¶164.15 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H. CON. RES. 122

Mr. SOLOMON, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 309):

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order without intervention of any point of order to consider in the House the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 122) setting forth a revised congressional budget for the United States Government for the fiscal years 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, and 2002. The concurrent resolution shall be debatable for two hours equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the concurrent resolution to final adoption without intervening motion or demand for division of the question.

When said resolution was considered.
After debate,

¶164.16 WORDS TAKEN DOWN

Mr. MCINNIS during debate addressed the House and, during the course of his remarks,

Mr. ABERCROMBIE demanded that certain words be taken down.

The Clerk read the words taken down as follows:

Yesterday he puts a bunch of children behind him kind of as props and attacks everybody who is expecting him to keep his word. It is very simple. Mr. President, keep your word to the American people. When you talk to those children, talk to them about scout's honor, talk to them about the importance of keeping your word. That is what it all comes down to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BUNN, held the words taken down not to be unparliamentary, and said:

"While the Chair will remind all Members to address the Speaker, not the President, the words were not a pejorative reference to the President."

After further debate,
Mr. SOLOMON moved the previous question on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,
Will the House now order the previous question?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BUNN, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MOAKLEY objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,
The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
