FOR ATTORNEYS WHO ENGAGE IN FRIVOLOUS CONDUCT DURING DISCOVERY.

(a) SIGNATURES REQUIRED ON DISCLOSURES.—Every disclosure made pursuant to subdivision (a)(1) or subdivision (a)(3) of Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or any comparable State rule shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the disclosure and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the disclosure is complete and correct as of the time it is made.

(b) SIGNATURES REQUIRED ON DISCOVERY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Every discovery request, response, or objection made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the request, response, or objection and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, response, or objection is:

(A) consistent with the applicable rules of civil procedure and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;

(B) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and

(C) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

(2) STRICKEN.—If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection, and a party shall not be obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed.

(c) MANDATORY SANCTIONS.—

(1) FIRST VIOLATION.—If without substantial justification a certification is made in violation of this section, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall find each attorney or party in contempt of court and shall require the payment of costs and attorneys fees. The court may also impose additional sanctions, such as imposing sanctions plus interest or imposing a fine upon the person in violation, or upon such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(2) SECOND VIOLATION.—If without substantial justification a certification is made in violation of this section and that the attorney or party with respect to which the determination is made has committed one previous violation of this section before this or any other court, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall find each attorney or party in contempt of court and shall require the payment of costs and attorneys fees, and require such person in violation (or both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be)) to pay a monetary fine. The court may also impose additional sanctions upon such person in violation, or upon both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(3) THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT VIOLATIONS.—If without substantial justification a certification is made in violation of this section and that the attorney or party with respect to which the determination is made has committed more than one previous violation of this section before this or any other court, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall find each attorney or party in contempt of court, shall require the payment of costs and attorneys fees, require such person in violation (or both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be)) to pay a monetary fine, and refer such attorney to one or more appropriate State bar associations for disciplinary proceedings (including the suspension of that attorney from the practice of law for one year or disbarment). The court may also impose additional sanctions upon such person in violation, or upon both such person and such person's attorney or client (as the case may be).

(4) APPEAL; STAY.—An attorney has the right to appeal a sanction under this subsection. While such an appeal is pending, the sanction shall be stayed.

(d) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to any paper filed on or after the date of the enactment of this Act in—

- (1) any action in Federal court; and
(2) any action in State court, if the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, determines that the action affects interstate commerce.

SEC. 3. BAN ON CONCEALMENT OF UNLAWFUL CONDUCT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In any Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure proceeding, a court may not order that a court record not be disclosed unless the court makes a finding of fact that identifies the interest that justifies the order and determines that the interest outweighs any interest in the public health and safety that the court determines would be served by disclosing the court record.

(b) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to any record formally filed with the court, but shall not include any records subject to—

- (1) the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege recognized under Federal or State law that grants the right to prevent disclosure of certain information unless the privilege has been waived; or
(2) applicable State or Federal laws that protect the confidentiality of crime victims, including victims of sexual abuse.

SEC. 4. ENHANCED SANCTIONS FOR DOCUMENT DESTRUCTION.

Whoever willfully and intentionally influences, obstructs, or impedes, or attempts to influence, or obstruct, or impede, a pending Federal court proceeding through the willful and intentional destruction of documents sought pursuant to the rules of such Federal court proceeding and highly relevant to that proceeding—

- (1) shall be punished with mandatory civil sanctions of a degree commensurate with the civil sanctions available under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in addition to any other civil sanctions that otherwise apply; and
(2) shall be held in contempt of court and, if an attorney, referred to one or more appropriate State bar associations for disciplinary proceedings.

SEC. 5. ABILITY TO SUE CORPORATE FINANCIAL TRAITORS AND FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.

(a) GENERAL RULE.—In any civil action for injury that was sustained in the United States and that relates to the acts of a foreign business, the Federal court or State court in which such action is brought shall have jurisdiction over the foreign business if—

- (1) the business purposefully availed itself of the privilege of doing business in the United States or that State;

(2) the cause of action arises from the business's activities in the United States or that State; and

The sanction may consist of an order to pay to the party or parties the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred as a direct result of the filing of the pleading, motion, or other paper that is the subject of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee.".

SEC. 3. APPLICABILITY OF RULE 11 TO STATE CASES AFFECTING INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

In any civil action in State court, the court, upon motion, shall determine within 30 days after the filing of such motion whether the action substantially affects interstate commerce. Such court shall make such determination based on an assessment of the costs to the interstate economy, including the loss of jobs, were the relief requested granted. If the court determines such action substantially affects interstate commerce, the provisions of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to such action.

SEC. 4. PREVENTION OF FORUM-SHOPPING.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (b), a personal injury claim filed in State or Federal court may be filed only in the State and, within that State, in the county (or if there is no State court in the county, the nearest county where a court of general jurisdiction is located) or Federal district in which—

(1) the person bringing the claim, including an estate in the case of a decedent and a parent or guardian in the case of a minor or incompetent—

(A) resides at the time of filing; or

(B) resided at the time of the alleged injury;

(2) the alleged injury or circumstances giving rise to the personal injury claim allegedly occurred;

(3) the defendant's principal place of business is located, if the defendant is a corporation; or

(4) the defendant resides, if the defendant is an individual.

(b) DETERMINATION OF MOST APPROPRIATE FORUM.—If a person alleges that the injury or circumstances giving rise to the personal injury claim occurred in more than one county (or Federal district), the trial court shall determine which State and county (or Federal district) is the most appropriate forum for the claim. If the court determines that another forum would be the most appropriate forum for a claim, the court shall dismiss the claim. Any otherwise applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled beginning on the date the claim was filed and ending on the date the claim is dismissed under this subsection.

(c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) The term "personal injury claim"—

(A) means a civil action brought under State law by any person to recover for a person's personal injury, illness, disease, death, mental or emotional injury, risk of disease, or other injury, or the costs of medical monitoring or surveillance (to the extent such claims are recognized under State law), including any derivative action brought on behalf of any person on whose injury or risk of injury the action is based by any representative party, including a spouse, parent, child, or other relative of such person, a guardian, or an estate;

(B) does not include a claim brought as a class action; and

(C) does not include a claim against a debtor in a case pending under title 11 of the United States Code that is a personal injury tort or wrongful death claim within the meaning of section 157(b)(5) of title 28, United States Code.

(2) The term "person" means any individual, corporation, company, association, firm, partnership, society, joint stock company, or any other entity, but not any governmental entity.

(3) The term "State" includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, Guam, and any other territory or possession of the United States.

(d) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to any personal injury claim filed in Federal or State court on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 5. RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.

Nothing in section 3 or in the amendments made by section 2 shall be construed to bar or impede the assertion or development of new claims or remedies under Federal, State, or local civil rights law.

SEC. 6. THREE-STRIKES RULE FOR SUSPENDING ATTORNEYS WHO COMMIT MULTIPLE RULE 11 VIOLATIONS.

(a) MANDATORY SUSPENSION.—Whenever a Federal district court determines that an attorney has violated Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court shall determine the number of times that the attorney has violated that rule in that Federal district court during that attorney's career. If the court determines that the number is 3 or more, the Federal district court—

(1) shall suspend that attorney from the practice of law in that Federal district court for 1 year; and

(2) may suspend that attorney from the practice of law in that Federal district court for any additional period that the court considers appropriate.

(b) APPEAL; STAY.—An attorney has the right to appeal a suspension under subsection (a). While such an appeal is pending, the suspension shall be stayed.

(c) REINSTATEMENT.—To be reinstated to the practice of law in a Federal district court after completion of a suspension under subsection (a), the attorney must first petition the court for reinstatement under such procedures and conditions as the court may prescribe.

SEC. 7. PRESUMPTION OF RULE 11 VIOLATION FOR REPEATEDLY RELITIGATING SAME ISSUE.

Whenever a party presents to a Federal court a pleading, written motion, or other paper, that includes a claim or defense that the party has already litigated and lost on the merits in any forum in final decisions not subject to appeal on 3 consecutive occasions, and the claim or defense involves the same plaintiff and the same defendant, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the presentation of such paper is in violation of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 8. ENHANCED SANCTIONS FOR DOCUMENT DESTRUCTION IN PENDING FEDERAL COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Whoever willfully and intentionally influences, obstructs, or impedes, or attempts to influence, or obstruct, or impede, a pending Federal court proceeding through the willful and intentional destruction of documents sought pursuant to the rules of such Federal court proceeding and highly relevant to that proceeding—

(1) shall be punished with mandatory civil sanctions of a degree commensurate with the civil sanctions available under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in addition to any other civil sanctions that otherwise apply; and

(2) shall be held in contempt of court and, if an attorney, referred to one or more appropriate State bar associations for disciplinary proceedings.

SEC. 9. BAN ON CONCEALMENT OF UNLAWFUL CONDUCT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—In any Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure proceeding, a court may not order that a court record not be disclosed unless the court makes a finding of fact that identifies the interest that justifies the order and determines that that interest outweighs any interest in the public health and safety that the court determines would be served by disclosing the court record.

(b) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to any record formally filed with the court, but shall not include any records subject to—

(1) the attorney-client privilege or any other privilege recognized under Federal or State law that grants the right to prevent disclosure of certain information unless the privilege has been waived; or

(2) applicable State or Federal laws that protect the confidentiality of crime victims, including victims of sexual abuse.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. HYDE, pursuant to the previous order of the House, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 523):

Whereas on October 26, 2005, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, President of the Islamic Republic of Iran, declared that "Israel must be wiped off the map", described Israel as "a disgraceful blot [on] the face of the Islamic world", and declared that "[a]nybody who recognizes Israel will burn in the fire of the Islamic nation's fury";

Whereas Iran funds, trains, and openly supports terrorist groups that are determined to destroy Israel;

Whereas on December 14, 2001, the President of Iran's highly influential Expediency Council, Ali Akbar Hashemi-Rafsanjani, threatened Israel with nuclear attack, saying, "[i]f one day, the Islamic world is also equipped with weapons like those that Israel possesses now, then the imperialists' strategy will reach a standstill because the use of even one nuclear bomb inside Israel will destroy everything [in Israel], while it will merely harm the Islamic world";

Whereas Iran has aggressively pursued a clandestine effort to arm itself with nuclear weapons; and

Whereas the longstanding policy of the Iranian regime aimed at destroying the democratic state of Israel, highlighted by statements such as those by Ahmadinejad and Rafsanjani, underscores the danger of an Iran armed with nuclear weapons: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) condemns, in the strongest terms, Ahmadinejad's outrageous and despicable threats and demands that he repudiate them;

(2) calls on the United Nations Security Council and all civilized nations to condemn and reject these statements and to censure Iran for its statements and for its policies aimed at destroying Israel;

(3) further calls on the United Nations Security Council and all civilized nations to consider measures to deny Iran the means to carry out its threats and to prevent Iran from acquiring nuclear weapons; and

(4) reaffirms the unwavering alliance between the United States and Israel and reasserts the commitment of the United States to defend the right of Israel to exist as a free and democratic state.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

Pursuant to the previous order of the House, the previous question was ordered on the resolution and preamble.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. TERRY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. LANTOS demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the Federal Register and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. Consistent with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice to the Federal Register for publication, stating that the Sudan emergency is to continue in effect beyond November 3, 2005. The most recent notice continuing this emergency was published in the Federal Register on November 2, 2004 (69 FR 63915).

The crisis between the United States and Sudan constituted by the actions and policies of the Government of Sudan that led to the declaration of a national emergency on November 3, 1997, has not been resolved. These actions and policies are hostile to U.S. interests and pose a continuing unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States. Therefore, I have determined that it is necessary to continue the national emergency declared with respect to Sudan and maintain in force comprehensive sanctions against Sudan to respond to this threat.

GEORGE W. BUSH.

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as read. Notwithstanding clause 11 of rule XVIII, no amendment to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. All points of order against such amendments are waived. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommend with or without instructions.

Mr. GINGREY demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. MILLER of Michigan, pursuant to clause 8, rule XX, announced that further proceedings on the question were postponed.

¶119.5 MILITARY QUALITY OF LIFE AND VA APPROPRIATIONS FY 2006

So the motion to instruct the managers on the part of the House was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said motion was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶119.7 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Ms. PELOSI, pursuant to rule IX, rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution:

Whereas the war in Iraq has resulted in the loss of over 2,000 American lives and more than 15,000 wounded soldiers, and has cost the American people $190 billion dollars;

Whereas the basis for going to war was Iraq's alleged possession of weapons of mass destruction (WMD) and the President made a series of misleading statements regarding threats posed by Iraq, but no weapons of mass destruction have been found;

Whereas the Republican Leadership and Committee Chairmen have repeatedly denied requests by Democratic Members to complete an investigation of pre-war intelligence on Iraq and have ignored the question of whether that intelligence was manipulated for political purposes;

Whereas the Vice President's Chief of Staff Lewis Libby has been indicted on five counts of perjury, obstruction of justice, and making false statements in connection with the disclosure of the identity of a CIA operative, and that disclosure was part of a pattern of Administration efforts to discredit critics of the Iraq war;

Whereas four separate requests to hold hearings on the disclosure of the CIA operative were denied in the Government Reform Committee, and Resolutions of Inquiry were rejected in the Intelligence, Judiciary, Armed Services, and International Relations Committees;

Whereas the American people have spent $20.9 billion dollars to rebuild Iraq with much of the money squandered on no-bid contracts for Halliburton and other favored contractors;

Whereas Halliburton received a sole-source contract worth $7 billion to implement the restoration of Iraq's oil infrastructure, and a senior Army Corps of Engineers official wrote that the sole-source contract was "coordinated with the Vice President's office";

Whereas despite these revelations, on July 22, 2004 the Republican controlled Government Reform Committee voted to reject a subpoena by Democratic Members appropriately seeking information on communications of the Vice President's office on awarding contracts to Halliburton;

Whereas prisoner abuses at Abu Ghraib prison in Iraq, Guantanamo, and Afghanistan have seriously damaged the reputation of the United States, and increased the danger to U.S. personnel serving in Iraq and abroad;

Whereas the Republican Leadership and Committee Chairmen have denied requests for hearings, defeated resolutions of inquiry for information, and failed to aggressively pursue serious allegations, including how far up the chain of command the responsibility lies for the treatment of detainees;

Whereas the oversight of decisions and actions of other branches of government is an established and fundamental responsibility of Congress;

Whereas the Republican Leadership and the Chairmen of the committees of jurisdiction have failed to undertake meaningful, substantive investigations of any of the abuses pertaining to the Iraq war, including the manipulation of pre-war intelligence, the public release of a covert operative's name, the role of the Vice President in Iraqi reconstruction, and the Abu Ghraib prisoner abuse scandal: Therefore be it

Resolved, That the House calls upon the Republican Leadership and Chairmen of the committees of jurisdiction to comply with their oversight responsibilities, demands they conduct a thorough investigation of abuses relating to the Iraq War, and condemns their refusal to conduct oversight of an Executive Branch controlled by the same party, which is in contradiction to the established rules of standing committees and Congressional precedent.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, spoke and said:

"Does the minority leader wish to offer argument on the parliamentary question whether the resolution presents a question of the privileges of the House"?

Ms. PELOSI was recognized and said: "Mr. Speaker, I do not hear an objection to my motion."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, spoke and said:

"The gentlewoman is recognized to offer argument on whether the resolution is privileged."

Ms. PELOSI was recognized to speak to the question of privilege and said:

"Mr. Speaker, I will reiterate some of what I said in the motion to instruct.

"For the past 2½ years since our country has gone to war, we have paid a big price for a bad policy based on faulty intelligence which was wrong, based on a false premise without proper planning and putting our young people at risk. In that period of time, that 2½ years, over 2,000 Americans have lost their lives. Every single one of them is precious to us, but, as the toll mounts, the grief does as well. Over 15,000 of our young people have lost their limbs, 15,000 have been injured, many of them permanently, many with loss of limb and sight, at a cost of over $250 billion, a quarter of a trillion dollars, to the taxpayer and just endless cost to our reputation in the world.

"I think it begs the question, are we safer in America because of this war? What is this war doing to the preparedness of our troops? I think that the answer to both of those is negative, and I think it calls for an examination of what the intelligence was to get us there in the first place. Was it manipulated? Why was there no plan for us to go into Iraq, a post-war plan for after the fall of Iraq, as well as an exit strategy?"

"The American people love freedom for ourselves and for people throughout the world, but we have to examine what the cost of this war is and why even the Republican Department of Defense has said—"

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska spoke and said:

"Mr. Speaker, regular order."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, spoke and said:

"The Chair must ask the distinguished minority leader to confine her comments to the rule IX question."

Ms. PELOSI spoke and said:

"Mr. Speaker, I thought there was no objection and that we were just speaking on the resolution. Is that a mistake? My impression from what you said when you yielded to me was that there was no objection, and did I wish to speak on the motion."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, spoke and said:

"The minority leader was recognized on the question of whether or not her resolution presents a question of the privileges of the House."

Ms. PELOSI was further recognized to speak on the question of privilege and said:

"Mr. Speaker, then I will just conclude by saying, can the Chair please explain why it is not in order to discuss on the floor of this House, of this great democratic institution, a situation where our young people are in harm's way, the death toll mounts, the injuries mount, the cost to the taxpayer mounts, the cost to our reputation mounts, and we have a cover-up Congress that will not investigate, will not ask any questions about the intelligence which was wrong, which got us into war in the first place and the lack of a plan providing for our troops, what they need to serve and to come home safely and soon? Why is that not in order on the floor of the House?"

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, ruled and said:

"The question is not whether such a debate is in order but whether the resolution is a question of privilege.

"Under rule IX, questions of the privileges of the House are those 'affecting the rights of the House collectively, its safety, its dignity [or] the integrity of its proceedings.' A question of the privileges of the House may not be invoked to effect an interpretation of the rules of the House, or to prescribe an order of business for the House, or to establish a norm for the conduct of business by the House or its committees.

"In some circumstances, the manner in which business is conducted might properly be arraigned by a question of the privileges of the House. But the Chair must maintain a distinction between, for example, an allegation of willful malfeasance by a Member, officer, employee, or committee of the House, on one hand, and an allegation that a Member, officer, employee, or committee of the House failed to follow a course of action that the proponent of the resolution or others consider advisable.

"As Speaker pro tempore Cox noted in the decision of September 20, 1888 (which is recorded in Hinds' Precedents at volume 3, section 2601), there need be an allegation of, at least, impropriety."

Ms. PELOSI appealed the ruling of the Chair.

The question being stated, viva voce, Will the decision of the Chair stand as the judgement of the House?

Mr. WALSH moved to lay the appeal on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House lay on the table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GINGREY, announced that the yeas had it.

Ms. PELOSI demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas 220 affirmative Nays 191

SEC. 4. PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.

(a) CAUSE OF ACTION.—Any owner of private property who suffers injury as a result of a violation of any provision of this Act may bring an action to enforce any provision of this Act in the appropriate Federal or State court, and a State shall not be immune under the eleventh amendment to the Constitution of the United States from any such action in a Federal or State court of competent jurisdiction. In such action, the defendant has the burden to show by clear and convincing evidence that the taking is not for economic development. Any such property owner may also seek any appropriate relief through a preliminary injunction or a temporary restraining order.

(b) LIMITATION ON BRINGING ACTION.—An action brought under this Act may be brought if the property is used for economic development following the conclusion of any condemnation proceedings condemning the private property of such property owner, but shall not be brought later than seven years following the conclusion of any such proceedings and the subsequent use of such condemned property for economic development.

(c) ATTORNEYS' FEE AND OTHER COSTS.—In any action or proceeding under this Act, the court shall allow a prevailing plaintiff a reasonable attorneys' fee as part of the costs, and include expert fees as part of the attorneys' fee.

SEC. 5. NOTIFICATION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.

(a) NOTIFICATION TO STATES AND POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.—

(1) Not later than 30 days after the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall provide to the chief executive officer of each State the text of this Act and a description of the rights of property owners under this Act.

(2) Not later than 120 days after the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall compile a list of the Federal laws under which Federal economic development funds are distributed. The Attorney General shall compile annual revisions of such list as necessary. Such list and any successive revisions of such list shall be communicated by the Attorney General to the chief executive officer of each State and also made available on the Internet website maintained by the United States Department of Justice for use by the public and by the authorities in each State and political subdivisions of each State empowered to take private property and convert it to public use subject to just compensation for the taking.

(b) NOTIFICATION TO PROPERTY OWNERS.—Not later than 30 days after the enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall publish in the Federal Register and make available on the Internet website maintained by the United States Department of Justice a notice containing the text of this Act and a description of the rights of property owners under this Act.

SEC. 6. REPORT.

Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, and every subsequent year thereafter, the Attorney General shall transmit a report identifying States or political subdivisions that have used eminent domain in violation of this Act to the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives and to the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate. The report shall—

(1) identify all private rights of action brought as a result of a State's or political subdivision's violation of this Act;

(2) identify all States or political subdivisions that have lost Federal economic development funds as a result of a violation of this Act, as well as describe the type and amount of Federal economic development

So the amendment was not agreed to. The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. TERRY, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. DAVIS of Kentucky, Acting Chairman, pursuant to House Resolution 527, reported the bill back to the House with an amendment adopted by the Committee.

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

The following amendment, reported from the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union, was agreed to:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Private Property Rights Protection Act of 2005".

SEC. 2. PROHIBITION ON EMINENT DOMAIN ABUSE BY STATES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—No State or political subdivision of a State shall exercise its power of eminent domain, or allow the exercise of such power by any person or entity to which such power has been delegated, over property to be used for economic development or over property that is subsequently used for economic development, if that State or political subdivision receives Federal economic development funds during any fiscal year in which it does so.

(b) INELIGIBILITY FOR FEDERAL FUNDS.—A violation of subsection (a) by a State or political subdivision shall render such State or political subdivision ineligible for any Federal economic development funds for a period of 2 fiscal years following a final judgment on the merits by a court of competent jurisdiction that such subsection has been violated, and any Federal agency charged with distributing those funds shall withhold them for such 2-year period, and any such funds distributed to such State or political subdivision shall be returned or reimbursed by such State or political subdivision to the appropriate Federal agency or authority of the Federal Government, or component thereof.

(c) OPPORTUNITY TO CURE VIOLATION.—A State or political subdivision shall not be ineligible for any Federal economic development funds under subsection (b) if such State or political subdivision returns all real property the taking of which was found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted a violation of subsection (a) and replaces any other property destroyed and repairs any other property damaged as a result of such violation.

SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON EMINENT DOMAIN ABUSE BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

The Federal Government or any authority of the Federal Government shall not exercise its power of eminent domain to be used for economic development.

funds lost in each State or political subdivision and the Agency that is responsible for withholding such funds;

(3) discuss all instances in which a State or political subdivision has cured a violation as described in section 2(c) of this Act.

SEC. 7. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING RURAL AMERICA.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

(1) The founders realized the fundamental importance of property rights when they codified the Takings Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution, which requires that private property shall not be taken “for public use, without just compensation”.

(2) Rural lands are unique in that they are not traditionally considered high tax revenue-generating properties for State and local governments. In addition, farmland and forest land owners need to have long-term certainty regarding their property rights in order to make the investment decisions to commit land to these uses.

(3) Ownership rights in rural land are fundamental building blocks for our Nation’s agriculture industry, which continues to be one of the most important economic sectors of our economy.

(4) In the wake of the Supreme Court’s decision in Kelo v. City of New London, abuse of eminent domain is a threat to the property rights of all private property owners, including rural land owners.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Congress that the use of eminent domain for the purpose of economic development is a threat to agricultural and other property in rural America and that the Congress should protect the property rights of Americans, including those who reside in rural areas. Property rights are central to liberty in this country and to our economy. The use of eminent domain to take farmland and other rural property for economic development threatens liberty, rural economies, and the economy of the United States. The taking of farmland and rural property will have a direct impact on existing irrigation and reclamation projects. Furthermore, the use of eminent domain to take rural private property for private commercial uses will force increasing numbers of activities from private property onto this Nation’s public lands, including its National forests, National parks and wildlife refuges. This increase can overburden the infrastructure of these lands, reducing the enjoyment of such lands for all citizens. Americans should not have to fear the government’s taking their homes, farms, or businesses to give to other persons. Governments should not abuse the power of eminent domain to force rural property owners from their land in order to develop rural land into industrial and commercial property. Congress has a duty to protect the property rights of rural Americans in the face of eminent domain abuse.

SEC. 8. DEFINITIONS.

In this Act the following definitions apply:

(1) ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.—The term “economic development” means taking private property, without the consent of the owner, and conveying or leasing such property from one private person or entity to another private person or entity for commercial enterprise carried on for profit, or to increase tax revenue, tax base, employment, or general economic health, except that such term shall not include—

(G) redeveloping of a brownfield site as defined in the Small Business Liability Relief and Brownfields Revitalization Act (42 U.S.C. 9601(39)).

(3) STATE.—The term “State” means each of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any other territory or possession of the United States.

SEC. 9. SEVERABILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE.

(a) SEVERABILITY.—The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act, or any application thereof, is found unconstitutional, that finding shall not affect any provision or application of the Act not so adjudicated.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act shall take effect upon the first day of the first fiscal year that begins after the date of the enactment of this Act, but shall not apply to any project for which condemnation proceedings have been initiated prior to the date of enactment.

SEC. 13. RELIGIOUS AND NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) PROHIBITION ON STATES.—No State or political subdivision of a State shall exercise its power of eminent domain, or allow the exercise of such power by any person or entity to which such power has been delegated, over property of a religious or other nonprofit organization by reason of the nonprofit or tax-exempt status of such organization, or any quality related thereto if that State or political subdivision receives Federal economic development funds during any fiscal year in which it does so.

(b) INELIGIBILITY FOR FEDERAL FUNDS.—A violation of subsection (a) by a State or political subdivision shall render such State or political subdivision ineligible for any Federal economic development funds for a period of 2 fiscal years following a final judgment on the merits by a court of competent jurisdiction that such subsection has been violated, and any Federal agency charged with distributing those funds shall withhold them for such 2-year period, and any such funds distributed to such State or political subdivision shall be returned or reimbursed by such State or political subdivision to the appropriate Federal agency or authority of the Federal Government, or component thereof.

(c) PROHIBITION ON FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.—The Federal Government or any authority of the Federal Government shall not exercise its power of eminent domain over property of a religious or other nonprofit organization by reason of the nonprofit or tax-exempt status of such organization, or any quality related thereto.

SEC. 14. REPORT BY FEDERAL AGENCIES ON REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES RELATING TO EMINENT DOMAIN.

Not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the head of each Executive department and agency shall review all rules, regulations, and procedures and report to the Attorney General on the activities of that department or agency to bring its rules, regulations and procedures into compliance with this Act.

SEC. 15. SENSE OF CONGRESS.
