So the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby the resolution, as amended, was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

¶107.8 ORDER OF BUSINESS— CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2127

On motion of Mr. PORTER, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That during the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2127) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, pursuant to House Resolution 208, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may postpone until a time during further consideration in the Committee of the Whole a request for a recorded vote on any amendment, and that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may reduce to not less than five minutes the time for voting by electronic device without intervening business, provided that the time for voting by electronic device on the first in any series of questions shall not be less than fifteen minutes.

¶107.9 ORDER OF BUSINESS— CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS— H.R. 2127

On motion of Mr. PORTER, by unanimous consent,

Ordered, That during the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2127) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, in the Committee of the Whole, pursuant to House Resolution 208, the following shall also be applicable:

The following amendments (identified by their designation in the Congressional Record, pursuant to clause 6 of rule XXIII) may amend portions of the bill not yet read for amendment, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole, if offered by the Member designated: the amendment numbered 36 to be offered by Mr. Obey and an amendment en bloc consisting of amendments numbered 60, 61, and 62 to be offered by Ms. Pelosi.

The time for debate on each of the following amendments to the bill (identified in the Congressional Record, pursuant to clause 6 of rule XXIII, unless otherwise specified) and any amendments thereto shall be limited to 40 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent of the amendment to the bill and an opponent: the amendment numbered 36 to be offered by Mr. Obey; the amendment numbered 70 to be offered by Mr. Stokes; the amendment numbered 30 to be offered by Mr. Kolbe; the amendment proposing to strike section 509 of the bill to be offered by Mr. Skaggs; the amendment numbered 64 to be offered by Mr. Skaggs; the amendment proposing to amend title VI of the bill to be offered by Mr. Sabo or Mr. Obey; and the amendment relating to the subject of political advocacy to be offered by Mr. Solomon.

Except as otherwise specified in House Resolution 208, the time for debate on each other amendment to the bill and any amendment thereto shall be limited to 20 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent of the amendment to the bill and an opponent.

After a motion that the Committee rise has been rejected on a day, the Chairman may entertain another such motion on that day, only if offered by the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations or the Majority Leader or their designee.

107.10 COMMITTEES AND SUBCOMMITTEES TO SIT

On motion of Mr. SOLOMON, by unanimous consent, the following committees and their subcommittees were granted permission to sit during the 5-minute rule today: the Committee on Banking and Financial Services, the Committee on International Relations, the Committee on National Security, the Committee on Small Business, the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, and the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

107.11 LABOR, HHS, EDUCATION APPROPRIATIONS, FY 1996

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, pursuant to House Resolution 208 and rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2127) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. WALKER as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and after some time spent therein,

The Committee rose informally.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, assumed the Chair.

107.12 ENROLLED BILL SIGNED

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DICKEY, announced the signature of the Speaker to an enrolled bill of the following title:

S. 21. An Act to terminate the United States arms embargo applicable to the Government of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Committee resumed its sitting; and after some further time spent therein,
