57.4 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. SANTORUM rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 460):

Whereas the reputation of the House has been besmirched by the manner in which financial records of the House have been maintained; and

Whereas required audits of House accounts have not been performed; and

Whereas the procedure used for expenditures under the House contingent fund were regarded by Congress as a "scandal" when used by the United States Air Force in its "M Account"; and

Whereas the $16 million budget of the Capitol Preservation Commission has not been subjected to a required audit by the General Accounting Office according to a study by the Heritage Foundation; and

Whereas the reprogramming of monies under said accounts has not been made public or widely shared with the membership of the House: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Speaker is directed to have performed complete financial and performance audits of the Capital Preservation Commission account and the House Contingent account; And be it further

Resolved, That the Speaker shall have said audits done by an independent third party; And be it further

Resolved, That said audits shall be completed within 90 days and the results of said audits shall be provided to the full membership of the House.

Pending the Speaker's ruling,

Mr. SANTORUM was recognized to speak to the question of the privileges of the House and said:

"Mr. Speaker, we have heard some of the comments of the 1-minute speeches. There have been reports in the newspapers and allegations made as to improprieties or potential improprieties conducted within the contingent funds of the House, that there was, in fact, no audit conducted of the Capitol preservation account that was required as reported by the Heritage Foundation, that these are allegations that do bring into question some of the doings here in the House of Representatives. And as a result, I think it rises to a question of privilege and would request that this resolution be made in order."

Mr. WALKER was recognized to speak to the question and said:

"Mr. Speaker, the test for a question of privilege is whether or not there are allegations of wrongdoing contained within the resolution and whether or not those questions of wrongdoing do, in fact, reflect upon the integrity of the House of Representatives. In this case, there are two allegations of alleged wrongdoing. In the case of the Capitol Preservation Commission, the law does require an audit by the Gen-
