So the resolution was agreed to.
 A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

§86.13 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. MICHEL rose to a question of the privileges of the House and called up the following resolution (H. Res. 222):

Whereas on July 22, 1992, the House of Representatives voted to transmit to the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct the Committee Report and all records obtained by the Task Force to Investigate the Operation and Management of the House Post Office.

Whereas the Report of the Committee on House Administration selectively included portions of the transcript of the proceedings of the Task Force in the Appendix of their Report;

Whereas efforts in the 102d Congress to release the full transcript of the Task Force were defeated in the House on July 22, 1992 and July 23, 1992;

Whereas the former Postmaster of the House of Representatives, Robert V. Rota, from 1978 continuing until April 1992 conspired, confederated and agreed with other persons, including Members of Congress, to commit offenses against the United States.

Whereas the former Postmaster has pled guilty to making false statements to the Task Force and discussed with his Supervisor of Accounts the need to withhold information during interviews with United States Postal Inspectors and the Congressional Committee investigating the House post office;

Whereas the former Postmaster engaged in a cover up of the exchange of vouchers and postage stamps for cash beginning in May of 1980 and continued throughout the House investigation of the post office;

Whereas the integrity of the House of Representatives has been impugned by the actions of Mr. Rota and others: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Committee on House Administration is directed to immediately make public complete transcripts of all proceedings of the Task Force, including depositions and statements of witnesses and any tapes of such proceedings.

When said resolution was considered. The SPEAKER ruled that the resolution submitted did not present a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX, and said:

"The Chair finds that the proposed resolution does present a question of privileges of the House."

After debate, Mr. GEPHARDT moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to the motion to lay the resolution on the table?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. SKAGGS, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MICHEL demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the affirmative
