180.4 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Edwin Thomas, one of his secretaries.

180.5 MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate by Mr. Hallen, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed without amendment a bill and a joint resolution of the House of the following titles:

H.R. 4322. An Act to amend the Small Business Act to increase the authorization for the development company program, and for other purposes; and

H. Con. Res. 261. Concurrent resolution to honor the United States astronauts who flew in space as a part of the program of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to reach and explore the Moon.

The message also announced that the Senate agreed to the amendments of the House to the resolution (S.J. Res.

172) "Joint resolution designating May 30, 1994, through June 6, 1994, as a "Time for the National Observance of the 50th Anniversary of World War II."

180.6 PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE—
RETURN OF SENATE BILL

Mr. GIBBONS rose to a question of the privileges of the House and submitted the following resolution (H. Res. 486):

Resolved, That the bill of the Senate (S. 729) to amend the Toxic Substances Control Act to reduce the levels of lead in the environment, and for other purposes, in the opinion of this House, contravenes the first clause of the seventh section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States and is an infringement of the privileges of this House and that such bill be respectfully returned to the Senate with a message communicating this resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, ruled that the resolution submitted did present a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX, and recognized Mr. GIBBONS and Mr. HANCOCK, each for thirty minutes.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. GIBBONS, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, announced that the yeas had it. So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, ruled that the resolution submitted did present a question of the privileges of the House under rule IX, and recognized Mr. GIBBONS and Mr. HANCOCK, each for thirty minutes.

After debate,

On motion of Mr. GIBBONS, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, announced that the yeas had it. So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

180.8 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 4604

Mr. DERRICK, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 484):

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 4604) to establish direct spending targets, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. General debate shall be confined to the bill and the amendments made in order by this resolution and shall not exceed one hour, with thirty minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Rules and thirty minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Government Operations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule and amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of the bill modified by the amendment printed in part 1 of the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. That amendment in the nature of a substitute shall be considered as read. No other amendment shall be in order except those printed in part 2 of the report of the Committee on Rules. Each amendment may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment except as specified in the report, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order against the amendments printed in part 2 of the report are waived. If more than one of the amendments printed in part 2 of the report is adopted, only the last to be adopted shall be considered as finally adopted and reported to the House. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been finally adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

Mr. DERRICK moved the previous question on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House now order the previous question?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BILBRAY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. DERRICK objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.
