

subsection (b) shall be ineligible to receive any visa and shall be excluded from admission into the United States.

(b) DESIGNATED ALIEN.—An alien designated under this subsection is any alien who—

- (1) is a national of Haiti; and
- (2)(A) provided financial or other material support for, or directly assisted, the military coup of September 30, 1991, which overthrew the democratically-elected Haitian Government of President Jean-Bertrand Aristide; or
- (B) provided financial or other material support for, or directly participated in, terrorist acts against the Haitian people after that coup.

(c) PERIOD OF EXCLUSION.—The period of exclusion specified in this subsection begins on the date of the enactment of this Act and ends on the date on which the President certifies to the Congress that democratically elected government has been restored in Haiti consistent with the Haitian Constitution.

SEC. 7. REIMBURSEMENT FOR STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT COSTS.

There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to reimburse State and local governments for incremental costs associated with Haitians permitted to enter the United States under this Act.

SEC. 8. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

The Congress urges the President and the Attorney General to take all appropriate actions to ensure that no State is impacted, disproportionately, with respect to the provision of services for Haitian refugees and displaced persons entering the United States.

SEC. 9. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

It is the sense of the Congress that the President, in conjunction with the legitimate democratically-elected government of Haiti, should urge the United Nations Security Council and, as appropriate, the Organization of American States—

- (1) to dispatch a peacekeeping force to Haiti—
- (A) to provide security for human rights monitors,
- (B) to provide protection for Haitians repatriated from abroad, and
- (C) to assist in establishing a climate of security in Haiti in which the rights of all persons will be respected; and
- (2) to send human rights monitors to Haiti, under the aegis of an appropriate international human rights organization such as the United Nations Human Rights Commission or the Inter-American Human Rights Commission, to assess and report to the international community concerning internationally-recognized human rights in Haiti.
