

appropriate times, the United States should work toward and support joint actions to address significant problems. In particular, the United States should seek to secure the participation of other governments in overtures to secure the accounting and release of political prisoners, to encourage access to Chinese prisoners by international humanitarian organizations and negotiations between the Chinese Government and the Dalai Lama.

(7) Where possible, the United States should take further steps to foster in China the rule of law, the creation of a civic society, and the emergence of institutions that provide humane and effective governance.

(8) To better carry out the recommendation in paragraph (7), the Secretary of State should encourage United States posts in China to increase reporting on the human rights situation, the rule of law, civil society, and other political developments in China, and to increase appropriate contacts with domestic nongovernmental organizations.

(9) United States non-governmental organizations should continue and expand activities that encourage the rule of law, the emergence of a civic society, and the creation of institutions that provide humane and effective governance.

(10) When considering the termination of the suspensions of United States Government activities enacted in section 902(a) of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991, the President should explore whether such terminations could be used to elicit specific steps by the Chinese government to enhance respect for internationally recognized human rights or correct abuses of such rights.

SEC. 4. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS SUPPORTING HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHINA.

(a) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—Concerning the promotion of human rights in China, it shall be the policy of the United States to promote the following objectives:

(1) An effective legal system, based on the rule of law.

(2) Respect for internationally recognized human rights.

(3) The emergence of civil society.

(4) The creation of institutions that provide humane and effective governance.

(b) FACTORS.—In determining how to carry out the objectives stated in subsection (a), the President should consider the following factors:

(1) The circumstances under which it is appropriate to provide support to organizations and individuals in China.

(2) The circumstances under which it is appropriate to provide financial support, including through the following means:

(A) Directly by the United States Government.

(B) Through United States nongovernmental organizations which have established a sound record in China.

(3) The extent to which the objectives of subsection (a) should be promoted through exchanges, technical assistance, grants to organizations, and scholarships for advanced study in the United States.

(4) How to assure accountability for funds provided by the United States Government.

(c) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS FOR FISCAL YEAR 1995.—

(1) Of the amounts authorized to be appropriated for education and cultural exchange programs of the United States Information Agency for fiscal year 1995, up to $1,000,000 is authorized to be available for programs to carry out the objectives of subsection (a).

(2) In addition to such amounts as may otherwise be made available for broadcasting to China for fiscal year 1995, of the amounts authorized to be appropriated for international broadcasting for fiscal year 1995, an additional $5,000,000 may be used for broadcasting to China.

SEC. 5. INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN ORGANIZATIONS.

It is the sense of Congress that, in the event that international humanitarian organizations undertake activities in China related to the treatment of prisoners, the President should make available an additional contribution to those organizations to support such activities.

SEC. 6. PRINCIPLES TO GOVERN THE ACTIVITIES OF UNITED STATES BUSINESS IN CHINA.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Congress endorses President Clinton's efforts to work with the leaders of the United States business community to develop voluntary principles that could be adapted by United States companies doing business in China to further advance human rights and commends United States companies that have previously adopted such principles or are considering taking such action.

(b) OTHER COUNTRIES.—Congress urges the President to encourage other governments to adopt similar principles to govern the activities of their business organizations with activities in China.

SEC. 7. PERIODIC REPORTS.

Not more than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and annually for the 2 subsequent years, the President shall submit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate, a report (in a classified form in whole or in part as necessary) which reviews for the preceding 12-month period those activities supported by the United States Government to promote the objectives stated in section 4(a).

SEC. 8. COMMISSION ON LAW AND SOCIETY IN CHINA.

The President is authorized to establish a United States commission on law and society in the People's Republic of China to undertake the following responsibilities and such other duties as the President considers appropriate:

(1) To monitor developments in China with respect to the following:

(A) The development of the Chinese legal system.

(B) The emergence of civil society.

(C) The development of institutions that provide humane and effective governance.

(2) To engage in an ad hoc dialogue with Chinese individuals and nongovernmental organizations who have an interest in the subjects indicated in paragraph (1).

(3) To report to the President and to the Congress the commission's findings regarding the subjects identified in paragraph (1) and its discussions with Chinese individuals and organizations concerning those subjects.

(4) To make recommendations to the President on United States policy toward China in promoting the objectives identified in section 4(a).

(5) To assess and report to the President and the Congress on whether the creation of a United States-China Commission on Law and Society would contribute to the objectives identified in section 4(a).

Amend the title to read as follows: "Concerning United States efforts to promote respect for internationally recognized human rights in China."

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.
