

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. TORRES, announced that the yeas had it.

So the conference report was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said conference report was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

By unanimous consent, the House insisted on its amendment to the title of the bill.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶116.30 FURTHER MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A further message from the Senate by Mr. Hallen, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed without amendment a joint resolution of the House of the following title:

H.J. Res. 553. Joint resolution making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1993, and for other purposes.

¶116.31 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—NATIONAL EMERGENCY WITH RESPECT TO HAITI

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. TORRES, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

Section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)) provides for the automatic termination of a national emergency unless, prior to the anniversary date of its declaration, the President publishes in the FEDERAL REGISTER and transmits to the Congress a notice stating that the emergency is to continue in effect beyond the anniversary date. In accordance with this provision, I have sent the enclosed notice, stating that the Haitian emergency is to continue in effect beyond October 4, 1992, to the FEDERAL REGISTER for publication.

The crisis between the United States and Haiti that led to the declaration on October 4, 1991, of a national emergency has not been resolved. The assault on Haiti's democracy represented by the military's forced exile of President Aristide continues to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States. The United States remains committed to a multilateral resolution of this crisis through its actions implementing the resolutions of the Organization of American States with respect to Haiti. For these reasons, I have determined that it is necessary to maintain in force the broad authorities necessary to apply economic pressure to the de facto regime in Haiti.

GEORGE BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, September 30, 1992.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 102-400).

¶116.32 UNFINISHED BUSINESS—VETO OF S. 5

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. TORRES, announced the unfinished business to be the consideration of the veto of the bill (S. 5) to grant employees family and temporary medical leave under certain circumstances, and for other purposes.

The question being on the passage of the bill, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. FORD of Michigan, the previous question was ordered on the bill to its passage or rejection.

The question being put,

Will the House, upon reconsideration, agree to pass the bill, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding?

It was decided in the { Yeas 258 negative } { Nays 169
