So the motion to lay the resolution on the table was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said motion was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

87.11 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. WALKER rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 520):

Whereas the Committee on House Administration has ordered reported the findings of the Committee Task Force to Investigate the Operation and Management of the House Post Office; and

Whereas matters have been raised which impugn the integrity of the proceedings of the House of Representatives: Now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Committee on House Administration is directed to make public all transcripts of proceedings of the Task Force leading to its final report.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. SCHROEDER, ruled that the resolution submitted did present a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX.

Mr. ROSE moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House lay the resolution on the table?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. SCHROEDER, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. ROSE demanded a recorded vote on the motion to lay the resolution on the table, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative { Yeas 207 Nays 200

So the motion to lay the resolution on the table was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said motion was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

87.13 INTERIOR APPROPRIATIONS

Mr. YATES moved that the House resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 5503) making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1993, and for other purposes.

Pending said motion, On motion of Mr. YATES, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That time for general debate continue not to exceed one hour to be equally divided and controlled by Mr. YATES and Mr. REGULA.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said motion? The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. SCHROEDER, announced that the yeas had it.

So the motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, The House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of said bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. SCHROEDER, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. GLICKMAN as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and after some time spent therein,
