

question that follows another electronic vote without intervening business, provided that the minimum time for electronic voting on the first in any series of questions shall be fifteen minutes. After a motion that the Committee rise has been rejected on a day, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may entertain another such motion on that day only if offered by the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations or the majority leader or their designee. After a motion to strike out the enacting words of the bill (as described in clause 7 of rule XXIII) has been rejected, the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may not entertain another such motion during further consideration of the bill. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommend with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. The time for debate on the following amendments shall be thirty minutes:

(1) The amendment by Representative Obey of Wisconsin pending when the Committee of the Whole rose on July 22, 1997, which shall be debatable for thirty minutes notwithstanding the time consumed on the amendment on July 22, 1997;

- (2) the amendment numbered 17;
(3) the amendment numbered 3; and
(4) the amendment numbered 21.
