¶63.8 BAHÁ'IS PERSECUTION IN IRAN

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 156); as amended:

Whereas in 1982, 1984, 1988, and 1990, the Congress, by concurrent resolution, declared that it holds the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i Faith, Iran's largest religious minority;

Whereas in such resolutions the Congress condemned the Iranian Government's persecution of the Baha'i community, including the execution of more than 200 Baha'is, the imprisonment of thousands of Baha'is, and other oppressive actions against Baha'is based solely upon their religious beliefs;

Whereas the Congress has urged the President to work with other governments and the United Nations in support of the rights of Iranian Baha'is;

Whereas recent reports indicate that most Iranian Baha'is imprisoned because of their religion have been released, and some confiscated business and personal properties of such Baha'is have been restored; and

Whereas despite such actions, the Government of Iran summarily executed a leading member of the Baha'i community in March 1992 and continues to deny the Baha'i community the right to organize, to elect its leaders, to hold community property for worship or assembly, to operate religious schools, and to conduct other normal religious community activities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring). That the Congress—

(1) continues to hold the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i community, in a manner consistent with Iran's obligations under the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the international covenants on human rights;

(2) notes that the Government of Iran summarily executed a prominent Iranian Baha'i in March 1992, the first such execution in more than 3 years, and further notes that reports indicate that several Baha'is have been arrested during 1992;

(3) expresses concern that, despite some recent improvements in the treatment of individual Baha'is, the Baha'i community continues to be denied legal recognition, and the basic rights to organize, elect its leaders, educate its youth, and carry on the normal activities of law-abiding religious community;

(4) urges the Government of Iran to extend to the Baha'i community the rights guaranteed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the international covenants on human rights, including the freedom of thought, conscience, and religion, and equal protection of the law; and

(5) calls upon the President to continue—

(A) to urge the Government of Iran to emancipate the Baha'i community by granting those rights guaranteed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the international covenants on human rights;

(B) to emphasize that the United States regards the human rights practices of the Government of Iran, particularly its treatment of the Baha'i community and other religious minorities, as a significant element in the development of its relations with the Government of Iran; and

(C) to cooperate with other governments and international organizations, including the United Nations and its agencies, in efforts to protect the religious rights of the Baha'is and other minorities through joint appeals to the Government of Iran and through other appropriate actions.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered. That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.

¶63.9 ISRAELI EMBASSY BOMBING IN BUENOS AIRES

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 297); as amended:

Whereas a terrorist bomb destroyed the Embassy of Israel in Buenos Aires, Argentina, on March 17, 1992;

Whereas at least 24 innocent individuals died and 250 innocent individuals were wounded as a result of the detonation of the bomb;

Whereas the terrorist organization Islamic Jihad has claimed responsibility for the bombing; and

Whereas the bombing is an atrocity: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate Concurring). That the Congress—

(1) condemns the bombing of the Embassy of Israel in Buenos Aires, Argentina, on March 17, 1992;

(2) mourns the victims of the bombing;

(3) extends its condolences to the families and friends of the victims; and

(4) declares that the Government of the United States should continue to cooperate fully with the Government of Argentina and the Government of Israel in identifying and bringing to justice all of the individuals responsible for the planning, preparation, and execution of the bombing.

ed, was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered. That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.

¶63.10 KURDISH REFUGEE ASSISTANCE

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 299); as amended:

Whereas the Government of Iraq brutally suppressed a Kurdish uprising in February and March 1991, forcing hundreds of thousands of Kurds to flee across the border into Turkey;

Whereas this sudden, massive refugee flow into Turkey resulted in shortfalls of shelter, food, medicine, and potable water that placed thousands of Kurdish lives at risk;

Whereas the best solution to this humanitarian crisis was to encourage the Kurds to return to their homes in northern Iraq by creating a security zone in northern Iraq in which the United States guaranteed that they would not be attacked by Iraqi aircraft or other forces;

Whereas in response to the extraordinary humanitarian need of the Kurds, the United States took the lead in organizing Operation Provide Comfort, in which the United States and other forces undertook a major relief effort for the Kurds both within Turkey and in the designated security zone in northern Iraq;

Whereas in June 1991 the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees took over the prime responsibility for all relief operations in northern Iraq;

Whereas the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees still maintains a large presence in northern Iraq, including over a thousand civilians involved in relief activities as well as hundreds of United Nations guards;

Whereas the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees is currently negotiating with the United Nations Children's Fund and other United Nations organizations to take over the functions being performed in northern Iraq by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees;

Whereas the memorandum of understanding between Iraq and the United Nations which authorizes the United Nations presence expires in June 1992;

Whereas the severe shortages of food within the security zone as a result of the Iraqi blockade of northern Iraq make a continued international relief effort essential in order to prevent famine among the Kurdish population;

Whereas the courageous decision of the Government of Turkey to permit the stationing of United States military forces in southern Turkey, despite the possibility of Iraqi retaliation against Turkey, was essential to the success of Operation Provide Comfort;

Whereas Operation Provide Comfort is still necessary in order to deter Iraqi attacks against the Kurdish population in the security zone in northern Iraq;

Whereas the agreement between the United States and Turkey that permits the stationing of United States military forces in southern Turkey expires in June 1992; and

Whereas if this agreement is not extended and if Operation Provide Comfort is terminated, it is extremely likely that Iraqi forces will attack the security zone, resulting in substantial loss of lives and possibly generating another massive wave of Kurdish refugees into Turkey: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring). That is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the United States should seek Turkish permission to extend beyond June 1992 the agreement that permits the stationing of United States military forces in southern Turkey for purposes of Operation Provide Comfort;

(2) the Government of Turkey, whose continued commitment to Operation Provide Comfort is essential if the operation is to be continued, should respond positively to a United States request to extend that agreement;

(3) the United Nations presence in northern Iraq should be extended;

(4) the United States and the international community should attach high priority to persuading the Government of Iraq to lift the economic boycott of northern Iraq; and

(5) in working to ameliorate the conditions of the Iraqi Kurds, the United States should continue to support the sovereignty and territorial integrity of all states, and the internationally recognized human rights of all peoples, in the region.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, recognized Mr. HAMILTON and Mr. BROOMFIELD, each for 20 minutes.

After debate,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House suspend the rules and agree to said concurrent resolution, as amended?

So, two-thirds of the Members present having voted in favor thereof, the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the rules were suspended and said concurrent resolution, as amended, was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.

¶63.11 THE PEOPLE OF ALBANIA

Mr. HAMILTON moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 305), as amended:

Whereas the people of Albania held a successful democratic election on March 22, 1992;

Whereas the newly elected government of Albania has promised to institute market reforms and establish democratic institutions; and

Whereas the Albanian economy has collapsed and the Albania people are unable to meet any basic needs: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That the Congress—

(1) commends the people of Albania for the successful democratic election that was held on March 22, 1992, and that was both equitable and representative;

(2) urges the newly-elected Albanian government to accelerate market reforms and complete the establishment of democratic institutions at all levels of government;

(3) urges the President to take steps to increase trade opportunities between the United States and Albania;

(4) urges that increased humanitarian assistance be provided to Albania, especially emergency shipments of basic food commodities; and

Ordered, That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said concurrent resolution.

¶63.12 BURMESE HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES

Mr. SOLARZ moved to suspend the rules and agree to the following resolution (H. Res. 473):

Whereas the people of Burma continue to live under a brutal military regime that has restricted freedom of expression and association, has imprisoned and tortured political opponents, has refused to implement results of national elections held in 1990, and has detained under house arrest the leader of the political opposition, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi.

Whereas the Burmese regime has also conducted military operations against ethnic insurgents in border areas, during which Burmese troops have committed egregious human rights abuses against civilians, including rape, torture, summary execution, destruction of property, and forced relocation;

Whereas these operations have resulted in internal displacement and outflows of hundreds of thousands of Burmese into several countries in the region;

Whereas the Burmese regime's ability to conduct such military operations has been enhanced through the import of arms and military equipment;

Whereas the People's Republic of China is by far the largest supplier of arms and military equipment to the Burmese regime;

Whereas the refugee outflow from Burma has imposed an extraordinary burden upon the Government of Bangladesh, which has provided asylum to more than 250,000 Rohingyas who have recently fled Burma;

Whereas although the Government of Burma and the Government of Bangladesh have reached an accord on the voluntary repatriation of Rohingya refugees, the Burmese authorities have not provided credible and verifiable assurances that the repression that prompted the refugee exodus has ended and have not agreed to permit the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to be present in Burma to monitor the return of refugees;

Whereas without such assurances and a monitoring presence by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, it is unlikely that Rohingya refugees will elect to return to Burma in significant numbers;

Whereas the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, by a unanimous vote on March 3, 1992, adopted a resolution condemning Burma for human rights violations and appointing a special rapporteur to give a public report at the next meetings of the United Nations General Assembly and Commission on Human Rights; and

Whereas the Burmese regime has announced the release of some 100 political prisoners, as well as its intention to begin discussions on the formation of a national convention to draft a new constitution: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) condemns ongoing abuses of internationally recognized human rights in Burma, and strongly urges the Burmese authorities to lift martial law and all restrictions on freedom of speech and expression, to release all persons confined for the peaceful expression of their political opinions, including Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, and to commit to the prompt transition to a freely elected civilian government;

(2) welcomes the efforts of governments within the region to provide asylum for Burmese refugees and displaced persons, and urges that no Burmese asylum-seeker be returned to Burma under current conditions;

(3) commends the extraordinary effort of the Government of Bangladesh to provide assistance to Rohingya refugees, urges increased levels of United States refugee assistance to Bangladesh for the Rohingya refugees, welcomes the decision of the Government of Bangladesh not to return any Rohingya refugee against his or her will, and urges the Government of Bangladesh to work closely with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to ensure against repatriation until the conditions for safe and secure return are in place;

(4) urges the Burmese authorities to provide credible and verifiable assurances that the repression that prompted the refugee exodus has ended and to permit the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to be present in Burma to monitor the return of refugees;

(5) urges the Government of the People's Republic of China to end all military transfers to Burma, which have served to strengthen the ability of the Burmese regime to undertake combat operations that have fostered the refugee exodus; and

(6) commends the President for implementing an arms embargo against Burma and urging other nations to implement similar measures, and urges the President to seek a mandatory international arms embargo on Burma.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HUTTO, recognized Mr. SOLARZ and Mr. BROOMFIELD, each for 20 minutes.

¶63.16 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—
U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT AGENCY

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HUTTO, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

I am pleased to transmit the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency Annual Report for 1991.

The report provides information about the nature and significance of treaties signed during the year, the conduct of arms control negotiations, the coordination of treaty implementation procedures, and other activities conducted pursuant to the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, as amended.

The international security environment, which has changed considerably since the submission of last year's report, continues to evolve. Our bilateral arms control agenda, including the START treaty that is reviewed extensively in Chapter 2, continues. At the same time, our efforts to curb proliferation and deal with the regional conflicts have been expanded, and the implementation of the growing number of existing treaties and agreements has become more demanding. The work of arms control, therefore, is expanding.

As our defense program reorders its priorities, our arms control program is doing the same as a consequence of the changed East-West relationship.

GEORGE BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, June 2, 1992.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

And then,
