137.19 POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BROOKS made a point of order against the motion to recommit with instructions, and said:

“Mr. Speaker, I make a point of order that the motion to recommit is not germane.”

Mr. MCCOLLUM was recognized to speak to the point of order and said:

“What this proposed motion would do today will be to send this bill back to the Committee on the Judiciary to report it back with a very straightforward amendment to it that is one which would address the problem of terrorism at the World Trade Center. It would set up an interagency task force, among other things, to coordinate efforts so we do not have something like what happened at the World Trade Center.

“You are probably going to rule it out of order, like you have ruled the other two out of order, Mr. Speaker, and I respect that, but the fact is that the people who were involved with that World Trade Center and a lot of other Americans would like to see that issue addressed. We should be addressing the real crime issues tonight and not the issues that are out here.

“I have nothing else to say on it. I am sorry I have to do that, but that is the only effort we have got we can make. I respectfully suggest this ought to be ruled in order. It is a tough violent crime question.”

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GEPHARDT, sustained the point of order, and said:

“The Chair has heard the argument on the point of order. The Chair rules that the motion to recommit is not germane for the similar reasons that were given on the other two points of order.

“The amendment proposed in the motion to recommit offered by the gentleman from Florida [Mr. MCCOLLUM] goes beyond the subject of alternative punishments for youthful offenders and establishes a National Task Force on Counter-Terrorism to study and report to Congress its assessment of existing Federal counterterrorism efforts and to make recommendations for improvements to those efforts.

“Accordingly, the Chair finds that the amendment is not germane, and therefore, that the motion to recommit is not in order.”

Mr. MCCOLLUM appealed the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. BROOKS moved to lay the appeal on the table.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House lay on the table the appeal of the ruling of the Chair?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GEPHARDT, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MCCOLLUM demanded a recorded vote on the motion to lay the appeal on the table, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas 246 affirmative } Nays 171
