Thereupon, Mr. GOODLATTE, Chairman, announced that 405 Members had been recorded, a quorum.

The Committee resumed its business. After some further time,

¶75.20 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment submitted by Mr. HYDE:

Strike section 2707 (relating to recommendations of the President for reform of war powers resolution) and insert the following new section:

SEC. 2707. REPEAL OF WAR POWERS RESOLUTION.

- (a) REPEAL.—
- (1) IN GENERAL.—The War Powers Resolution (Public Law 93-148; 50 U.S.C. 1541 et seq.) is repealed.
- (2) CONFORMING REPEAL.—Section 1013 of the Department of State Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1984 and 1985 (50 U.S.C. 1546a) is repealed.
- (b) CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS.—
- (1) PRIOR CONSULTATION.—The President shall in every possible instance consult with Congress before introducing United States Armed Forces into hostilities or into situations where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances.
- (2) CONSULTATION AFTER INTRODUCTION OF ARMED FORCES.—The President shall, after every such introduction, consult regularly with Congress until United States Armed Forces are no longer engaged in hostilities or have been removed from such situations.
- (c) REPORTING TO CONGRESS.—
- (1) INITIAL REPORT.—
- (A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), the President shall, in the absence of a declaration of war, submit a report to Congress in any case in which United States Armed Forces are introduced.—
- (i) into hostilities or into a situation where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances;
- (ii) into the territory, airspace, or waters of a foreign nation, while equipped for combat, except for a deployment which relates solely to supply, replacement, repair, or training of such forces; or
- (iii) in numbers which substantially enlarge United States Armed Forces equipped for combat already located in a foreign nation.

(B) EXCEPTION.—The requirement that the President submit a report to Congress in accordance with subparagraph (A) shall not apply if the President determines that to submit such a report would jeopardize the operational success of United States Armed Forces in a situation described in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) of such subparagraph.

(2) TIME AND CONTENT OF REPORT.—A report under paragraph (1) shall be submitted within 48 hours of the introduction of United States Armed Forces described in that paragraph. Each such report shall be in writing and shall set forth—

(A) the circumstances necessitating the introduction of United States Armed Forces;

(B) the constitutional and legislative authority under which such introduction took place; and

(C) the estimated scope and duration of the hostilities or involvement.

(3) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.—The President shall provide such other information as Congress may request in the fulfillment of its constitutional responsibilities with respect to committing the Nation to war and to the use of United States Armed Forces abroad.

(4) PERIODIC REPORTS.—Whenever United States Armed Force are introduced into hostilities or into any situation described in paragraph (1), the President shall, consistent with the constitutional responsibilities of the President and so long as such Armed Forces continue to be engaged in such hostilities or situation, report to Congress periodically on the status of such hostilities or situation as well as on the scope and duration of such hostilities or situation.
