Whereas since this time the number of Russian military personnel in Kaliningrad has declined significantly, although the number of such personnel in the region is still substantial;

Whereas polls conducted by the Kaliningrad Sociological Center have shown that over 60 percent of the Kaliningrad public favors development of Kaliningrad as an economic bridge between Europe and Russia;

Whereas establishment of Kaliningrad as a free economic zone by the Russian Government in 1994 represents a positive step toward Kaliningrad's integration into the Baltic and European economies and toward giving Kaliningrad an opportunity to flourish economically and to contribute substantially to the well-being of the Baltic region; and

Whereas Russian economic analysts at the Russian Foreign Policy Foundation have noted that militarization of Kaliningrad "corresponded neither to the needs of the population of the region itself, nor to the necessities of its economic development": Now, therefore, be it
