As additional conferees from the Committee on the Judiciary, for consideration of sections 120, 123 and 502 of the House bill, and sections 121, 124, 302, 305 and 306 of the Senate amendment, and modifications committed to conference: Messrs. BROOKS, SCHUMER, HUGHES, SENSENBRENNER, and GEKAS.

By unanimous consent, the Speaker reserved the authority to make additional appointments of conferees and to specify particular portions of the House bill and Senate amendment as the subjects of the various appointments.

Ordered. That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶64.15 DOD AUTHORIZATION

The SPEAKER, pursuant to House Resolution 474 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 5006) to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 1993 for military functions of the Department of Defense, to prescribe military personnel levels for fiscal year 1993, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER designated Mr. ROSENKOWSKI as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole.

The Acting Chairman, Mr. COX of Illinois assumed the Chair; and after some time spent therein,

¶64.16 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment submitted by Mr. KASICH:

Insert after section 367 (page 82, after line 17) the following new section (and redesignate the subsequent sections accordingly):

SEC. 368. DEFENSE BURDENSARING.

(a) DEFENSE BURDENSARING AGREEMENTS.—The President shall consult with the foreign nations described in subsection (b) to achieve an agreement on defense burdensharing with each such nation under which such nation shall, by September 30, 1994—

(1) assume an increased share of the costs to the United States with respect to United States military installations in the foreign nation to include—

- (A) all labor, utilities, and services;
- (B) all military construction projects and real property maintenance;
- (C) all leasing requirements associated with United States military presence;
- (D) all environmental restoration activities; and

(2) relieve United States military forces of all tax liability incurred on a United States military installation located in the nation under the laws of the nation and locality where the military installation is located; and

(3) ensure that goods and services furnished to United States military forces are provided at minimum cost and without imposition of user fees.

(b) COVERED NATIONS.—The foreign nations referred to in subsection (a) are each member nation of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (other than the United States) and the Republic of Korea.

(c) FUNDING LIMITATIONS.—(1)(A) Of amounts made available to the Department of Defense for fiscal year 1993 for operation and maintenance for overseas basing activities, the amount that may be obligated to conduct overseas basing activities shall be reduced by the amount specified in subparagraph (B). The amount specified in subparagraph (B) shall be reallocated for operation and maintenance activities at military installations located inside the United States.

(B) The amount referred to in subparagraph (A) is the amount that equals the greater of—

(i) five percent of the amounts made available to the Department of Defense for fiscal year 1993 for operation and maintenance for overseas basing activities; or

(ii) the amount that represents the savings to the United States achieved as a result of agreements reached under subsection (a).

(2)(A) Of amounts made available to the Department of Defense for fiscal year 1994 for operation and maintenance for overseas basing activities, the amount that may be obligated for overseas basing activities shall be reduced by the amount specified in subparagraph (B). The amount specified in subparagraph (B) shall be reallocated for operation and maintenance activities at military installations located inside the United States.

(B) The amount referred to in subparagraph (A) is the amount that equals the greater of—

(i) ten percent of the amounts made available to the Department of Defense for fiscal year 1994 for operation and maintenance for overseas basing activities; or

(ii) the amount that represents the savings to the United States achieved as a result of agreements reached under subsection (a).
