21.6 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H. RES. 89

Mr. SOLOMON, by direction of the Committee on Rules, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 90):

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House the Resolution (H. Res. 89) requesting the President to submit a budget for fiscal year 1998 that would balance the Federal budget by fiscal year 2002 without relying on budgetary contingencies. The resolution shall be considered as read for amendment. The resolution shall be debatable for two hours equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget or their designees. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the resolution to final adoption without intervening motion except one motion to recommit. The motion to recommit may include instructions only if offered by the minority leader or a designee. If including instructions, the motion to recommit shall be debatable for five minutes by its proponent and five minutes by an opponent.

When said resolution was considered.

After debate,

Mr. SOLOMON moved the previous question on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House now order the previous question?

THE SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. FOLEY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MOAKLEY objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.

21.9 BALANCED BUDGET, FY 2002

Mr. SUNUNU, pursuant to House Resolution 90, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 89):

Whereas the President has observed on numerous occasions that a constitutional amendment is not necessary to balance the budget, observing in his State of the Union address that " * * * we don't need a constitutional amendment, we need action. ";

Whereas the President has also repeatedly agreed, most recently on January 28, 1997, to balance the budget by fiscal year 2002 based on the estimates of the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office; and

Whereas the Congressional Budget Office has officially estimated that the President's budget would increase the deficit by $24 billion in fiscal year 1998 and result in a deficit of at least $69 billion in fiscal year 2002: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That (a) the House of Representatives requests the President to submit to the House, not later than April 7, 1997, a detailed plan to achieve a balanced budget by fiscal year 2002 for the United States, as estimated by the Congressional Budget Office, that—

(1) uses the most recent economic and technical assumptions of the Congressional Budget Office;

(2) reduces the deficit through programmatic reforms rather than alternative budgetary procedures such as automatic spending cuts and the sunset of tax cuts;

(3) realizes a significant proportion of its total savings in the first three years; and

(4) offers sufficient Medicare reforms to forestall the imminent bankruptcy of the Medicare trust funds for a substantial period.

(b) The House of Representatives shall consider a budget plan to achieve a balanced budget by fiscal year 2002 for the United States that is in compliance with paragraphs (1) through (4) of subsection (a).

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

Pursuant to House Resolution 90, the previous question was considered as ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

Mr. SPRATT moved to recommit the resolution to the Committee on the Budget with instructions to report the resolution back to the House forthwith containing a detailed budget plan to achieve a balanced budget by fiscal year 2002 in sufficient time for the House of Representatives to fulfill its obligations under section 301(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, which requires Congress to complete action on or before April 15 on a concurrent resolution on the budget for the fiscal year beginning on October 1 of such year.

After debate pursuant to House Resolution 90,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House recommit said resolution with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. FOLEY, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. SPRATT objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.
