So the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said bill was passed was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

Ordered. That the Clerk request the concurrence of the Senate in said bill.

§1.30 PROVIDING FOR THE
CONSIDERATION OF A CONCURRENT
RESOLUTION FOR ADJOURNMENT

Mr. DIAZ-BALART, by direction of the Committee on Rules, reported (Rept. No. 104-640) the resolution (H. Res. 465) providing for consideration of a concurrent resolution providing for adjournment of the House and Senate for the Independence Day district work period.

When said resolution and report were referred to the House Calendar and ordered printed.

§1.31 PROVIDING FOR THE
CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 182 AND
H. RES. 461

Mr. SOLOMON, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 463):

Resolved. That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 182) disapproving the extension of nondiscriminatory treatment (most-favored-nation treatment) to the products of the People's Republic of China. All points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration are waived. The joint resolution shall be debatable for two hours equally divided and controlled by the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means (in opposition to the joint resolution) and a Member in support of the joint resolution. Pursuant to sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974, the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion. The provisions of sections 152 and 153 of the Trade Act of 1974 shall not apply to any other joint resolution disapproving the extension of most-favored-nation treatment to the People's Republic of China for the remainder of the One Hundred Fourth Congress.

SEC. 2. After disposition of House Joint Resolution 182 pursuant to the first section of this resolution, it shall be in order to consider in the House the resolution (H. Res. 461) regarding human rights abuses, nuclear and chemical weapons proliferation, illegal weapons trading, military intimidation of Taiwan, and trade violations by the People's Republic of China and the People's Liberation Army, and directing the committees of jurisdiction to commence hearings and report appropriate legislation. The resolution shall be debatable for one hour equally divided and controlled by Representative Cox of California or his designee and a Member opposed to the resolution. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

THURSDAY, JUNE 27 (LEGISLATIVE DAY OF JUNE 26), 1996

On motion of Mr. SOLOMON, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection and under the operation thereof, the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

§1.32 PROVIDING FOR THE
CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 3675

Ms. GREENE, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 460):

Resolved. That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker, may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3675) making appropriations for the Department of Transportation and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1997, and for other purposes. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. Points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with section 401(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Appropriations. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. Points of order against provisions in the bill for failure to comply with clause 2 or 6 of rule XXI are waived except as follows: beginning with the colon on page 10, line 25, through "program" on page 11, line 3. Where points of order are waived against part of a paragraph, points of order against a provision in another part of such paragraph may be made only against such provision and not against the entire paragraph. The amendment printed in section 2 of this resolution shall be considered as adopted in the House and in the Committee of the Whole. During consideration of the bill for further amendment, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may accord priority in recognition on the basis of whether the Member offering an amendment has caused it to be printed in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII. Amendments so printed shall be considered as read. The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may postpone until
