So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶43.23 MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Sundry messages in writing from the President of the United States were communicated to the House by Mr. McCathran, one of his secretaries.

¶43.24 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. McCathran, one of his secretaries.

¶43.25 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4364

Mr. MOAKLEY, by direction of the Committee on Rules, reported (Rept. No. 102-497) the resolution (H. Res. 432) providing for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4364) to authorize appropriations to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for research and development, space flight, control and data communications, construction of facilities, research and program management, and Inspector General, and for other purposes.

When said resolution and report were referred to the House Calendar and ordered printed.

¶43.26 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. WALKER rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 434):

Whereas, the Department of Justice is conducting a criminal investigation into the activities of the Office of the House Postmaster; and

Whereas, the investigation of criminal conduct includes allegations of the sale of narcotics, the embezzlement of public funds, and obstruction of justice by employees and officers of the House; and

Whereas, allegations have been made publicly that officers of the House or employees may have engaged in obstructing justice by delaying or impeding an investigation by the Capitol police into alleged improprieties in the Office of the Postmaster; and

Whereas, public allegations have been made concerning conduct of the counsel to the Clerk of the House and the investigation by the Capitol police; and

Whereas, the Code of Conduct requires *** employee *** shall conduct himself at all times in a matter which shall reflect creditably on the House of Representatives"; and

Whereas, the allegations of illegal activities and of obstruction of justice impugn the integrity of the House; and

Whereas, the counsel to the Clerk of the House or any employee or officer of the House should refrain from potential conflicts of interest; and

Whereas, the Clerk of the House is authorized to receive judicial writs, warrants and subpoenas and thereby be involved with the specifics of any legal proceedings including the investigation by the Department of Justice: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives directs the Clerk of the House to recuse his counsel from receiving, reviewing or drafting of any, and all, writs, warrants, subpoenas, and documents requested from or issued by the Department of Justice surrounding the legal proceedings on the criminal investigations of the Office of the Postmaster. The Clerk of House is further directed to instruct his counsel to refrain from participating in discussions with other employees or officers of the House with any matters with respect to the Department of Justice criminal investigation into the Office of the Postmaster.

Mr. GEPHARDT moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House lay the resolution on the table?

The SPEAKER announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. WALKER demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative .....
