¶2.13 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—BUDGET BASELINES, HISTORICAL DATE, AND ALTERNATIVES FOR THE FUTURE

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. ABERCROMBIE, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

I am pleased to present the budgetary statement: Budget Baselines, Historical Data, and Alternatives for the Future.

The Budget Enforcement Act of 1990 (BEA) changed the date by which the President is required to transmit his Budget from the first Monday after January 3rd to the first Monday in February. It also established January 21, 1993, as the date for the official presentation and determination of the BEA budget deficit adjustment. Accordingly, the full 1994 Budget must be submitted by the new Administration.

In order to provide a perspective from which to evaluate choices and actions, this document provides the following:

- a review of current policies and the implications of their extension into the future;
- near-term and long-term budget projections under alternative economic and technical assumptions;
- assessments of hidden liabilities with associated policy reforms, and assessments of high risk management areas with associated recommendations for systems improvement; and
- updated options and recommendations for spending control.

It is my hope that this will be useful to the Congress and the new Administration in the effort to produce both a responsible budget and strong economic growth.

GEORGE BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, January 6, 1993.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed (H. Doc. 103-4).

¶2.14 SPEAKER TO ACCEPT RESIGNATIONS, APPOINT COMMISSIONS

On motion of Mr. WISE, by unanimous consent,

Ordered. That, notwithstanding any adjournment of the House until Wednesday, January 20, 1993, the Speaker and the Minority Leader be authorized to accept resignations and to make appointments to commissions, boards and committees duly authorized by law or by the House.
