

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be read a third time, was read a third time by title, and passed.

By unanimous consent, the title was amended so as to read: "An Act to permit exports of certain domestically produced crude oil, and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider the votes whereby said bill, as amended, was passed and the title was amended was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. YOUNG of Alaska, pursuant to section 2(a) of House Resolution 197, it was,

Resolved, That the House insist upon its amendments to the foregoing bill and request a conference with the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

¶101.12 MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES—S. 395

Mr. MILLER of California moved that the managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on S. 395, be instructed to insist upon the provisions of the House amendments which strike title III of S. 395.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to instruct the managers on the part of the House.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said motion?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MCINNIS, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. YOUNG of Alaska objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
